Lawrence Henry Orde Woodd, Esquire, B.A., Magdalen College, Oxford, to be ten of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of May, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 5th day of February, 1876, and made in pursuance of section 23 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, it was ordered that certain arrangements as to the circuits constituted by the said Order, and as to sessions held under commissions for the discharge of civil and criminal business in the county of Surrey should be observed, subject to a provision whereby the said arrangements were limited in duration so as to operate with respect only to the first time after the date of the said Order, that Justices of Assize should go the several circuits as constituted by the said Order, and with respect only to the first sessions that should be held after the date of the said Order, under commissions for the discharge of civil and criminal business in the county of Surrey: And whereas it is expedient to revoke the said limitation:

It is therefore ordered by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her most Honourable Privy Council, as follows:—

So much of the said Order in Council as limits the duration of the arrangements therein contained as to circuits and as to sessions holden under commissions for the discharge of civil and criminal business in the county of Surrey is hereby revoked, and the said arrangements shall continue to operate until modified or revoked by any Order in Council hereafter to be made.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of May, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Pro-
