Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1876.

[The following to be substituted for the Notification which appeared in the Gazette of 18th August, 1876.]

Foreign Office, August 9, 1876.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint William Henry Newman, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Vice-Consul in Siam.

Board of Trade, 1, Whitehall, September 11, 1876.

THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Decree of the French Government respecting the free admission of goods destined for the Universal Exhibition to be held at Paris in 1878. The provisions of the Decree are as follows:—

The Exhibition buildings, &c., will be constituted a Customs Entrepôt. Articles intended for exhibition may be forwarded direct to the building either under the conditions of international or ordinary transit, and with exemption from the statistical duty. Goods forwarded by international transit will not be subject to Customs' examination; goods forwarded by ordinary transit will receive only a summary examination and the seals of the Customs will be affixed gratuitously. Goods admitted to the Exhibition which shall be delivered for consumption, will, whatever their origin, be subject only to such duties as are applicable to similar produce of the most favoured nation.

Official Notice.

Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

I JAMES FARRER, of Ingleborough, hereby give notice, that in consequence of there being several vessels of the name of "Gipsey Queen," and of my place of residence being Ingleborough, near Lancaster, it is my intention to apply to the Board of Trade, under Section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of my ship "Gipsey Queen," of Cowes, official number 16,625, of gross tonnage 199 tons, of register tonnage 199 tons, heretofore owned by myself, for permission to change her name to "Ingleborough," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Lancaster, as owned by myself.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at Ingleborough, this 8th day of September, 1876.

James Farrer.
