TAKE notice, that on the 24th February, 1877, a Writ was issued against you in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, in a certain action entitled Wallington v. Cook, 1877, W., 89, at the suit of Victor Wallington, claiming in default of redemption by the defendant to enforce by foreclosure or sale certain equitable mortgages of certain reversionary interests of the defendant, made by two agreements between the plaintiff and defendant, dated respectively 24th March, 1876, and 20th April, 1876, and, if necessary, to rectify the said agreements by extending the same, so as to expressly comprise all interest of the defendant under certain deeds of appointment of 15th January, 1846, and 3rd February, 1858. And also take notice, that by an Order of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, the Judge of the said Division, to which the said action is assigned, dated 14th March, 1877, it was ordered that service of the said writ, by serving the same upon your father, and by inserting the advertisement once in the London Gazette and the Times newspaper, should be deemed good service upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you in the said Chancery Division within eight days after such service, the plaintiff may proceed in the said action, and judgment may be given in your absence.

Yours, &c.
