UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 15th day of July, 1876, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, as shown by the statement thereunder written, but that no dividend has been paid or is payable to the said creditors, in consequence of the property so realized being insufficient to pay the taxed costs incurred in realizing such property, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the said bankrupt has been so realized as aforesaid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John Thomas has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 15th day of July, 1876.

[Extract from the Edinburgh Gazette of July 11, 1876.]

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Burrell, Shipowner and Shipping Agent in Glasgow, presented on 31st May, 1876, to the Lords of Council and Session (First Division,—Mr. Broun, Clerk), a Petition, praying their Lordships to stop all actions and suits in relation to his liability as owner of the s.s. "Fitzmaurice," of Glasgow, in respect of the collision, on 4th February, 1876, between that vessel and the s.s. "Dunluce Castle," of Glasgow; to order intimation, answers, and claims, and thereafter to limit his liability as owner of the s.s. "Fitzmaurice" in respect of said collision; to rank such claimants as shall have claimed according to their respective rights in the premises, to exclude any other claimants who do not come in within such time as their Lordships should fix; and to make such order as to the said William Burrell finding security as to their Lordships should seem proper: on which Petition their Lordships, on 1st June, 1876, pronounced an Interlocutor, inter alia, ordering answers and claims to be lodged in fourteen days after intimation, and restraining all actions for damages on account of the said collision. The period for lodging answers and claims having expired, their Lordships have pronounced the following further Interlocutor:—"Edinburgh, 6th July, 1876.—The Lords allow the Petition to be amended as craved, and appoint the said Petition, as amended, to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute Book for eight days; further, of new allow claims by all parties having, or pretending to have, interest in the premises, to be lodged and received by the second Box-day in the ensuing vacation, under certification that parties failing so to lodge their claims shall be excluded from participation in the fund for division; and appoint this Interlocutor to be advertised and published once in each of the London Gazette, the Edinburgh Gazette, the Times, the Scotsman, the Glasgow Herald, and the Shipping and Mercantile Gazette newspapers.
