THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

LITCHAM FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 26th day of May, 1876, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting for the combined Petty Sessional Division of Mitford and Launditch, in the county of Norfolk, that a Fair has been annually held at Litcham, in the said division of the said county, on the 1st day of November, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished:

2. On the 30th day of September, 1876, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, August 30, 1876.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

BURTON-UPON-TRENT FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By memorial, dated the 2nd day of August, 1876, a representation has been duly made to me by the Burton-upon-Trent Town Commissioners, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held within their district on or during nine days (Sundays excepted) in the month of October, such nine days terminating on the 29th day of October, unless such last-mentioned day falls upon a Sunday, and then such nine days terminate on Monday, the 30th day of October, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be held on or during a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held, and that it should be henceforth held on the 28th and 29th days of October in each year, unless either of such days shall in any year happen to be Sunday, then such Fair in that year shall be held upon that one of such two days which is not Sunday, and upon the following 30th day of October.

2. On the 30th day of September, 1876, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the said proposed alteration in the time for holding the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Proposed Abandonment of the Railways authorized by the "Northampton and Banbury Railway (Extensions) Act, 1865."

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," and "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," the Northampton and Banbury Junction Railway Company have made application to the Board of Trade in writing, setting forth that the said Company are desirous that the following railways, by the "Northampton and Banbury Railway (Extensions) Act, 1865," authorized to be made should be abandoned, that is to say:—

No. 1. A railway commencing in the parish of Chipping Norton, in the county of Oxford, by a junction with the Chipping Norton Branch of the Great Western Railway, at a point about three hundred and fifty yards westward of the passenger station thereof, and terminating in the parish of Bloxham, in the same county, in a field belonging to and in the occupation of John Painter, about two hundred yards northward of the public highway leading from the north end of the village of Bloxham towards Tadmarton:

No. 2. A railway commencing in the parish of Bloxham, in the county of Oxford, from and out of the intended Railway No. 1, at the termination thereof before described, and terminating in the parish of Warkworth, in the county of Northampton, by a junction with the Great Western Railway about five hundred yards south of the passenger station of that railway at Banbury:

No. 3. A railway commencing in the hamlet or township of Bodicote, otherwise Boddicott, in the parish of Adderbury, and county of Oxford, from and out of the intended Railway No. 2 in a field belonging to Edward Cardwell, and in the occupation of Webb Deer, situate on the easterly side of and adjoining the Oxford Canal, and about four hundred yards south of the boundary dividing the parishes of Adderbury and Banbury where the same crosses the said canal, and terminating in the parish of Middleton Cheney, in the county of Northampton, by a junction with the Banbury Extension Line of the Buckinghamshire Railway, about two hundred and forty yards south-eastward of the milestone thereon indicating seventy-seven miles from London:

No. 4. A railway (described as No. 6 in the deposited plans and sections) commencing in the parish of Blockley, in the county of Worcester, by a junction with the Great Western Railway, at or near the south-eastern end of the passenger platform of the Blockley Station thereon, and terminating by a junction with the intended railway No. 1 at the termination thereof before described, in the parish of Bloxham, and county of Oxford

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade by sending a written statement thereof by post, on or before the 17th day of October, 1876, addressed to the Assistant-Secretary, Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall, S.W.

Signed this 28th day of August, 1876.

J. Wilson Theobald, Secretary.
