The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of William Innes, of 20, Abingdon-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Hazlitt, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 19th day of April, 1876, reporting that the bankrupt died at Horsbam, in the county of Sussex, on the 1st day of November, 1873, that he failed to file any statement of his affairs or surrender himself for examination before the Court upon the day appointed for that purpose, that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Trustee that the bankrupt was, at the date of the order of adjudication, possessed of any property which could be realized for the benefit of his creditors, save and except that which is set out as realized in the account thereunto annexed and marked A, that the reason of there not having been any dividend paid to the bankrupt's creditors is that the estate did not realize a sufficient sum to satisfy the Solicitor's taxed costs, and that upon these grounds and the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection it is desirable to close the bankruptcy, now upon hearing Mr. Michael Banes, the Trustee, and reading the affidavit of Harry Egerton Knight, sworn the 1st day of June, 1876, and the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 15th day of June, 1876, the Court being satisfied that the facts of the case as set forth in the report of the Trustee are correct, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said William Innes has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 16th day of June, 1876.
