NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(Supplementary No. 2.)

(No. 5.)—BLACK SEA.

Regulations for the Approach to Odessa.

IN continuation of Notice, to Mariners, No. 150, of 29th November, and No. 156, of December, 6th, 1876, on regulations for the approach to certain ports in the Black Sea:—

Information has been received from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Odessa, of the Russian Government having given further notice, relative to the approach to Odessa from seaward.

Submarine mines having been placed in Odessa Bay, the channels to Odessa Harbour are dangerous. The following rules have, therefore, been laid down for observance:—

- (1.) Entering and leaving the port are only permitted during the day (from sunrise to sunset).
- (2.) During the night (from sunset to sunrise) approaching Odessa Roads nearer than Cape Fontana is forbidden. In cases of necessity, however, vessels may anchor in the offing, or remain at sea within sight of the guard ship.
- (3.) All vessels bound to Odessa must make Cape Fontana, and close it to about the distance of eight cables: the guard ship, stationed at Little Fontana, may then be steered for, keeping at about the same distance from the coast; this vessel is distinguished by a blue triangular flag at the foretop gallant mast head.
- (4.) All vessels must stop or heave to on nearing the guard ship. On hoisting the pilot flag, an officer (whose directions must be strictly attended to) will be furnished from the guard ship to pilot the vessel through the channels. On nearing the Quarantine Mole, the master can resume pilotage charge, and conduct the vessel into the harbour.
- (5.) When, from bad weather, the guard ship cannot be communicated with, the vessel must follow closely the course of the steamer that will be sent to guide her.
- (6.) With foul winds or calm, sailing vessels will be towed in.
- (7.) Vessels are on no account to anchor between the guard ship and the harbour. In cases of necessity, however, the position in which the vessel may anchor will be pointed out by the officer piloting her.
- (8.) On leaving the port, the master should conduct his vessel to a position near the Quarantine Mole Head, and reporting to the captain of the port that he is ready for sea, should request the services of an officer as pilot. With foul winds or calm, the assistance of a tug should also be asked for.
- (9.) When clear of the channels, the vessel must be stopped or heave to, in order that the officer piloting may be put on board the guard ship, or the accompanying steamer. The vessel's course may then be continued in accordance with article 3.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

(1.) Sunken Danger off Lengua De Vaca Point.

THE Chilean Government has given notice, that the Commander of the Guatemalian steam-vessel Bolivar has reported the existence of a sunken danger, distant about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Lengua de Vaca Point.

The Bolivar (drawing 18 feet) is reported to have struck this rock (Bolivar) on her port bilge with a sudden shock, springing a leak near the keel amidships.

From the vessel at the time the following bearings were taken:—

Lengua de Vaca Point ... S.S.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.
Tongoy Peninsula ... E. by S.

Position (from bearings), lat. $30^{\circ} 12' 0''$ S., long. $71^{\circ} 38' 30''$ W.

NOTE.—The existence of a sunken rock in this vicinity was reported in 1874, its position being then described as near Lengua de Vaca Point. Search for this danger was subsequently made by the Chilean vessel-of-war Abtao without success.

UNITED STATES—CALIFORNIA.

(2.) Alteration in Bonita Point Light, San Francisco.

The United States Government has given notice, that the fixed white light of the second order on Bonita Point is discontinued, and that in place thereof a temporary fixed white light of the fourth order is now exhibited from a low wooden structure placed immediately in front of the old lighthouse.

NOTE.—This temporary change has been made in order that the former light of the second order may hereafter be exhibited from a position of less elevation, near the extremity of Bonita Point.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variations $14\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Easterly in 1877].

By command of their Lordships,
Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
11th January, 1877.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—

(1.) Maytencillo to Herradura, No. 1287; and South America Pilot, Part II, 1875, page 264.

(2.) Temporarily, Admiralty List of Lights in South America, &c., 1877, No. 89.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 10.)—NOVA SCOTIA—HALIFAX HARBOUR.

(1.) Fog Signal Maugher Beach Lighthouse.

THE Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice of the establishment of a fog bell on the west side of Maugher Beach Lighthouse, Halifax Harbour.

During thick and foggy weather, the bell (rung by machinery) will be sounded seven times every minute.

(2.) Lights on George Island.

Also, with reference to notice to Mariners, No. 23, of February 24th, 1876, on the exhibition of two fixed lights on the west side of George Island, Halifax Harbour, the following additional particulars have been given.

These lights are obscured to the eastward by the high land of George Island.

The upper light should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 12 miles, but the two lights are not distinctly visible until nearing the entrance of the harbour.

CAUTION.—These lights, which are vertical and comparatively near the sea level, must not be confounded with two lights of inferior power exhibited from a yard on Citadel Hill flagstaff, about 240 feet above the sea.

By command of their Lordships,
Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
11th January, 1877.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Sambro Island to Cape Canso, No. 729; Mars Head to Shut in Island, No. 2410; and Halifax Harbour, No. 2320: Also, Admiralty List of Lights on the Coasts and Lakes of British North America, 1877, Nos. 243 and 244 a: and Sailing Directions for the South-east Coast of Nova Scotia and Bay of Fundy, 1875, pages 83 and 84.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Caunton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Caunton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Muncaster, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Muncaster, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein-mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Laurence, Wootton, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Laurence, Wootton, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Laurence, Wootton: Provided always, that if at any time, lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant, convey, and release to the several Incumbents of the churches or benefices named in the schedule hereunto annexed, and their successors, the several sums or payments due and payable in respect of each of the said churches or benefices respectively for procurations at the episcopal visitations, which said procurations are now receivable by us as a part of the emoluments of the see of Exeter, in virtue of the provisions contained in the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, and the amounts of which payments are, as far as the same can be ascertained, set forth in the said schedule, it being the intent and meaning of this grant and conveyance that such of the said procurations as have been heretofore paid or payable by the Incumbents of the several churches or benefices in respect of which they arise shall henceforth cease to be payable, and that such of the said procurations as have heretofore been paid or payable by any persons other than such Incumbents as aforesaid shall remain payable, as heretofore, by such persons or their successors, but shall be paid to and receivable by the respective Incumbents of the several churches or benefices.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter Mancroft, in the city and county of the city of Norwich, and in the diocese of Norwich, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of thirteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage or benefice of Saint John, Healey, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage or benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-seventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage or benefice of Saint John, Healey, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage or benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage or benefice of Saint John, Healey: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage or benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of certain yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting together to ninety pounds, and formerly belonging to the vicarage of Devynnock, in the county of Brecknock, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a certain yearly rent or sum of three pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, also formerly belonging to the said vicarage of Devynnock, both of which benefactions have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Ystradfellte or Ystraadvelty, within the aforesaid county and diocese, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Ystradfellte or Ystraadvelty, and to his successors, to meet the said benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds fifteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said lastly-mentioned vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Barnabas, Middle Hendon, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Middle Hendon aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said new parish and vicarage of Saint Barnabas, Middle Hendon.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Birchington-with-Acol, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the second day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Archbishop of Canterbury, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Archbishop, has been employed within the parish of Birchington-with-Acol aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Birchington-with-Acol.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint James, Burnopfield, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the new parish of Saint James, Burnopfield aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said new parish and vicarage of Saint James, Burnopfield.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage or benefice of Saint Helen, Gateshead, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage or benefice and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage or benefice of Saint Helen, Gateshead, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twentieth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage or benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.
