Venice, March 19.

TH E Senate hath named Signior Alexander Molin to be Proveditore General of Dalmatia, in the room of Signior Cornaro, who is appointed to go to the Levant in the quality of Proveditore General of the Sea. The last Week failed from the Lido divers Vessels for Dalmatia, from whence they are to transport 4000 Men of old Troops to the Levant; and in their stead, 3000 new raised, will be sent to Dalmatia. On the 15 instant arrived here a Ship from Canea in Candia, the Master whereof reports, That the Turks were there in great fear of being attackt by the Venetians the next Campagne, whom they were in no condition to resist, not having received any Supplies from Constantinople, either of Men, Money, Ammunition, or Provisions, since the beginning of the last year: And that four Gallies laden with all Materials fit for Building, designed for Negrepont, had met with such bad Weather, that two of them foundered at Sea. The Master of the said Vessel adds, That a Tartane arrived at Canea before he came away, in three days from Napoli di Romania, with the News of the Doge Morosini's Recovery from his late Sickness; which is confirmed by other Vessels come from the Morea. The Prince of Turenne will part from hence in few days for Turin, but with a resolution to Return hither in a short time, in order to serve the next Campagne in the Levant. The Great Duke of Tuscany and the Duke of Parma have referred their differences concerning the Limits of their Countreys to the Determination of this Republick.

Vienna, March 24. The Turkish Envoys having declared at their last Conference, That they had no power to yeild any thing more to the Emperor and his Allies than what their Arms had conquered during the War; and being answered, That there was then an end of the Treaty for that his Imperial Majesty would not depart from what he had demanded, they desired Leave to send an Express to their Sultan, to acquaint him with what had passed in these Conferences, and to pray his farther Directions thereupon; To which there has not yet been any Answer given them. The Imperial Troops continue to march towards the Empire, where they will be commanded in chief by the Duke of Lorraine. General Dumewaldt is to serve under the Elector of Bavaria, who will act with another Army, composed of his own Forces and those of the Circles of Bavaria, Franconia, Saxonia, and the Upper Rhine. General Caprara is to command the Emperor's Forces in Hungary, which will consist of about 30000 Men.

Frankfort, March 30. The French have on a sudden demolished the Fortifications of Cassel, over against Mentz, on which they have worked to long; But at Mentz they continue to fortifie themselves. They have quitted Fredericksburg in the Salatinat, having first set Fire to the Town; and are preparing to do the like at Frankendal. At Wormes and Spire they have undermined the Walls and both the Cathedral Churches. They write from Tubingen, That a strong Detachment had been sent from the Bavarian Head-Quarter, upon advice that some French Troops had passed that River near Fort-Louis, to spoil the Country. There is now in Heydelberg an Imperial Garison of 1000 Men.

Maastricht, Apr. 2. The 31 past some Troops were sent from hence to possesse themselves of several Posts about Liege; and this morning our Governor the Count de Flodrop marched thither with 3000 Foot and all the Horse of this Garison, with four Pieces of Cannon and two Mortars, to force those of Liege to deliver up the French Convoy, which they lately permitted to retire into that City.

Hagite, Apr. 5. The English Troops that are sent to the Assistance of this State arrived in the Mase and at Helvoetsluyce the 31 past and 1st instant, and are since gone to the Quarters appointed for them. Prince Waldeck will part from hence on Tuesday or Wednesday next towards Brabant, to confer with the Governor of the Spanish Netherlands concerning the Security of those Countreys. The Deputies of the Admiralties continue their Conferences with those of the States-General, to regulate divers Matters relating to the Fleet that's now fitting out. The Magistrates of Liege have drawn a very troublefom business upon themselves, by allowing a Retreat to the French Convoy that was pursued by the Troops of Maastricht. They are, we hear, sending Deputies hither to solicit a Neutrality, but after such a Proceeding, it will be hardly granted by this State. Yesterday arrived here Prince Casimir of Nassaw, Stadtholder of Friesland and Groningen. Twenty Battallions of the Troops of this State are already marching from their several Garisons to form a Camp towards the Frontiers of Flanders. We hear from Cologne, That the Confederate Troops have formally besieged Keyserwaert, in which there is a Garison of about 600 Men; And that the Cardinal of Furstemberg had on the first instant sent his Baggage from Bon, under a strong Convoy, to Metz, whither it was believed he would follow himself the next day.

Paris, Apr. 6. The French Troops are marching towards the Rhine and the Meuse. A Detachment of the Regiment of Navarre, and of that des

Vais-

Vaisseaux, having attackt a Castle beyond Strasbourg, they were repulsed with considerable loss, and the Marquis de Gaudelin, Son of the Duke de Gefures, and Colonel of the said Regiment des Vaisseaux, was dangerously wounded; We do not hear any other particulars.
