AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Earl of Derby.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Representation, dated at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, on the 15th November instant, from the Right Honourable and Most Reverend the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Right Honourable and Most Reverend the Archbishop of York, the Right Honourable and Right Reverend the Bishop of London, the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, humbly recommending to Her Majesty that the following be the rules under the Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1876, by which it is enacted that Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, with the advice of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any five of them, of whom the Lord Chancellor shall be one, and of the Archbishops and Bishops being members of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two of them, make rules for the attendance on the hearing of ecclesiastical cases as assessors of the said Committee of such number of the Archbishops and Bishops of the Church of England as may be determined by such rules, and that the rules may provide for the Assessors being appointed for one or more year or years, or by rotation, or otherwise, and for filling up any temporary or other vacancies in the office of Assessor:

"I. The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, and the Bishop of London shall be ex officio Assessors of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council on the hearing of ecclesiastical cases according to the following rota, that is to say, the Archbishop of Canterbury from this day until the 1st of January, 1878; the Archbishop of York from the 1st of January, 1878, till the 1st of January, 1879; and the Bishop of London from the 1st of January, 1879, until the 1st of January, 1880, and so on by a similar rotation for the period of one year each.

"II. The other Bishops of Dioceses within the Provinces of Canterbury and York shall attend as Assessors of the Judicial Committee on the hearing of ecclesiastical cases according to the following rota, that is to say, from this day until the 1st of January, 1878, the four Bishops who on this day are the four junior Bishops for the time being; seniority for the purpose of this Order to be reckoned from the date of appointment to the Episcopal See; from the 1st of January, 1878, till the 1st of January, 1879, the four Bishops who on the 1st of January, 1878, shall be the four Bishops next in order of seniority; and from the 1st of January, 1879, till the 1st of January, 1880, the four Bishops who on the 1st of January, 1879, shall be the four Bishops next in order of seniority, and so on by a similar rotation until the senior Bishop for the time being is reached, when the rotation shall be carried back to and again commenced with the junior Bishop.

“III. In the event of any one, or more than one, vacancy occurring in the office of Ecclesiastical Assessor, the vacancy or vacancies shall be filled up by the person or persons then next according to the rotations aforesaid.

“IV. A summons to attend on the hearing of every ecclesiastical case about to be heard before the said Judicial Committee shall be issued to the five Ecclesiastical Assessors for the time being; and no such case shall be heard before the said Judicial Committee unless there are at least three of such Assessors present at the hearing: Provided that the Assessors present at the commencement of the hearing of any such case shall continue to be the Assessors for that case until it shall be fully heard and disposed of, although their term of office, according to the rotation aforesaid, may in the meantime have expired: Provided also that in the event of the death, resignation, or absence, by reason of illness or other unavoidable cause, of any one of the Assessors present at the commencement of the hearing, the hearing of the case may proceed so long as at least two Assessors are present.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said Representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve the said rules made upon the recommendation of the Right Honourable the Most Reverend and Right Reverend Prelates, the Right Honourable Lord Chancellor, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee as aforesaid, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the same be punctually observed, obeyed, and carried into execution. Whereof the Most Reverend and Right Reverend the Archbishops and Bishops of Dioceses within the Provinces of Canterbury and York, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the 23rd day of October 1876, made in pursuance of section 5 of the Winter Assizes Act, 1876, it was ordered that the jurisdiction of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court at any session of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery held for the Central Criminal Court District in the months of November, December, or January, should extend to the thereafter-mentioned counties and parts of counties neighbouring to the said district; viz.:

County of Sussex,
County of Berks,
County of Herts,

and such parts of the counties of Essex, Kent, and Surrey as were not included in the Central Criminal Court District, as if such counties and part of counties were included in the Central Criminal Court District; and by the same Order the Central Criminal Court Act was applied to the said counties and parts of counties and offences committed therein as of the same counties and parts of counties were mentioned in that Act, subject to the modifications and exceptions therein-after stated:

And whereas doubts have been entertained whether by the said Order in Council the jurisdiction of the Central Criminal Court was extended to the county of the city of Canterbury locally situated within the county of Kent:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of section 5 of the said Winter Assizes Act, 1876, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her most Honourable Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the 23rd day of October, 1876, shall apply to the county of the city of Canterbury as if the same county had been expressly mentioned in the said Order.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by “The Seal Fishery Act, 1875,” it is enacted that when it appears to Her Majesty in Council that the Foreign States whose ships or subjects are engaged in the Seal Fishery in the area mentioned in the schedule to that Act, or any part of such area, have made or will make, with respect to their own ships and subjects, the like provisions to those contained in that Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that that Act shall, after the date mentioned in the Order, apply to the Seal Fishery within the said area, or such part thereof as may be specified in the Order:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty in Council that the Foreign States whose ships or subjects are at present engaged in the Seal Fishery in the area mentioned in the schedule to the said recited Act have made or will make, with respect to their own ships and subjects, the like provisions to those contained in the said recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that “The Seal Fishery Act, 1875, shall, after the date of this present Order, apply to the Seal Fishery within the area mentioned in the schedule to the said Act.

And Her Majesty, in exercise of the same power, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to fix the third day of April in every year as the day before which the Master and person in charge of, and every person belonging to, any British ship, and every British subject, shall not kill or capture, or attempt to kill or capture, any seal within the area mentioned in the schedule to the said Act.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS William Francis Phillpotts, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1859, and the Municipal Corporations Act, 1859, Amendment Act, for the purpose of determining the boundaries of the borough of Wrexham in the county of Denbigh, and of apportioning the Councillors thereto, transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his determination and apportionment in the following terms:—

"Whereas after the passing of the Act 22 Vict. c. 35 two-thirds in number of the Council of the borough of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, agreed to petition and the said Council did thereupon petition Her Majesty on the 27th day of April 1875 for the division of the said borough into wards, and that Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, would fix the number of wards into which the said borough should be divided, and Her Majesty was pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, on the 5th day of August 1875, to fix the number of wards into which the said borough should be divided, and to order and direct that such borough should be divided into four wards. And whereas Sir Fitzroy Kelly, Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, having been Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the North Wales Summer Circuit next after such Order in Council was made, did on the 11th day of September 1876, in conformity to the said Act, appoint me, William Francis Phillpotts, Barrister, for the purpose of determining and to determine the boundaries of such wards, and of apportioning and to apportion the number of Councillors of the borough among such wards.

"Now I, William Francis Phillpotts, do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively as follows, that is to say: the limits and boundary lines of the first ward (hereinafter referred to as the north ward) shall be the north-east side of so much of Regent-street as is within the bounds of the borough and the north-east side of Hope-street, the north side of High-street on the south, and the west side of so much of Chester-street as is within the bounds of the borough and the boundary line of the borough between the points where it cuts Regent-street and Chester-street respectively, and such north ward shall include the portion of the borough between these limits up to the middle of the boundary streets.

"The limits and boundary lines of the second ward (hereinafter for distinction referred to as the east ward) shall be so much of the east side of Chester-street as is within the boundaries of the borough and the east side of York-street, Mount-street, Salop-road, and of Wrexham fechan, and of so much of King's Mills-road as is within the bounds of the borough and the boundary line of the borough between the points where it cuts Chester-street and King's Mills-road respectively, and such east ward shall include the portion of the borough between the points aforesaid up to the middle of the boundary streets.

"The limits and boundary lines of the third ward (hereinafter referred to as the south ward) shall be the south side of High-street, the west side of Yorke-street and Mount-street and Salop-road and of Wrexham fechan, and of so much of King's Mills-road as is within the bounds of the borough, and the east side of Town Hill and of Bridge-street and Penybryn, and of so much of Ruabon-road as is within the bounds of the borough, and the boundary of the borough between the points where it cuts King's Mills-road and the points where it cuts Ruabon-road, and such south ward shall include the portion of the borough within the boundaries aforesaid up to the middle of the boundary streets.

"The limits or boundary lines of the fourth ward (hereinafter for distinction referred to as the west ward) shall be the north-west side of so much of Ruabon-road as is within the bounds of the borough, and of Penybryn and of Bridge-street and of Town Hill and the west side of Hope-street and the south-west side of so much of Regent-street as is within the bounds of the borough, and the boundary line of the borough between the point where it cuts Ruabon-road and the point where it cuts Regent-street, and such west ward shall include the portion of the borough between the limits aforesaid up to the middle of the boundary streets.

"And whereas there are twelve councillors of the said borough, I hereby apportion three councillors to each of the said wards.

"And so far as I am required or empowered to do so by the Municipal Corporation Act, 1859, Amendment Act, I hereby apportion the present councillors of the borough among the aforesaid wards as follows, that is to say, Thomas Eyton Jones, Robert Lloyd, and William Rowland shall be councillors for the north ward; John Meredith Jones, John Bernard Murless, and Thomas Roberts shall be councillors for the east ward; Samuel Thomas Baugh, Thomas Ingham, and Edward Smith shall be councillors for the south ward; and Isaac Shone, Robert James Williams, and William Sherratt shall be councillors for the west ward.

"(Signed) W. F. Phillpotts,

"of 9, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn,

"Barrister-at-Law.

"Wrexham, November 21, 1876."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth approve of the said determination by the said Barrister of the boundaries of the said wards, and of the said apportionment by him of Councillors amongst the said wards, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for

“ecclesiastical purposes,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, “That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme, in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent, in writing, under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect.”

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,” it is, amongst other things, further enacted “That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges, and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts, for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls, and shall not in anywise be subject to the control or interference of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such Order, if he or they shall have consented to such Order as aforesaid; but if such incumbent or incumbents shall not have so consented thereto, this last-mentioned provision shall not come into operation until the next avoidance of the benefice by the incumbent objecting thereto, or by the surviving incumbent objecting, if more than one shall object thereto, and in such case the last-mentioned provision shall forthwith after such avoidance come into operation, and shall be binding on all persons whatsoever.”

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Sarum hath made a representation in writing to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury in the words and figures following that is to say:—

“To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell
Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

“We the Right Reverend George Lord Bishop of Sarum do hereby represent to your Grace that to the vicarage and parish church of Bradford in the county of Wilts and our diocese of Sarum, belongs the ancient parochial chapelry of Westwood, the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

“That according to the last census the parish of Bradford aforesaid contains a population of three thousand four hundred and eighty-two persons, and the said chapelry of Westwood a population of four hundred and thirteen persons exclusive of those residing in the Bradford Union Workhouse which is situated in the said chapelry.

“That there is situated in the said chapelry, at a distance of two miles from the parish church aforesaid, a chapel which affords accommodation for one hundred and fifty persons, in which Divine service has hitherto been performed by the incumbent of the said vicarage or his stipendiary curate.

That the said parochial chapelry of Westwood is treated as a distinct parish for all civil purposes, and baptisms, marriages, churchings, and burials, have heretofore been, and now are, solemnized and performed in the said chapel and in the burial ground thereto belonging.

“That the charges and expenses of repairing and maintaining the church of Bradford aforesaid are defrayed by the inhabitants of that parish exclusively, and the parishioners or inhabitants of the said chapelry of Westwood have from time immemorial resorted to their chapel aforesaid and repaired and maintained the same exclusively, and have elected from amongst themselves chapel-wardens, as if the chapelry was a distinct and separate parish.

“That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants or landowners of the said chapelry of Westwood possess any legal rights, by faculty or otherwise, to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the said church of Bradford, or that any of the inhabitants or landowners of the said parish of Bradford possess any such legal right, by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the said chapel of Westwood.

“That the gross annual value of the said vicarage of Bradford with Westwood (exclusive of the annual value of the vicarage house and appurtenances) amounts to the sum of six hundred and eighty-six pounds or thereabouts arising from five hundred and eighty-one pounds three shillings and six pence rent-charges in lieu or commutation of tithes, the rents of certain houses in Bradford, and of nineteen acres three roods and sixteen perches of glebe land and hereditaments at Westwood, and surplice fees.

“That the said vicarage of Bradford with the chapelry of Westwood is discharged from the payment of first fruits and tenths.

“That by an indenture dated the twenty-eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy and made between the Reverend William Henry Jones, Clerk, Vicar of Bradford with Westwood aforesaid of the first part, the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy of the second part, and Simon Dunning of Parliament-street, Westminster, Gentleman, of the third part, in consideration of the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds paid by the said Governors as therein mentioned all the glebe lands, tithes, rents, rent-charges, moduses, compositions for tithes, fees, and all other emoluments of or belonging to the said benefice, were (in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament therein mentioned) granted and demised unto the said Simon Dunning his executors administrators and assigns for the term of thirty-five years nevertheless by way of mortgage, and for securing unto the said Simon Dunning in trust for the said Governors their successors and assigns the repayment of the said sum with interest at the rate and times, and in manner therein mentioned, and which sum was borrowed for improving the glebe buildings at Westwood aforesaid, and in respect of which there is now remaining due to the said Governors one hundred and twenty-five pounds with interest on the said last-mentioned sum from the twenty-eighth day of March last.

"That if the said chapelry of Westwood is separated from the mother church of Bradford aforesaid and constituted a separate benefice and the tithe commutation rent-charges arising within the said chapelry amounting to one hundred and ninety pounds per annum and the glebe lands and hereditaments containing nineteen acres three roods and sixteen perches or thereabouts situate in the same chapelry assigned and appropriated to the incumbent of such new benefice, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England are prepared in respect of the local claim on certain property to them belonging, situate and arising within the same chapelry to raise the net income of the incumbent of such new benefice to the sum of three hundred pounds per annum; also to make a grant of one thousand five hundred pounds towards the cost of providing a suitable house of residence for such incumbent; and further in consideration of the local claim on certain property to them belonging situate and arising within the said parish of Bradford to augment the income of the vicar of Bradford aforesaid by granting to him the annual sum of one hundred and twenty pounds as a stipend for an Assistant-Curate, and to discharge the balance of the principal and interest due to the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne in respect of the mortgage hereinbefore referred to.

"That the right of patronage of and to the vicarage and parish church of Bradford with the chapelry of Westwood aforesaid is vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Bristol and the said Reverend William Henry Jones is the present incumbent of the benefice.

"That it appears to us that under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament 1 and 2 Victoria chapter 106 and 2 and 3 Victoria chapter 49 the said parochial chapelry of Westwood may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Bradford and be constituted a separate benefice.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act we have prepared the following scheme, which together with the consent thereto of the patrons and incumbent of the said benefice, we do submit to your Grace to the intent that you may, if on full consideration and enquiry your Grace shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same, and such consent to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the scheme and consents in the said representation are in the words following, that is to say:—

"The SCHEME above referred to.

"That the said parochial chapelry of Westwood shall be separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Bradford and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name or style of 'The Perpetual Curacy of Westwood' of which the said chapel in the said parochial chapelry shall be the parish church.

"That the proposed separate parish and benefice shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Bradford, and the incumbent thereof shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the several rent-charges or other payments in lieu or commutation of tithes arising within or in respect of the said chapelry of Westwood amounting to one hundred and ninety pounds per annum and by the tithe commutation apportionment for the said chapelry awarded to the 'Rector of Westwood' and also the glebe lands and hereditaments containing nineteen acres three roods and sixteen perches or thereabouts situate in the said chapelry and particularly described and set forth in the said tithe commutation apportionment and all other (if any) the glebe lands belonging to the said vicarage of Bradford situate in the said chapelry, together with the herbage of the chapelyard and the surplice fees for marriages, churchings, and burials, or other ecclesiastical offices, solemnized or performed within the said proposed new benefice, and all dues, offerings, and other emoluments arising within or in respect of the same and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall belong and be attached to the said proposed separate benefice of Westwood for ever and be held received and enjoyed by the incumbent thereof for the time being accordingly.

"That the patronage or right of nomination of or to the said proposed new benefice of Westwood shall be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Bristol and their successors for ever.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry shall continue and be liable to the repairs and maintenance of the chapel of their own chapelry and to the expenses incidental to the due performance of Divine service therein, but shall not be liable to contribute to the repairs and maintenance of the parish church of Bradford nor of any church or chapel now or hereafter built elsewhere than within the limits of such chapelry, and that the inhabitants of such chapelry shall not, as such inhabitants, be entitled to any accommodation within the parish church aforesaid nor shall the inhabitants of Bradford aforesaid, as such inhabitants be entitled to any accommodation within the chapel of Westwood aforesaid.

"Given under our hand this nineteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

"George Sarum.

"The CONSENT above referred to.

"We the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Bristol, the patrons entitled to present or nominate to the vicarage and parish church of Bradford with the chapelry of Westwood in case the same were now vacant and I the Reverend William Henry Jones, Clerk, the incumbent of the same benefice do hereby signify our consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the said chapelry of Westwood from the said vicarage and parish church of Bradford and constituting the said chapelry a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"In witness whereof we the said Dean and Chapter have caused our common seal to be hereunto affixed, and I the said William Henry Jones have set my hand this nineteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

"William Henry Jones."

And whereas the said Lord Bishop hath transmitted the said scheme to the said Lord Archbishop together with the said consents.

And whereas the said Lord Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same with such consents as aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council by his report in writing dated the second day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six to the intent that Her Majesty in Council might in case Her Majesty in Council should think fit so to do make an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered that the said scheme be carried into effect.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," amended by an Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to the holding of benefices in plurality" it is, amongst other things enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the Province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto,

"such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to Her Majesty, as herein-after directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories or vicarages with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, may, within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said Archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue an Order or Orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only: and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to give directions for regulating the course and succession in which the patrons, if there be more than one patron, shall present or nominate to such united benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council that the Right Reverend William Basil Lord Bishop of St. David's as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectory of Kefnallys in the county of Radnor and the vicarage of Llandrindod in the same county having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the said Lord Bishop being in right of his see the patron or person entitled to present or collate to both the said benefices if the same respectively were now vacant had by a writing under his hand bearing date the seventeenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six signified his consent to the union of the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council we caused copies in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of St. David's our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the copy of the representation and notice before mentioned which was affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of Kefnllys and a certified copy of the copy representation and notice which was affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of Llandrindod (the original having been surreptitiously removed) are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"As witness our hand this second day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order that the said rectory of Kefnllys and the said vicarage of Llandrindod both in the county of Radnor and diocese of St. David's shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty chapter fifty and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Sudbrooke in the county and diocese of Lincoln for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of East Retford in the county of Nottingham and diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage nomination and presentation of and to the benefice of Sudbrooke aforesaid and to the church thereof is now vested in the Right Reverend Christopher by Divine permission Lord Bishop of Lincoln in right of his see.

entailing assurance on the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-five and made between Sir Richard Sutton Baronet (therein and hereinafter called Sir Richard Sutton the father and since deceased) of the first part John Sutton, of Jesus College Cambridge Esquire (since deceased) therein described as the eldest son of the said Sir Richard Sutton the father by Dame Mary Elizabeth his then late wife of the second part and the Reverend Joseph Banks Wright of Shelton Hall in the county of Nottingham Clerk and John Tidd Pratt therein described as of Abingdon-street in the city of Westminster Esquire (since deceased) of the third part after recitals whereby it appeared (inter alia) that under or by virtue of an indenture of settlement of the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty therein recited the said John Sutton as the first son of said Sir Richard Sutton the father by the said Dame Mary Elizabeth his wife was entitled to certain estates thereby settled (and which estates included the advowson and perpetual right of patronage nomination and presentation of and to the vicarage of the parish and parish church of East Retford in the county of Nottingham and diocese of Lincoln for an estate in tail male in remainder expectant on the decease of the said Sir Richard Sutton the father and reciting an agreement for the barring of the estate tail of the said John Sutton and for the making of the settlement intended to be effected by the indenture now in recital It is by the indenture now in recital witnessed that in pursuance of the said agreement they the said Sir Richard Sutton the father and John Sutton according to their respective estates and interests did grant bargain sell release and confirm unto the said Joseph Banks Wright and John Tidd Pratt amongst other hereditaments the advowson of the benefice of East Retford aforesaid to hold the same unto the said Joseph Banks Wright and John Tidd Pratt their heirs and assigns for ever nevertheless to the uses and upon and for the trusts intents and purposes and with and subject to the powers and provisos thereafter declared or expressed concerning the same (that is to say) to the use of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the father) and his assigns during his life without impeachment of waste remainder to the use of the said Joseph Banks Wright and John Tidd Pratt and their heirs during the life of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the father) upon trust to preserve contingent remainders with remainder to the use of the said John Sutton and his assigns during his life without impeachment of waste with remainder to the use of the said Joseph Banks Wright and John Tidd Pratt and their heirs during the life of the said John Sutton upon trust to preserve contingent remainders with remainder to the use of the first and every other son of the said John Sutton successively in tail male with remainder to the use of Richard Sutton therein described as the second son of the said Sir Richard Sutton the father now Sir Richard Sutton and hereinafter called Sir Richard Sutton the son and his assigns during his life without impeachment of waste with remainder to the use of the said Joseph Banks Wright and John Tidd Pratt and their heirs during the life of the said Sir Richard Sutton the son upon trust to preserve contingent remainders with remainder to the use of the first and every other son of the said Sir Richard Sutton the son successively in tail male with divers remainders over and in the indenture now in recital are contained powers for the said Joseph Banks Wright and John Tidd Pratt and the survivor of them and the heirs and assigns of such survivor at any time or times thereafter at the request and by the direction of the said Sir Richard Sutton the father during his life and after his decease at the request and by the direction of the said John Sutton and Sir Richard Sutton the son and the other persons therein named respectively as and when by virtue of the limitations thereinbefore contained they should respectively be in the actual possession of or entitled to the rents issues and profits of the said manors advowsons lands and other hereditaments thereby granted and released to dispose of and convey by way of absolute sale or in exchange for or in lieu of other manors lands and hereditaments to be situate in England or Wales all or any part of the manors advowsons messuages lands and other hereditaments thereinbefore granted and released (except the capital mansion house park and grounds called Norwood Park) and the inheritance thereof in fee simple to any person or persons for such price or prices in money or for such equivalent or recompense in manors lands and hereditaments as to them the said Joseph Banks Wright and John Tidd Pratt or the survivor of them or the executors administrators or assigns of such survivor should seem reasonable and for the purpose of effecting any such dispositions and conveyances absolutely to revoke the uses trusts charges powers and provisoes thereinbefore declared and by the same or any other deed or deeds to limit and appoint any use or uses of the advowsons lands and other hereditaments which it should be thought necessary or expedient to limit or appoint in order to effect any such dispositions or conveyances.

“And whereas under and by virtue of an indenture dated the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five enrolled and perfected as a disentailing assurance and made between the said Sir Richard Sutton the son of the first part Richard Francis Sutton Esquire the eldest son and heir apparent of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) of the second part and James Richard Upton of the third part and an indenture dated the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and made between the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) and Richard Francis Sutton of the first part the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) of the second part the said Richard Francis Sutton of the third part and the Reverend Thomas George Onslow Clerk and Reuben Bingham Esquire of the fourth part the hereditaments comprised in the said indenture of Settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four which now remain unsold stand limited (subject in whole or in part to charges for jointure and portions created under powers contained in the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four but which do not take effect in possession until after the death of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) to such uses and upon such trusts as the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) and Richard Francis Sutton should by deed jointly appoint and in default of and subject to any such appointment to the use to secure the said Richard Francis Sutton certain rent-charges during the joint lives of himself and his father and subject to the said rent-charges to the use of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) and his assigns during his life without impeachment of waste and in restoration and by way of confirmation of the former life estate of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) under the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four with divers remainders over and in the said indenture of the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five are contained powers of leasing and of sale and exchange and other powers to be exercised by the persons and in manner therein provided and it is by the said indenture of the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five provided and declared that nothing therein contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect any of the powers of leasing and of sale and exchange and other powers contained in the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and thereby annexed to the life estate thereunder of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) or made exercisable with his consent or at his request and that the uses estates and powers limited or created by the said indenture of settlement of the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five or to be limited or created under any of the powers therein contained shall and may from time to time (so far as relates to such of the said premises thereby assured as were comprised in the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four) be overreached by the exercise of any of the said powers contained in the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four in the same manner as if the said uses trusts estates and powers limited or created by the said indenture of the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five had been limited or created by the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and that the hereditaments to be purchased with the monies to arise by any sale or to be received for equality of exchange under the powers of sale and exchange contained in the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four shall (regard being had to the nature and tenure thereof) be settled and assured to the uses upon the trusts and with and subject to the powers provisoes agreements and declarations which shall be subsisting and capable of taking effect under or by virtue of the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and the said indenture of the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

“And whereas by an indenture dated the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six made between the said Joseph Banks Wright of the first part the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) of the second part and the said Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham of the third part after reciting the hereinbefore recited indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and various dealings with the estates therein comprised none of which affect the advowson of the said benefice of East Retford and reciting that in the fourth schedule thereunder written (which schedule comprised the said advowson) were set out the particulars of the only hereditaments in the county of Nottingham which then continued subject to the subsisting limitations of the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and that the said Joseph Banks Wright in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said indenture of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four contained was desirous of appointing the said Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham to be trustees of the said indenture in the place of the said John Tidd Pratt deceased and that the said Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham were willing to be appointed such trustees. It was by the now reciting indenture witnessed that in pursuance of such desire and in exercise of the power in the said indenture of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four contained and of every other power enabling him in that behalf He the said Joseph Banks Wright with the consent of the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) did appoint the said Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham to be trustees of the said indenture of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four in the place of the said John Tidd Pratt deceased and jointly with him the said Joseph Banks Wright and the said Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham respectively accepted the office of trustees of the said indenture. And it was also witnessed that pursuant to the directions in that behalf in the said indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four contained the said Joseph Banks Wright thereby granted all and singular the freehold messuages lands and hereditaments then vested in him the said Joseph Banks Wright as the surviving trustee of the said indenture of settlement upon the trusts thereof unto the said Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham their heirs and assigns to the use of the said Joseph Banks Wright Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham their heirs and assigns for ever nevertheless upon the trusts and with and subject to the powers and provisos upon with and subject to which the same premises respectively ought then to be held under or by virtue of the same indenture of settlement.

“And whereas the said Christopher Lord Bishop of Lincoln and the said Joseph Banks Wright Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham at the request of the said Sir Richard Sutton the son have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices and of the churches thereof may be rearranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed and it has been made to appear to us that it is in conformity with the intentions of and expedient for the objects contemplated by the said hereinbefore recited Acts to exchange the advowson and perpetual right of patronage and nomination of and to the rectory and parish church of Sudbrooke aforesaid for the advowson and perpetual right of patronage and nomination of and to the said vicarage and parish church of East Retford aforesaid so that the said advowson of Sudbrooke may after such exchange be vested in the said Joseph Banks Wright Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham to the uses and upon the trusts hereinafter expressed and so that the said advowson of East Retford aforesaid may be vested in the said Christopher Lord Bishop of Lincoln and his successors Bishops of Lincoln.

“And whereas by indenture already prepared and intended to be executed immediately after the publication in the London Gazette of this scheme and of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and to bear date the day of such publication as aforesaid and expressed to be made between the said Joseph Banks Wright Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham of the first part the said Sir Richard Sutton (the son) of the second part and the said Christopher Lord Bishop of Lincoln of the third part after reciting to the effect hereinbefore recited and the death of Sir Richard Sutton the father on the eleventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five and the death of the said John Sutton then Sir John Sutton on the fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three without having had any issue and that upon the death of the said Sir John Sutton without issue the said Sir Richard Sutton the son as the second son of Sir Richard Sutton the father succeeded to the baronetcy and entered into possession of the said settled estates and that the said John Tidd Pratt died on or about the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy all that the advowson and perpetual right of patronage nomination and presentation of and to the vicarage and parish church of East Retford aforesaid with the appurtenances are expressed and intended to be thereby appointed and assured unto and to the use of the said Christopher Lord Bishop of Lincoln and his successors Bishops of Lincoln for ever in exchange for and in consideration of the transfer of the advowson of Sudbrooke aforesaid contemplated by this scheme.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Christopher Lord Bishop of Lincoln testified by his having hereunto set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the said duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage nomination and presentation of and to the said benefice of Sudbrooke aforesaid and the church thereof together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging shall be assigned and transferred from the said Christopher Lord Bishop of Lincoln and his successors to and shall become and be thenceforth absolutely vested in the said Joseph Banks Wright Thomas George Onslow and Reuben Bingham and their heirs to the uses upon the trusts and with and subject to the powers provisos agreements and declarations which are subsisting and capable of taking effect under or by virtue of the said recited indenture of settlement of the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and the said indenture of the third day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five but not so as to increase or multiply charges or powers of charging such assignment and transfer nevertheless to be in exchange for the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage nomination and presentation of and to the said benefice of East Retford aforesaid and the church thereof.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, that the district of such Local Board of Health is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the District of such Local Board, and thereupon such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore-mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board, in like manner as to any parish or parishes, and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground, and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board, one month, at least, before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the Wallasey Local Board in the county of Chester, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said Local Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing, with certain exceptions, the burial-grounds attached to Saint John's Church, Egremont, and Saint Alban's Roman Catholic Church, Liscard, within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be appointed a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board:

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that the Wallasey Local Board in the county of Chester, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same) and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. The rates of postage and additional sum for registration to be henceforth charged by or under the authority of the Postmaster-General, in lieu of the rates and sums now payable in respect of postal packets of the several descriptions hereinafter mentioned, conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post between the United Kingdom and Canada (either by Canadian Packet Boat or via the United States), and also between the United Kingdom and Newfoundland, shall be the rates of postage and the additional sum hereinafter respectively mentioned (that is to say):—

(1.) On every post card posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Canada or Newfoundland, the rate of postage shall be one penny and one farthing.

- (2.) On every newspaper (either with or without a supplement or supplements) posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Canada or Newfoundland, the rate of postage for every four ounces in weight, or any fractional part of four ounces over and above the first or any additional four ounces in weight thereof, shall be the sum of one penny.
- (3.) On every bookpacket and on every pattern or sample packet posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Canada or Newfoundland or posted in Canada or Newfoundland addressed to the United Kingdom, the rate of postage for every two ounces in weight, or for any fractional part of two ounces over and above the first or any additional two ounces in weight thereof, shall, if prepaid, be the sum of one penny, and, if unpaid, or insufficiently prepaid, be the sum of two pence, but in the latter case credit shall be given for any postage already paid on such packet.
- (4.) The additional sum to be charged for the registration of any postal packet hereinbefore mentioned, shall be the sum of four pence, provided that all rates of postage chargeable on such packet, together with the said additional sum for the registration thereof, be fully prepaid.
2. All such postal packets as are hereinbefore mentioned shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered under and subject to the several regulations, conditions, prohibitions, and restrictions applicable thereto respectively, and hereunder written, that is to say:—

General Regulations and Conditions.

- (1.) There shall not be conveyed, or delivered for conveyance, by post (unless by the special permission in any case or class of cases of the Postmaster-General) any newspaper, packet, book packet, or pattern, or sample packet, the dimensions of which shall exceed two feet in length or one foot in breadth or depth, or the weight of which shall exceed five pounds, and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.
- (2.) There shall not be conveyed, or delivered for conveyance, by post any postal packet which shall contain anything which might, by pressure or otherwise, be rendered injurious either to the officers of the Post Office or to the contents of the mail bags, nor any book packet, or pattern, or sample packet which shall not be securely packed and guarded in such manner as to furnish complete protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office and to the contents of the mail bags, and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.
- (3.) There shall not be conveyed, or delivered for conveyance, by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any newspaper, supplement, publication, packet, or card having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if anything shall be posted which shall prima facie fall within the aforesaid prohibition it shall be stopped and submitted at the General Post Office in London to the inspection of an officer duly authorized in that behalf by the Postmaster-General.

- (4.) The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he shall consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage made payable by any regulation contained in this Warrant.
- (5.) In this Warrant the expression "United Kingdom" means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

As to Post Cards.

- (6.) Post cards, bearing an impressed stamp, shall be issued by the Postmaster-General, and the cards so issued, and no others, shall be deemed to be post cards within the meaning of this Warrant.
- (7.) The address and nothing else shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card which bears the impressed stamp, and no part of the address shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed across such stamp.
- (8.) Anything (including a letter or communication in the nature of a letter), may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card, which does not bear the impressed stamp.
- (9.) Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a post card, except a postage stamp or stamps in payment of any deficient postage, or additional sum for registration chargeable thereon, nor shall a post card be cut or folded, or otherwise altered.
- (10.) If any post card is posted without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, or is posted otherwise than in conformity with these regulations, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

As to Newspapers.

- (11.) The regulations and conditions made and prescribed by a Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 27th day of December, 1870, shall in all respects apply to newspapers conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, as mentioned and described in this Warrant.
- (12.) If any newspaper or package of newspapers be posted without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, it shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

As to Book Packets.

- (13.) In this Warrant the expression "book packet," shall mean and comprise not only books, but also all packets consisting of articles of the following kinds, not being trade patterns or samples of merchandize, that is to say:—
- (a.) Paper or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing, whether such paper or other substance be plain or with anything (except a letter or communication in the nature of a letter) written, printed, or otherwise impressed thereon, and whether the same be in the form of books, or in any other form.
- (b.) Printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.
- (c.) Photographs and other things of a like kind when not on glass or in frames containing glass, or any brittle substance of a like kind.

- (d.) Anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post, which shall be contained in the same packet.
- (14.) Every book packet shall be posted either without a cover or in an open cover, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination.
- (15.) No book packet shall be posted which shall contain anything sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or which shall contain any letter, or any communication in the nature of a letter, written on any part of the packet or the cover thereof (although the same may be open to inspection), or which shall contain any separate letter or communication in the nature of a letter, not being a circular within the meaning of these regulations; but any circular may bear the written signature and address of the sender, with his trade or profession, and the date.
- (16.) If any book packet, comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind, be posted without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, it shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.
- (17.) If any book packet, comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind, be sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively (13), (14), and (15), it shall be detained, and returned or given up to the sender thereof.
- (18.) If any book packet (except any packet comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind) be sent by post, otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively (13), (14), and (15), it shall be dealt with and charged in all respects as an unpaid letter.

As to Pattern and Sample Packets.

- (20.) No patterns or samples shall be of any intrinsic value, or consist of articles or things of a saleable nature, or having a value of their own apart from their mere use as patterns or samples.
- (21.) Patterns or samples shall, when practicable, be posted in covers open at both ends, and so that the same may be easily removed for the purpose of examination, nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles as cannot be posted in open covers may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, so as to enable the officers of the Post Office readily to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.
- (22.) There shall be no writing upon any pattern or sample packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, a manufacturer's or trade mark, or number, and the price of the articles, patterns, or samples of which are contained therein, nor shall there be any writing or other thing enclosed in any such packet, except the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, a manufacturer's or trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, patterns, or samples of which are contained therein, and any such permitted writing in any such packet may be on labels attached to the patterns or samples.

- (23.) If there shall be posted any packet containing a pattern or sample of any intrinsic value, or of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, such packet shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.
- (24.) If any pattern or sample packet be sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively 21 and 22 it shall be dealt with and charged in all respects as an unpaid letter.
3. All Treasury Warrants heretofore at any time made relating to the conveyance by post of newspapers, book, packets, and pattern or sample packets, between the United Kingdom and Canada or Newfoundland respectively, are hereby repealed to the extent to which such Warrants respectively relate to the matters aforesaid, but not further or otherwise.
4. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

Dated this twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

Crichton,
Row. Winn,
Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.
John Manners,
Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

Treasury Chambers, November 2, 1876.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury give notice that transfers of Clerks of the Lower Division, appointed in pursuance of the Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the 12th day of February, 1876, from one Department to another of the Public Service, require to be notified to the Treasury for previous approval, and also to the Civil Service Commissioners, in like manner as if such Clerks had been appointed under the earlier conditions of Service, with this exception, that they will not be required to pass any further examination, provided the situations to which they are transferred have been recognised by the Treasury as proper to be included in the Lower Division.

Civil Service Commission,
December 1, 1876.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, November 28, 1876.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounties awarded for three slave dhows, names unknown, captured on the 28th and 29th January, and 5th February, 1875, by Her Majesty's ship "Thetis."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Marton-in-Cleveland, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Marton-in-Cleveland shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Archbishop of York, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Archbishop, has been employed within the parish of Marton-in-Cleveland aforesaid, and in contiguous portions of the adjacent parish of Saint John, Middlesborough, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage of Marton-in-Cleveland, and the said parishes of Marton-in-Cleveland and Saint John Middlesborough,

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Dalton-le-Dale, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Dalton-le-Dale.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the Rectory of Saint Bartholomew, Colne, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same rectory, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Wroughton, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly tithe commutation rent-charges which are particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in full substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of forty-five pounds heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, or by our lessee, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, in respect of the said and other tithe commutation rent-charges and other hereditaments formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Wroughton, and shall be also in lieu of and in full substitution for the further yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and seventy-two pounds heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, out of our common fund, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette of the fourteenth day of the same month and year, to which substitutions the Reverend John Richard Turner, Clerk, the present Incumbent of the said vicarage, is consenting, and in token thereof has signed this instrument: And provided, also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

John Richard Turner, Vicar.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a clear yearly rent-charge of eighty pounds, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Stoulton, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Stoulton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of eighty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Powerstock, with the chapelry of Milton annexed, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage and chapelry shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Powerstock aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Powerstock and the said chapelry of Milton.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the district chapelry and benefice of Saint Mark, Newport, in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eighteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said district chapelry and benefice shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, that an Assistant-Curate duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Mark, Newport aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish, district chapelry, and benefice of Saint Mark, Newport.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Clare, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Ely, one capital sum of fifty-eight pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Clare.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of the Holy Trinity, New Town, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Rochester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the twelfth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

Schedule.

Firstly, All that piece or parcel of land, containing one acre or thereabouts, situate within the limits of the district chapelry and vicarage of New Town, in the parish of Bishop's Stortford, in the county of Hertford, and abutting on the Cemetery-road; and, secondly, All that strip, piece, or parcel of land, containing five perches or thereabouts, extending from the south-east corner of the piece or parcel of land firstly hereinbefore described to the New Town-road; and which said two pieces or parcels of land firstly and secondly hereinbefore described form part of a field numbered 250 on the map annexed to the award for the apportionment of tithes for the said parish of Bishop's Stortford, and with the boundaries, dimensions, and abutments thereof, are more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured pink.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Ampney, with the vicarage of Saint Mary, Ampney, annexed, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same united vicarages, all and singular the yearly tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, commuted at thirty-two pounds and seven shillings, issuing and arising out of lands and hereditaments situate in the parish of Saint Peter, Ampney aforesaid, and formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said yearly tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said yearly tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in full substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of one pound six shillings and eight pence, heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, in respect of the said tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Ampney aforesaid, to which substitution the Reverend Thomas Daubeny, Clerk, the present Incumbent of the said vicarage, is consenting, and in token thereof has signed this instrument, and provided also that the said tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes shall be and be held to be charged and chargeable at all times for ever hereafter in exoneration of all other property whatsoever belonging, or which formerly belonged, to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester, with the liability to repair and maintain the chancel of the church of the parish of Saint Peter, Ampney aforesaid: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same united vicarages shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

Thomas Daubeny, Vicar.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Lyons, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all our estate and interest in the piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with the appurtenances thereto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us (subject to certain reservations and conditions), under and by virtue of a certain deed of conveyance, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and made between Timothy Green, then of Easington-lane, in the said county of Durham, Miner, of the first part, Mary Green, the wife of the said Timothy Green, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the third part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the said diocese of Durham immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with their appurtenances (subject to the reservations and conditions above referred to), to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

(L.S.)

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing one thousand one hundred and fifty-one square yards or thereabouts, situate within the ecclesiastical district of Lyons, in the new parish of Hetton-le-Hole, sometime part of the parish of Houghton-le-Spring, in the county of Durham, bounded on or towards the east by the public high road leading from Hetton-le-Hole to South Shields, on or towards the west by land belonging to Mr. Pemberton, on or towards the north by land belonging to Mr. Edgar, on or towards the south by land belonging to Mr. Moore, and which said piece or parcel of land now forming the site of the parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of Lyons aforesaid is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured green.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the district chapelry and vicarage of Saint Margaret, Castletown, North Hylton, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same district chapelry and vicarage, all our estate and interest in the piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us (subject to certain reservations and conditions), under and by virtue of a certain deed of conveyance, bearing date the seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and made between Robert Scott Briggs, of Moorlands, in the parish of Bishopwearmouth; in the county of Durham aforesaid, Esquire, Charles James Briggs, of Hylton Castle, in the same county, Esquire, and Thomas Boyson Briggs, of No. 1, Grange-crescent, in the parish of Bishopwearmouth aforesaid, Esquire, of the one part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Durham aforesaid, immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette: To have, and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances (subject to the reservations and conditions above referred to), to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

(L.S.)

Schedule.
