Smith v. Smith.

Notice under the Partition Act, 1876.

TO all persons claiming to be interested in the real estate of Thomas Orford, late of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, Surgeon, who died in 1810, and who is believed to have been a son of Thomas Orford, senior, formerly of Standish, near Wigan, in the said county, and Alice, his wife, formerly Alice Brown, of Standish aforesaid, Spinster. By the will of the said Thomas Orford first named he made certain dispositions of his real and personal estate for the benefit of his children and their issue, as in his said will mentioned. His will then proceeded in the words following namely: "And if all my children die without leaving lawful issue living at the death of the survivor of them, then and in such case I give all my real and personal estates and effects not appropriated for all or any of the aforesaid purposes unto such of my first cousins as shall be then living, and the issue (if any) of such of them as shall be then dead, equally share and share alike, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, the issue of such deceased cousin to stand in the place of such deceased cousin, and to take equally amongst them if more than one the share which such deceased cousin would, if living, have taken."

On the 13th January, 1860, Mary Alice Wilson, who was the last survivor of the testator's children, died, and there was then no lawful issue living of any of the same children.

A suit of Richard Smith (since deceased), against David Smith and Ann Smith, his wife (by original bill); and Richard Smith, the son of the deceased plaintiff, against David Smith and Ann Smith, his wife (by order of revivor), is pending in the Court of Chancery of the county Palatine of Lancaster (Liverpool District), for the purpose of having a partition or (in lieu thereof) a sale and distribution of the proceeds of sale of the real estate of the said testator, Thomas Orford, above referred to, and by a Decree made in the said suit and dated the 12th May, 1871, and which has been since added to by Order also made in the same suit, dated the 20th day of April, 1877, enquiries have been directed to be made for the purpose of ascertaining the persons interested in such real estate, and in and by the said last-mentioned Order it was provided that it appearing to the Court that notice of the said decree could not be served upon all the persons the subjects of the enquiries contained in such decree as added to by the last-mentioned Order and in the said Order, and that the plaintiff and defendants were persons interested in the property to which the said decree and order respectively related did, at the request of the plaintiff and defendants, dispense with service of notice of the said decree, and with service of notice of the said decree as added to by that Order, and of service of the said Order upon all persons, the subjects of the aforesaid enquiries who were not already parties to the said suit, and instead of such service the Court did direct that within one month after the date of the said Order, advertisements in the form of this present advertisement should be published in the several newspapers mentioned in the said Order and of which this newspaper was one. Now notice is hereby given, that this advertisement is published in accordance with the aforesaid Order of the said Court, and also that by virtue of the said Partition Act, 1876, and of the said Order, all persons claiming to be interested in the said real estate are required to come in and establish their respective claims in respect thereof before the District Registrar of the Liverpool District of the Court of Chancery of the county Palatine of Lancaster, at the office of the said District Registrar, situate in the Municipal-
