The Queen has been pleased to appoint Thomas Martin Mathews and John Saffrey George, Esqrs., to be Members of the Legislative Council of the Bahama Islands.

Downing Street, August 29, 1876.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel Francis Edward Pratt, R.E., to be a Member of the Executive Council of the Colony of Fiji.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess."

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, that the Right Honourable Benjamin Disraeli, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Buckingham, is become a Peer of the United Kingdom, and that a writ of Summons hath been issued to him under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom to summon him to Parliament, and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for said county, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this twenty-seventh day of August, 1876.

H. BRAND, Speaker.

Crown Office, August 29, 1876.

MEMBER returned to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament, and the Consolidated General Orders of the High Court of Chancery in that behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 28th day of July, 1876, George Charles, of No. 17, Orsett-terrace, Hyde Park, in the county of Middlesex, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, Thomas Johnston, of No. 5, Raymond-buildings, Gray's-inn, in the same county, Gentleman, Frederick Petheram, of No. 39, Lombard-street, in the city of London, Gentleman, William Hepworth, of No. 18, Austin Friars, in the city of London, Esquire, Margaret Bowman Dorr, the wife of Charles Louis Napoleon Dorr, of Aize, in the Department of Marne, in the Republic of France, Gentleman, by Edward Dredge, of No. 5, Raymond-buildings aforesaid, Gentleman, her next friend, Edward Montague Macpherson, of No. 9, Hope park, Bromley, in the county of Kent, Esquire, and Evelyn Margaret Rollo Macpherson, of No. 9, Hope-park aforesaid, an infant under the age of 21 years, by George Wilson Macpherson, of No. 78, Eastgate-street, Winchester, in the county of Hants, Esq., her guardian, presented their Petition to this Honourable Court (to be heard before his Lordship V.-C. Bacon), praying that an agreement, dated the 17th day of May, 1876, made between the petitioners, George Charles, William Hepworth, Thomas Johnston, and Frederick Petheram, of the one part, and William Burnyeat, Joseph Charters Brown, Thomas Brown, John Moore, and William Barrow Turner, of the other part (being an agreement to grant, subject to the approval of this Honourable Court, to the said William Burnyeat, Joseph Charles Brown, Thomas Brown, John Moore, and William Barrow Turner, in the said agreement termed "the licensees," their executors, administrators, and assigns liberty, with the consent of the tenants thereof, to enter upon part of the above-mentioned estate or farm called New House, in the township of Lowside Quarter, in the parish of St. Bees, in the county of Cumberland, containing 42 acres, or thereabouts, to bore and search for iron ore within or under the same, and to do all acts necessary for that purpose for the period of three years from the date of such approval, at the yearly rent of £50, and a royalty rent for all ore gotten of one-sixth of the selling price at the pit mouth, and containing a provision in case the licensees should so desire, for the grant to them of a lease of the said mines and premises for the term and subject to the rent, royalties, covenants, conditions, and agreements therein mentioned or referred to), may be approved by the Court and carried into effect, and that power to grant a lease of the mines, minerals, veins, and seams of iron ore in and under the said lands in the said agreement mentioned, and also a power to grant leases of the mines and minerals within and under all or any of the above-named settled lands, and to enter into preliminary contracts for granting such leases in conformity with the first, second, and third above-mentioned Acts may be vested in the petitioners, George Charles and William Hepworth, or other the trustees or trustees for the time being, of an indenture, dated the 19th day of August, 1873, such powers to be exercised with the consent of the said Edward Montague Macpherson during his life, and after his death at the discretion of the said trustees or trustees for the time being, and also for payment to the said trustees or trustee for the time being of the said indenture of the 19th August, 1873, of the monies to be set aside, as directed by the said first above-mentioned Act, out of the rents or payments payable under the said agreement, and to be reserved on the lease to be granted in pursuance thereof, and on any other such lease or leases as aforesaid, such monies to be invested by them or him in their or his names or name in £3 per cent. consolidated bank annuities, and the dividends to accrue thereon during the life of the said Edward Montague Macpherson to be paid to him or his legal personal representative, and also that the said George Charles, Thomas Johnston, and Frederick Petheram, or the survivors or survivor of them, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of an indenture, dated the 1st December, 1841, may be at liberty, with the consent of the said Margaret Bowman Dorr during her life, to exercise the power of sale contained in the same indenture, and that the said George Charles and William Hepworth, or the survivor of them, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said indenture of the 19th August, 1873, may be at liberty at the request of the said Edward Montague Macpherson during his life, and after his death at the discretion of the said trustees or trustee for the time being, to exercise the trust for sale contained in the same indenture so as to dispose of the lands, subject to the said power of sale and trust for sale respectively, with an exception or reservation of any mines or minerals within or under the same, with rights and powers of or incidental to the working, getting, or carrying away of such mines and minerals, and so as to dispose of such mines and minerals with or without such rights and powers, separately from the residue of the land, and in either case without prejudice to any subsequent exercise of the said power and trust respectively in respect of the excepted mines or minerals, or the undisposed of land, and also that so much of the costs of the said application as should not be paid by the said licensees under the said agreement of the 17th of May, 1876, may be raised and paid by the petitioners, George Charles and William Hepworth, out of any capital trust funds in their possession, subject to the trusts of an indenture of settlement, dated the 19th day of August, 1873. And notice is hereby given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in Chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the offices of Messrs. Johnston and Harrison, No. 5, Raymond-buildings, Gray's-inn, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 24th day of August, 1876.
