Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1876.

Whitehall, October 13, 1876.

THE Queen has been pleased to grant the office of Her Majesty's Advocate for Scotland unto William Watson, Esq., Her Majesty's Solicitor-General for Scotland, in the room of the Right Honourable Edward Strathearn Gordon, appointed a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary by the style and title of Baron Gordon, of Drumearn, under the provisions of "The Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1876."

Downing Street, October 11, 1876.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint James Herman de Ricci, Esq., to be Substitute Procureur and Advocate-General for the Island of Mauritius.

*War Office, Pall Mall,
13th October, 1876.*

Chaplains' Department, The Reverend Joseph H. Sutton Moxly to be Chaplain of the Fourth Class, from the 17th March, 1876, such ante-date not to carry back allowances.

EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1875 (38 Vic., c. 17.)

WHEREAS by Section 68 of the above-named Act, it is provided as follows:—

"The Council of any Borough which is assessed to the county rate of any county by the Justices of such county, and the Commissioners of any Improvement District, may, by order of a Secretary of State made upon the application of such Council or Commissioners, and published in the London Gazette, be declared to be a Local Authority for the purposes of this Act, and thereupon shall become a Local Authority accordingly for such part of their borough or district as is not included in any harbour, to the exclusion of the Justices in Petty Sessions."

And whereas an application has been made to me by the Council of the borough of Rochdale to be declared a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act, in accordance with the provision aforesaid.

Now I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, in virtue of the powers contained in the said section, declare the Council of the borough of Rochdale to be a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, October 12, 1876.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

GRAYS THURROCK FAIRS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 6th day of October, 1876, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Division of Orsett, in the county of Essex, that Fairs have been annually held on the 23rd and 24th days of May, and on the 20th day of October, in the parish of Grays Thurrock, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should be abolished:

2. On the 11th day of November, 1876, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, October 11, 1876.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 125.)—IRELAND—EAST COAST.

Light Vessel Marking Wreck off Kish Bank.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 169, dated 20th November, 1875, and No. 174, dated 27th November, 1875,—

Information has been received from the Commissioners of Irish Lights, that the light vessel moored to the eastward of the wreck of H.M.S. "Vanguard," off Kish Bank, was, on the 29th September, 1876, replaced by another light vessel.

The present light vessel, which is painted green, exhibits (as heretofore) a revolving green light every minute; a gong also is sounded in thick or foggy weather. The vessel is in other respects similar to the former, but has only one mast, instead of three.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

9th October, 1876.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty

Thames Conservancy Navigation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Conservators of the River Thames propose to make the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of the River Thames:—

The Conservators of the River Thames in exercise of the powers and authority vested in them by the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864, "The Thames Navigation Act, 1866," "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1867," and "The Thames Navigation Act, 1870," and of every other authority them hereunto in anywise enabling, do order and direct as follows, that is to say—

1. Bye-law No. 14 of the Bye-laws of 1872 for the regulation of the navigation of the River Thames, allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council, on the 5th February, 1872, shall, after these present Bye-laws shall have been allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council, be and the same is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof—

2. All vessels navigating the river between the Albert Bridge, at Chelsea, and Charlton Pier, shall be navigated singly and separately, except small boats fastened together or towed alongside or astern of other vessels, and except vessels towed by steam.

3. Vessels towed by steam shall be placed two abreast, if more than four in number and not more than six shall be towed together at one time.

4. Above and to the westward of the Albert Bridge, at Chelsea, six vessels, and no more, may be towed together in a single line at one time, the distance between any two of the vessels so towed shall not exceed 50 feet.

5. Bye-law No. 16 of the Bye-laws of 1872 for the regulation of the navigation of the River Thames, allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council, on the 5th day of February, 1872, and Bye-law No. 8 of the Bye-laws of 1875, approved by Her Majesty in Council, on the 17th day of March, 1875, shall, after these present Bye-laws shall have been allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council, be and the same are hereby, repealed, and in lieu thereof—

6. Every barge, boat, lighter, and other like craft of and under 50 tons burden shall, when under way, have at least one male person constantly on board for the navigation and management thereof, and every barge, boat, lighter, and other like craft above 50 tons burden shall, when under way, have at least two male persons on board for the above purpose, except when being towed with or without steam power, or being moved to or from or between any vessels or places a distance not exceeding 200 yards, when such barge, boat, lighter, and other like craft of whatever tonnage shall not be obliged to have more than one male person on board for the navigation and management thereof; and in case of non-compliance with this present Bye-law, the Harbour Master may take charge of and remove such craft to such place as to such Harbour Master may seem fit, and the amount of the charges and expenses of taking charge thereof and of such removal shall be recoverable from the owner or owners or master thereof to the use of the Conservators, as provided by the Thames Conservancy Act, 1857.

In construing this Bye-law the word "burden" shall mean the burden or burthen of a barge, as registered at Waterman's Hall.

7. Every steam vessel before passing any vessel employed in dredging, or in lifting any sunken vessel, or in removing any obstruction from the river, shall ease her engines so as to reduce her speed while passing.

No 24372.

In construing this Bye-law the word "vessel" shall have the same interpretation as is assigned to it by Bye-law 2 of the Bye-laws of 1872.

8. All persons cutting weeds in the River Thames, or in any stream, canal, or watercourse communicating with the river, shall remove such weeds immediately after cutting so as to prevent their passing into the river, and no person shall throw, or cause to be thrown, any weeds, grass, or matter of a like nature into the River Thames, or into any stream, canal, or watercourse communicating with the river.

9. Any person committing any breach of, or in anyway infringing, any of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum, not exceeding £5, which said penalty shall be recovered, enforced, and applied according to the provisions of the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864.

Any objection to or representation respecting the above proposed Bye-laws should be sent to, or left with, the Secretary of the Conservators, at No. 41, Trinity-square, Tower-hill, on or before the 22nd day of November next.

E. Burstal, Secretary.

41, Trinity-square, October 12, 1876.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to John Keats and William Stephens Clark, of Street, in the county of Somerset, for an invention of "improvements in sewing machines," bearing date the 14th day of April, 1863 (No. 938).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the said John Keats, now residing at Wood Green, in the county of Middlesex, and John Batley, of Leeds, in the county of York, and of No. 7, Kensington Park-gardens, in the said county of Middlesex, Machinist and Engineer, intend to apply by petition under the 4th section of the Statute 5th and 6th William the Fourth, chapter 83, to Her Majesty in Council for a prolongation of the term of the above-mentioned Letters Patent, to be granted for the sole using and vending the said invention within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man. And notice is hereby further given, that the said petitioners intend to apply by counsel to the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council on the 27th day of November now next, or, if the said Judicial Committee shall not sit on that day, at the then next sitting of the said Judicial Committee, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition; and that on or before the said 27th day of November next, notice must be given of any opposition intended to be made to the said petition, and any person intending to oppose the said application must lodge a caveat to that effect at the Privy Council Office on or before that day. —Dated the 16th day of September, 1876.

Brook, Freeman, and Batley, Huddersfield.
