TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1876.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of June, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth years of our reign, intituled "The Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, one thousand eight hundred and "seventy-five," it is amongst other things enacted that, save as therein otherwise provided, the Militia shall be trained and exercised for not less than twenty-one days, and not more than twenty-eight days, in every year, at such times, and at such places, in any part of the United Kingdom as Her Majesty may appoint; and also that Her Majesty may from time to time, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order that the period of training and exercise in any year, of all or any part of the Militia, be extended, but that so that the whole period of training and exercise be not more than fifty-six days:

And whereas it is expedient that the training of the Durham Artillery, Forfar and Kincardine Artillery, and the Donegal (Prince of Wales' Own) Regiments of Militia should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six:

Now therefore Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct that the period of training and exercise of the Durham Artillery, Forfar and Kincardine Artillery, and Donegal (Prince of Wales' Own) Regiments of Militia shall, for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, be extended, under the provisions of the said recited Act, from twenty-eight days to thirty-four days.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of June, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council of the 5th day of February, 1876, made in pursuance of Section 23 of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, the then existing circuits were discontinued, and temporary arrangements directed whereby new circuits were constituted; viz., the Northern Circuit, the North Eastern

Circuit, the Midland Circuit, the South Eastern Circuit, the Oxford Circuit, the Western Circuit, and the North and South Wales Circuit, and provision was made for the issue of commissions for the discharge of civil and criminal business in the county of Surrey, which was not included in any of the circuits constituted as aforesaid:

And whereas by Order in Council of the 17th day of May 1876 so much of the said Order of the 5th day of February 1876 as limited the duration of the arrangements therein contained as to circuits, and as to sessions holden under commissions for the discharge of civil and criminal business in the county of Surrey was revoked, and it was ordered that the said arrangements should continue to operate until modified or revoked by any subsequent Order in Council:

And whereas by the said 23rd Section of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, it was provided that all enactments relating to the power of Her Majesty to alter the circuits of the Judges or places at which assizes are to be holden, or the distribution of Revising Barristers amongst the circuits, or otherwise enabling or facilitating the carrying the objects of the said section into effect and in force at the time of the passing of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, should continue in force, and should, with the necessary variations, if any, apply so far as they were applicable to any alterations in or dealings with circuits or places at which assizes are to be holden, made or to be made after the passing of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, or to any other provisions of any Order made under the section now in recital, and that if any such Order were made for the issue of commissions for the discharge of civil and criminal business in the county of Surrey as before mentioned in the said section that county should, for the purposes of the application of the said enactments, be deemed to be a circuit, and the senior Judge for the time being, so commissioned, or such other Judge, as might be for the time being designated for that purpose by Order in Council should in the month of July or August in every year appoint the Revising Barristers for that county and the cities and boroughs therein, and that the expression "assizes" in that section should be construed to include sessions under any commission of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery, or any commission in lieu thereof, issued under the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873:

And whereas by the 3rd section of the Revising Barristers Act, 1873, it was enacted that Her
