

should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground, should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seventh day of February last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz. :—

LLANDWROG, COUNTY CARNARVON.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Llandwrog; and in the churchyard, after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, except in now existing vaults, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves, to be used only for the burial of the widowers or widows of those already buried therein.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of April, 1877.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.
Viscount Sandon.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.

2. Notwithstanding anything in The Cattle-Plague Order of 1877, or in any other Order of Council, the movement of cattle within the Metropolis is hereby prohibited, except as follows:

Cattle may be moved for immediate slaughter to the Metropolitan Cattle Market at Islington or to a slaughter-house within the Metropolis, with a licence of an Inspector of the Local Authority authorized to issue the same, and such licence shall be available for twelve hours and no longer: and in the case of cattle moved to a slaughter-house, the licence shall specify the slaughter-house to which they may be taken for slaughter, and they shall not be taken elsewhere.

Provided that no licence shall be necessary in the case of movement of cattle for a distance not exceeding five hundred yards from lands to other lands in the same occupation within the Metropolis.

3. Cattle exposed for sale at the Metropolitan Cattle Market, at Islington, shall not be moved out of the limits of the area of such Market, but shall be slaughtered within those limits.

4. Nothing in this Order shall affect the operation of the provisions of The Metropolitan Cattle-Plague Order of 1877, or of the Order of the Privy Council, dated the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

5. If any cattle are moved in contravention of the provisions of this Order, the owner thereof, and the person directing or permitting their removal, and the company or person removing or conveying them, shall each be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.
