Foreign Office, December 29, 1876.

THE following Notification has been received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Vienna :

(Translation.)

NOTIFICATION of the Austrian Ministry of Commerce and Finance of the 24th November, published in the Journal of the Laws of the Empire, 22nd December, 1876, relative to the Customs Duties to be levied on Cotton and Woollen Goods, from the 1st of January, 1877.

In consequence of the expiration of the Treaty of Commerce entered into between Austria-Hungary and Great Britain on the 16th of December, 1865, and of the Convention of December 30, 1869, the import duties stipulated for in the latter will cease to be in force after the end of the year 1876, and will be regulated, from the 1st of January, 1877, until further notice, by the Customs stipulations contained in the Commercial Treaty with Germany of March 9, 1868, relative to the importation of cotton and woollen goods.

Whitehall, December 29, 1876.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend Robert William Burnaby, M.A., to the Vicarage of St. Barnabas, St. Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, vacant by the cession of the Reverend Richard Haworth Hart, M.A.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define

"the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Sir Robert Gore Booth, Bart., late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Sligo, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this twenty-eighth day of December, 1876.

H. BRAND, Speaker.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1876-7.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
J. C. W. VIVIAN.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
