

said Order and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas the Reverend Frederick Gurney Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint James Plymouth in the said county of Devon and in the said diocese of Exeter has paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a capital sum of three thousand pounds sterling upon the understanding and to the intent that we should hold the same capital sum for or towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish of Sutton-on-Plym; but so nevertheless that we shall or may at any time or times and at our discretion lay out and appropriate such portion of the same capital sum as to us may seem fitting in or towards the providing of a parsonage house for the vicar or incumbent of the same new parish; and we have in respect of the said capital sum agreed with the said Frederick Gurney and have undertaken as follows namely:—First that we will pay by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the vicar or incumbent of the said new parish of Sutton-on-Plym (being duly licensed thereto) the yearly sum of one hundred pounds so long as the whole of the said capital sum shall remain in our hands. And secondly that if and whenever any portion of the said capital sum shall have been laid out or appropriated by us as aforesaid in or towards the providing of a parsonage-house for the vicar or incumbent of the said new parish of Sutton-on-Plym then and thereafter we will pay as aforesaid to the same vicar or incumbent a yearly sum bearing the same proportion to the said annual sum of one hundred pounds as the amount of the balance of the capital sum remaining in our hands after such appropriation bears to the said capital sum of three thousand pounds.

"And whereas the said capital sum of three thousand pounds sterling was so paid to us by the said Frederick Gurney as aforesaid upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Sutton-on-Plym and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said Frederick Gurney his heirs and assigns in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Sutton-on-Plym and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederick Gurney his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.
