AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 21st day of July, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme having reference to the parish of Burnsall in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas the said parish of Burnsall is a parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, that is to say, of the benefice and rectory of Burnsall.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon acting under and in pursuance of the Act hereinbefore mentioned, has submitted to us a plan bearing date the twentieth day of June in this present year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six for constituting the said two medieties of the said benefice of Burnsall into separate benefices by the names in the said plan appearing and for making certain arrangements which are likely in the opinion of the said bishop and also in our opinion to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in the said parish of Burnsall.

"And whereas the said plan (as by the same appears) has the consent of the patrons of the first mediety and of the patron of the second mediety of the said benefice of Burnsall and also has the consent of the rector or incumbent of the first mediety and of the rector or incumbent of the second mediety of the same benefice.

"And whereas the said plan is as follows that is to say:—

"PLAN for a Severance of the Medieties of the Benefice of Burnsall.

"To the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"I Robert Lord Bishop of Ripon under and by virtue of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty chapter 113 section 72 and of any other authority enabling me in this behalf have with the consent of Susan Dorothea Graham and Mary Jane Louisa Graham both of Longley Hall in the county of York Spinsters, patrons of the first mediety of the benefice (that is to say of the rectory and parish church) of Burnsall in the West Riding of the said county of York and in my diocese of Ripon and of the Right Honourable George Grimston Earl of Craven patron of the second mediety of the said benefice testified as hereinafter is mentioned and with the consent also of the Reverend Henry Theodore Cavell Clerk in Holy Orders rector of the said first mediety of the said benefice and of the Reverend Charles Henry Carlisle Clerk in Holy Orders rector of the said second mediety of the said benefice also testified as hereinafter is mentioned framed the following plan for constituting the said two medieties separate benefices and for making other arrangements such as I judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in the parish of Burnsall but so as not to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent and I do hereby submit the said plan for your consideration and request that the same may be carried into effect as in the said Act is provided.

"Plan.

"Whereas the rectory and parish church of the parish of Burnsall within the diocese of Ripon hath been from time immemorial divided into and is now held in two medietyes being the first and second medietyes of the benefice of Burnsall hereinbefore referred to. And the rectors of the two medietyes have from time immemorial had joint cure of souls within and over the parish of Burnsall aforesaid.

"And whereas the said Henry Theodore Cavell is the rector of the first mediety of the said benefice of Burnsall and the said Charles Henry Carlisle is the rector of the second mediety of the said benefice as aforesaid.

"And whereas the said parish of Burnsall contains three churches namely, the parish church of the said parish of Burnsall which is consecrated by the name of the Church of Saint Wilfrid and two parochial chapels one of which chapels is situate in the township of Coniston and is consecrated by the name of the Church of Saint Mary and is distant from the said parish church of Saint Wilfrid five miles and five furlongs or thereabouts; and the other of which chapels is situate in the township of Rilston and is consecrated by the name of the Church of Saint Peter and is distant from the said parish church of Saint Wilfrid four miles and seven furlongs or thereabouts.

"And whereas there are duly consecrated churchyards or burial grounds belonging to each of the said three churches.

"And whereas the endowments of the said first mediety of the said benefice of Burnsall consist partly of certain glebe lands and houses situate in certain townships of the said parish of Burnsall which glebe lands and houses are named or described in the first schedule hereunder written and are delineated on the plan annexed hereto marked A and are thereon coloured pink and partly of one undivided moiety of certain commuted tithe rent-charges which are set out and specified in the third schedule hereunder written which tithe rent-charges amount in all to six hundred pounds fourteen shillings and four pence per annum and are exclusively charged upon and issuing out of certain lands in various townships within the said parish, and partly of a moiety of the surplice fees of the said parish.

"And whereas the endowments of the said second mediety of the said benefice of Burnsall consist partly of certain glebe lands and houses situate in certain townships of the said parish of Burnsall which glebe lands and houses are named or described in the second schedule hereunder written and are delineated on the said plan annexed hereto marked A and are thereon coloured yellow; and partly of the other undivided moiety of the said commuted tithe rent-charges mentioned and specified in the said third schedule hereunder written; and partly of the other moiety of the surplice fees of the said parish.

"And whereas the concurrent jurisdictions of the said rectors of the first and second medietyes of the said benefice of Burnsall over the said parish and parish church of Burnsall have for a long time been found to be inconvenient and it is desirable that the said two medietyes should be constituted separate benefices each with separate and exclusive cure of souls.

"And whereas it is my opinion and that of the consenting parties hereto that one of the said two proposed separate benefices should have for the area of its cure so much of the said parish of Burnsall as is comprised within and consists of that part of the same parish which is described in the fourth schedule hereunder written that is to say, of the townships of Coniston, Kilnsey, Bordley, Hetton, Rilston, and Cracoe, in the said parish and should be called 'The Rectory of Rilston-with-

Coniston' and that the other of the said two proposed separate benefices should have for the area of its cure so much of the said parish of Burnsall as is comprised within and consists of that part of the same parish which is described in the fifth schedule hereunder written that is to say of the townships of Hartlington, Thorpe, and Burnsall, in the said parish and of that part of the township of Appletreewick in the same parish, which is also mentioned in the same schedule, and should be called 'The Rectory of Burnsall.'

"And whereas it is my further opinion and that of the said consenting parties hereto that upon the intended separation of the said two medietyes and their formation into two separate benefices taking effect as is hereinafter proposed the said glebe lands which will then form part of the endowments of the said intended rectory of Burnsall should be charged with an annual rent of sixty pounds payable to the rector for the time being of the said intended rectory of Rilston-with-Coniston.

"Now I the said Robert Bishop of Ripon with the consent of the said Susan Dorothea Graham and Mary Jane Louisa Graham and with the consents of the said George Grimston Earl of Craven and with the consents of the said Henry Theodore Cavell and of the said Charles Henry Carlisle testified by their respectively signing and sealing this plan do propose as follows:—

"1. That the said benefice and rectory of Burnsall (now held in medietyes as aforesaid) shall be forthwith divided into two separate benefices and rectories each with separate and exclusive cure of souls.

"2. That one of the said two separate benefices or rectories shall be called the benefice and rectory of Rilston-with-Coniston and shall have for the area of its cure all that part of the ancient parish of Burnsall aforesaid which as hereinbefore mentioned is described in the fourth schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed marked B and is thereon edged with the colour pink and that the said parochial chapel of Saint Peter in the township of Rilston shall be the parish church of the said benefice and rectory and that the said parochial chapel of Saint Mary in the township of Coniston shall be a chapel of ease to such parish church and that the freehold of the site of the said church of Saint Peter and of the site of the said chapel of Saint Mary and of the sites of the churchyards or burial grounds attached or belonging to the said church and chapel shall be vested in the rector for the time being of the said benefice and rectory of Rilston-with-Coniston.

"3. That the other of the said two separate benefices or rectories shall be called the benefice and rectory of Burnsall and shall comprise all the remainder of the said ancient parish of Burnsall being all that part of the same parish which as hereinbefore mentioned is described in the fifth schedule hereunder written all which lastly mentioned part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the said map or plan hereunto annexed marked B and is thereon edged with the colour yellow; and that the said parish church of Saint Wilfrid in the township of Burnsall shall be the parish church of the said benefice and rectory of Burnsall and that the freehold of the site of the said church of Saint Wilfrid and of the churchyard or burial ground attached or belonging thereto shall vest in the rector for the time being of the said benefice and rectory of Burnsall.

"4. That each of the said two separate benefices shall be (as is aforesaid) a rectory and a benefice representative and the spiritual persons serving the same respectively shall be rectors, and shall have the exclusive cure of souls within and over the respective areas aforesaid and shall be subject to all laws provisions and regulations as to presentation and appointment and as to institution collation and induction and to all such jurisdiction of the bishop or other jurisdiction as is by law now applicable to holders of benefices and to their appointment to the same.

"5. That the endowments of the said intended benefice and rectory of Rilston-with-Coniston shall consist firstly of all the houses and lands forming as aforesaid part of the present endowments of the said first mediety of Burnsall which are set out in the said first schedule hereunder written, secondly of one moiety of the said commuted tithe rent-charges amounting together to the sum of six hundred pounds fourteen shillings and four pence which as is hereinbefore mentioned are set out and specified in the third schedule hereunder written and of one moiety of all other (if any other) tithe rent-charges arising in or accruing out of the said parish of Burnsall and now forming part of the said present endowments of the said two medieties or either of them and thirdly of the clear annual sum or yearly rent of sixty pounds to be for ever issuing and payable out of all the glebe lands and houses mentioned in the said second schedule hereunder written and now forming part of the endowments of the said second mediety of Burnsall such annual sum or yearly rent to be payable to the rector for the time being of the said intended rectory of Rilston-with-Coniston by equal half yearly payments in each and every year without any deduction (property or income tax only excepted) the first of such half-yearly payments to be made at the expiration of six calendar months from the day on which the proposed separation of the said two medieties and their formation into separate benefices and rectories shall take effect and that the same endowments firstly and secondly hereinbefore stated shall be held and enjoyed by the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said intended benefice and rectory of Rilston-with-Coniston as fully and freely and with the same rights and beneficial interest therein as the same have heretofore been held and enjoyed by the rector for the time being of the said first mediety of the said benefice of Burnsall.

"6. That banns of matrimony shall be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials shall continue to be performed and solemnized in the two churches of the said intended benefice and rectory and cure of Rilston-with-Coniston, and that the fees for all such offices duly performed and solemnized in either of such churches and all ecclesiastical dues offerings and other emoluments arising from or within the limits of that part of the said ancient parish of Burnsall which as hereinbefore mentioned is described in the fourth schedule hereunder written and which are usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall belong solely and exclusively to the rector of the said intended benefice and rectory of Rilston-with-Coniston.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and six; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an union of two benefices, situate within the City and Diocese of London; to wit, the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Mary-le-bow with Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and All Hallows, Honey-lane, and the benefice (being a rectory) of All Hallows, Bread-street, with Saint John the Evangelist.

“Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of London, has caused proposals (being amended proposals) for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices, to be laid before us, which proposals are prepared under the provisions of the said thirdly-mentioned Act, and are approved by the said John, Bishop of London, and are assented to by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by the Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Grocers of the City of London, who together are the patrons of the said benefice of Saint Mary-le-Bow with St. Pancras, Soper-lane, and All Hallows, Honey-lane, the See of Canterbury having the right of presenting to the same benefice for two turns of presentation out of every three turns, and the said Wardens and Commonalty having that right for the third turn out of every three turns; and are also assented to by the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ at Canterbury, who together are the patrons of the said benefice of All Hallows, Bread-street, with St. John the Evangelist, the See of Canterbury having the right of presenting to the said lastly-mentioned benefice for every one alternate turn of presentation, and the said Dean and Chapter having that right for every other alternate turn; and the same proposals are also assented to by the vestries of the five parishes concerned, that is to say, by the vestry of the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bow, by the vestry of the parish of Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, by the vestry of the parish of All Hallows, Honey-lane, by the vestry of the parish of All Hallows, Bread-street, and by the vestry of the parish of Saint John the Evangelist.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the other matters hereinafter contained should be made as are hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the said John, Bishop of London, and the said patrons of the said two benefices, and the said vestries of the said five parishes, are willing that the scheme for effecting the said union should embody certain modifications of the said amended proposals, and this present scheme does embody the same modifications accordingly, but otherwise is based upon and accords with the said amended proposals.

“And whereas, as part of the arrangements herein-before referred to, we intend, subject to such consents as are by law required, or are herein-after specified, to recommend hereafter to your Majesty in Council that under the provisions of the New Parishes Acts, or of the Church Building Acts, or of some or one of them, or under the provisions of some other statute or statutes enabling us in that behalf, a new district shall be constituted or created within the limits of the metropolis out of such cure or cures as shall be approved by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and by the joint vestries of the parishes of All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist, which district shall bear the name of All Hallows, and shall have a church and an endowment or part endowment provided as in this scheme is recommended and proposed, and that the patronage of the said district, and the church thereof, shall be vested in the See of Canterbury, as is herein-after recommended and proposed, in consideration of the provision of the endowment or part endowment lastly referred to.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said John, Bishop of London, and of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof they have to this scheme set their respective hands and episcopal seals), and with the consent of the said Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Grocers of the City of London, and of the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ at Canterbury (in testimony whereof the said Wardens and Commonalty have to this scheme set their common or corporate seal, and the said Dean and Chapter have to this scheme set their common or capitular seal), and with the consent of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Mary-le-Bow, and of the vestry of the said parish of Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and of the vestry of the said parish of All Hallows, Honey-lane, and of the vestry of the said parish of All Hallows, Bread-street, and of the vestry of the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist, (in testimony whereof this scheme is signed in the case of each vestry by the chairman of a meeting of the same vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent,) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council all that is in this scheme contained, under the several parts or headings herein-after mentioned as follows.

“PART I.

“As to the said proposed union itself, and certain immediate incidents thereof affecting incumbents, we recommend and propose:

“I. That the said benefice of Saint Mary-le-Bow with Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and All

Hallows, Honey-lane, and the said benefice of All Hallows, Bread-street, with Saint John the Evangelist, be united into one benefice under the style of 'The United Rectory of Saint Mary-le-Bow, Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, All Hallows, Honey-lane, All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist.'

"II. That if upon the day when this present scheme, being duly ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said present benefices shall be vacant, the union shall forthwith take effect; and if one only shall be then vacant, the union shall also forthwith take effect if the incumbent of the other of the said present benefices shall consent to be the incumbent of the united benefice; but if he shall not so consent, then the union shall take effect upon the then next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said present benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; and if upon the day when this present scheme, being duly ratified as aforesaid, shall be so published as aforesaid, both of the said present benefices shall be full, then the union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of either of them if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said present benefices shall consent to become the incumbent of the united benefice, and he shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice; but if he shall not so consent, then the union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said present benefices shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice, and that in either case it shall be lawful for the Bishop to admit to the united benefice such first incumbent (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the existing benefices), without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united benefice. Provided always, that until the time of the union taking effect the said two present benefices shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities of each of them, and of the incumbent of each of them as such, shall remain unaffected.

"PART 2.

"As to the parish church of the united benefice and certain officers and matters connected therewith, or with the church of All Hallows, Bread-street, we recommend and propose:

"I. That upon the union taking effect, the church of Saint Mary-le-Bow shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

"II. That after the union, the expense of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united benefice and providing the things requisite for divine service therein shall be defrayed by the five parishes of the united benefice, and shall, as between the same five parishes, be provided in the following proportions; that is to say, three equal fifth portions of such expense shall be defrayed by the three parishes of Saint Mary-le-Bow, Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and All Hallows, Honey-lane, and by the said three parishes in the proportions in which they have hitherto provided for the expense of their parish church, and the two remaining equal fifth portions shall be defrayed by the two parishes of All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist, in the proportions following; that is to say, as to three-fifths of the said two-fifths by the parish of All Hallows, Bread-street, and as to two-fifths of the said two-fifths by the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist.

"III. That upon the union taking effect, the font, communion table, and sacramental plate used in the church of All Hallows, Bread-street, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice, but if not needed for such church, then that the same or such of them, or so much of the said plate as shall not be needed, shall be transferred (subject to the approval of the Bishop of London and of the joint vestry of the two parishes of All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist) to the proposed new church of All Hallows, which is hereinbefore and herein-after mentioned, or to such other church within the diocese of London as the Bishop of London shall select.

"IV. That upon the union taking effect, if the tables of fees used in the two churches of Saint Mary-le-Bow and All Hallows, Bread-street, be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for all the five parishes of the united benefice; but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, then the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the use of the same five parishes, as if the same were one parish.

"V. That upon the union taking effect, the person who at that time shall hold the office of parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Mary-le-Bow with Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and All Hallows, Honey-lane, shall, without any further appointment, become the parish clerk of the united benefice; and that the person who at the time of the union taking effect shall hold the office of sexton of those parishes shall, without any further appointment, become the sexton of the united benefice, and that the parish clerk of the united benefice (if any) shall afterwards, upon any vacancy in that office, be appointed by the incumbent and joint vestries of the united benefice, but that such vestries shall not be under obligation to appoint a parish clerk, and that any future vacancy in the office of sexton of the united benefice shall be filled up by the joint vestries of the united benefice: Provided that no parish clerk or sexton of the united benefice shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he shall have possessed in his own original office before the union.

"VI. That if upon the union taking effect the present sextoness of the parishes of All Hallows and Saint John the Evangelist shall hold that office, she shall cease to hold the office of sextoness of such last-mentioned parishes, and shall by way of compensation during the remainder of her life receive an annual sum equal in amount to her present annual salary, which compensation shall be provided for her by us by means of an appropriation of an adequate capital sum out of the proceeds of the sale or sales herein-after mentioned of the church of All Hallows, Bread-street, and of the site thereof, and that such compensation shall commence as from the day on which divine service shall be performed for the last time in the said church of All Hallows, Bread-street, and shall be payable half-yearly, the first half-yearly payment to be made (together with the arrears, if any, which shall have become due) on such day as we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, shall determine after we shall be in possession of funds for that purpose provided out of the said proceeds.

"VII. That in the event of the vestries of the parishes of All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist expressing in writing under the hands of the churchwardens, addressed to the Registrar-General, their desire for such removal, the register books belonging to the said church of All Hallows, Bread-street, shall be removed to the custody of the Registrar-General if he can and will accept the same, but that in the event of the Registrar-General being unable or unwilling to undertake the custody of the said books, or of the said vestries not expressing as aforesaid their desire for such removal, the said books shall be transferred to the church of the united benefice.

“As to the endowments of the united benefices of Saint Mary-le-Bow, Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, All Hallows, Honey-lane, All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist, and the residence of the incumbent thereof, we recommend and propose:

“I. That upon the union taking effect, all the properties constituting the endowments of the said two present benefices of Saint Mary-le-Bow with Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and All Hallows, Honey-lane, and All Hallows, Bread-street, with Saint John the Evangelist, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred and annexed to the united benefice as the endowment thereof; but that the same endowments shall, by virtue of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be subject to a rent-charge of three hundred pounds per annum in favour of any district, to be created as herein-before and herein-after is mentioned, for the proposed church of All Hallows which is herein-before and herein-after mentioned, the same rent-charge to commence as from the date of the Order of your Majesty in Council whereby such district shall be created, and to be payable by equal half-yearly instalments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, and recoverable by action of debt when and if the same or any part thereof shall be over-due and in arrear.

“II. That upon the union taking effect, the land forming the site of that one of the following three houses, viz., the house No. 49, Friday-street, within the said City of London (forming part of the endowment of the benefice of All Hallows, Bread-street, with Saint John the Evangelist), or the house No. 1, Bow Church Yard, or the house No. 83, Queen-street, both of which are also within the said City (which last-named two houses constitute part of the endowment of Saint Mary-le-Bow with Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and All Hallows, Honey-lane,) which the Bishop of London for the time being shall, by a writing under his hand, to be deposited in the registry of the diocese, select for that purpose, shall, subject to the then subsisting lease (if any) of the same house, become the site of a rectory house for the united benefice, and that as soon after the union as possession can be obtained of such land, or if the present incumbent of Saint Mary-le-Bow with Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, and All Hallows, Honey-lane, shall be the first incumbent of the united benefice, then upon the avoidance by him of the united benefice, or so soon after such avoidance as such possession can be obtained, the house (if any) then standing on such site shall at the discretion of the said Bishop be either converted into a rectory house, or be taken down, and a new and suitable rectory house be erected, according to plans to be approved by us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, on the same site, out of monies to be provided in the manner herein-after proposed, or (if in the opinion of the said Bishop such a course be preferable) the land to be so selected as aforesaid, with the house, if any, standing thereon, shall be sold and disposed of by the incumbent of the said united benefice and by us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with a view to the purchase of another house, or of a site and the erection of a house thereon, which house and site shall be conveyed to us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, as and for the rectory house of the united benefice.

“As to the church of All Hallows, Bread-street, and the site thereof, we recommend and propose:

“I. That upon the union taking effect, the church of All Hallows, Bread-street, shall be taken down and its materials and site (except the part, if any, which may be taken by the Commissioners of Sewers for the said City of London as herein-after proposed) shall be sold by us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in such manner, and at such time or times, as shall in our opinion be expedient, the pulpit, bells, clocks, organ, and other furniture and fittings (except the font, communion table, and sacramental plate) being reserved to be appropriated, if required by the Bishop of London to be so appropriated, for the use of the said proposed church of All Hallows; but if not so required and appropriated, the same shall be sold, and the proceeds dealt with in the same manner as is herein-after recommended and proposed with respect to the proceeds of the sale of the materials and site of the church, and that all moneys arising from the sale or sales of the materials, site, furniture, or fittings of the said church of All Hallows, Bread-street, or of any part thereof, shall be paid over to us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for the purposes herein-after mentioned.

“II. That before the site of All Hallows Church is offered for sale as aforesaid, the Commissioners of Sewers for the City of London shall, for the purpose of widening Watling-street, have the option of taking, on the terms and conditions herein-after set forth, a portion of the site of the same church adjacent to and fronting upon Watling-street, of an uniform depth (measured in a line at right angles to the said street) of eight feet, provided such option be declared to us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in writing within forty-two days next after we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, shall have required the Commissioners of Sewers to declare the same.

“III. That if the Commissioners of Sewers shall elect to take such part of the site as before-mentioned, the part so taken shall be appropriated for widening Watling-street, and shall be dedicated to the public; and to no other purpose.

“IV. That as a part of the consideration for the land so to be taken and appropriated and dedicated, the said Commissioners of Sewers shall set apart a suitable portion of their cemetery at Little Ilford, in the county of Essex, to receive the remains of the dead now lying under the said Church of All Hallows, and shall at their own cost, and to the satisfaction of your Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, and of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, remove the said remains, and re-inter the same in the said portion of their cemetery, and erect over them an appropriate monument.

"V. That the said Commissioners of Sewers shall also, and as the remaining part of the consideration aforesaid, pay to the churchwardens of the two parishes of All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist, the sum of five hundred pounds, such payment to the said churchwardens to be made within twenty-one days next after the Commissioners of Sewers shall have declared their intention to take the land aforesaid.

"VI. That the said sum of five hundred pounds shall be held by the said churchwardens as a fund in relief of the proportions to become chargeable respectively against the two parishes they represent of the total expense of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united benefice after the same shall have been put into a fit and proper condition by the means hereinafter provided, and the capital of the said fund, or the interest thereof, or such portion thereof respectively as shall be from time to time necessary, shall be from time to time applied by such churchwardens accordingly.

"VII. That upon the delivery to us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of a certificate under the hands of the churchwardens of the said parishes of All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist that all the human remains have been duly removed from under the church of All Hallows, and re-interred as before provided, and that the sum of five hundred pounds has been paid to the said churchwardens, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, shall, if such re-interment shall have been effected to our satisfaction as aforesaid, and if we shall be thereto required by the Commissioners of Sewers, convey to the last-named Commissioners, at their expense, the land so to be dedicated to the public as aforesaid.

"VIII. That in the event of the said Commissioners of Sewers not electing, under the option herein-before given to them, to take the land herein-before mentioned, or of their failing to fulfil the conditions attached to the exercise of such option, then we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, shall, out of the proceeds of the sale of the site and materials of the said church of all Hallows, Bread-street, pay to the churchwardens of the said parishes of All Hallows and Saint John the Evangelist the sum of five hundred pounds, to be dealt with by the said churchwardens in like manner as is herein-before provided with respect to such money as might have been paid to them by the said Commissioners of Sewers.

"PART 5.

"As to the proceeds of any sale or sales of the materials, site, furniture, and fittings of the said church of All Hallows, Bread-street, or of any part thereof, we recommend and propose:

"I. That out of the said proceeds a sum sufficient to answer the compensation herein-before provided for the present sextoness of All Hallows, Bread-street, and (if necessary) the sum of five hundred pounds lastly herein-before mentioned, shall first be appropriated.

"II. That in the next place a capital sum of two thousand pounds shall, out of the said proceeds, be applied as a fund for putting the church of Saint Mary-le-Bow into a fit and proper condition to be the church of the united benefice, and, if necessary, reseating the same, and for keeping the same in repair, the same sum of two thousand pounds to be paid by us, when and as we shall have funds in hand for the purpose, to the churchwardens of the united benefice, and to be by them disbursed according to their discretion, subject nevertheless to the control of the ordinary.

"III. That in the next place a sum of not less than nine thousand pounds shall, out of the said proceeds, be expended by us and at our discretion in acquiring a site for and in erecting the proposed church within the limits of the metropolis, which is herein-before and herein-after mentioned, and for which a district is to be constituted or created as aforesaid to be called 'All Hallows,' and which church shall be built upon a site to be approved by the diocesan and to be duly conveyed to us, and shall be built according to plans to be approved by us.

"IV. That in the next place there shall be appropriated out of the said proceeds such a sum as will, when invested in three pounds per centum per annum Consolidated Bank Annuities (as the same shall be by us invested), provide a further endowment of one hundred and twenty pounds a year for the minister or incumbent of any district which may be constituted or created as aforesaid for the said proposed church of All Hallows.

"V. That in the next place there shall be appropriated out of the said proceeds a sum of one thousand pounds to be applied in or towards altering or rebuilding the house which shall be appropriated as the residence of the rector of the united benefice, or in or towards acquiring a new house or erecting a new house on a site to be so purchased as aforesaid, such sum of one thousand pounds to be invested by us in the three pounds per centum per annum Consolidated Bank Annuities, but the interest of the investment to be carried to the fund provided under and for the purposes of the twenty-second section of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"VI. That the remainder of the proceeds of the sale or sales to be so made as aforesaid, and the sum to be appropriated for the annuity to the said sextoness after the cesser of such annuity, shall constitute part of the said fund provided under and for the purposes of the twenty-second section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"PART 6.

"Upon the subject of patronage we recommend and propose as follows:

"I. That by virtue of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and as from the date of such Order, the right of patronage of and presentation to the said present benefice of All Hallows, Bread-street, with Saint John the Evangelist, which now belongs to the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ at Canterbury, (being every alternate turn in the whole advowson of the same benefice,) shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such Order, be transferred to and vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and his successors for ever, and that by virtue of the same Order and in like manner, and as from the same date, the whole advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the rectory of East Horsley, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, which now belongs to the See of Canterbury, shall be transferred by way of exchange to and shall be vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ at Canterbury, and their successors for ever.

"II. That the whole advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the united benefice of Saint Mary-le-Bow, Saint Pancras, Soper-lane, All Hallows, Honey-lane, All Hallows, Bread-street, and Saint John the Evangelist, shall belong to the Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Grocers of the City of London, and to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, in the proportions following; that is to say, the said Wardens and Commonalty shall be entitled to present thereto on the first vacancy in such united benefice, and the Archbishop of Canterbury shall be entitled to present thereto on the two next vacancies in the said united benefice, and afterwards the said Wardens and Commonalty shall be entitled to one turn in three, and the Archbishop of Canterbury to the other two turns of presentation to the same united benefice.

"III. That by virtue of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, the whole advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the cure of the said proposed district of All Hallows and of the church thereof (being the said proposed church of All Hallows) shall, as from the date of the constitution or formation of the same cure, be vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and his successors.

"Provided always, that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents and approval which by the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, are made requisite to the sale and appropriation, under the powers conferred by that Act, of the site of any church and to the mode of dealing with such site, shall be obtained to the sale and appropriation hereby proposed of the church of All Hallows, Bread-street, and the site thereof, and to the mode of dealing with such site which is hereby proposed.

"And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing as to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London, and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.
