Kenyon v. Kenyon and Grundy v. Kenyon.

NOTICE under the Partition Act, 1876, to Ruth, now or formerly the wife of Henry Ogden, and daughter of Martha Taylor, and grand-daughter of George Kenyon, late of Middleton, in the county of Lancaster, Yeoman, deceased, and to the heir-at-law, or other the real representative of the said Ruth, if she be dead, and to the said Henry Ogden, if he be living, and to James Harrison, if he be living, and the husband of the said Ruth, and to others.

By the will of Robert Holt, dated the 1st day of July, 1824, certain messuages and hereditaments situate in the township of Butterworth, in the county of Lancaster, in England, commonly called the Holts, were devised to his nephew, the said George Kenyon, for life, with remainder to the lawful issue of the said George Kenyon, their heirs and assigns, in such parts, shares, and proportions as he should by will or deed appoint. The said George Kenyon by his will, dated the 16th of December, 1844, appointed or purported to appoint, the said messuages and hereditaments absolutely to his seven then surviving children (including the said Martha Taylor) and the children of his deceased daughter, Mary Bickerdike, in certain proportions. A suit of Oliver Kenyon (now deceased) and Thomas Grundy against Major Kenyon and others (by original Bill) and Thomas Grundy against Major Kenyon and others (by order of revivor and supplement) is pending in the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster (Manchester District) for the purpose of having a partition or (in lieu thereof) a sale and distribution of the proceeds of sale of the said messuages and hereditaments, and by a Decree made in the said suit, dated the 7th August, 1874, enquiries have been directed to be made for ascertaining what are the hereditaments referred to as aforesaid in Robert Holt's will, and who are the parties interested in such hereditaments, and in what shares and for what interests.

By an Order in the same suit, dated the 27th day of March, 1877, and reciting that it appeared to the Court that notice of the said Decree could not be served on all the persons on whom that notice was, by the Partition Act, 1868, required to be served, and in particular upon the persons thereafter specified, and that the plaintiff and defendants, or some of them, were parties interested in the property to which the said suit relates, the Court did, at the request of the plaintiff and defendants, dispense with service of notice of the said Decree on the said Ruth, then or formerly the wife of Henry Ogden, and on the heir-at-law, or other the real representative of the said Ruth, if dead, and on the said Henry Ogden, if living, and on the said James Harrison, if living, and the husband of the said Ruth, and instead of such service the Court did direct that advertisements in the form of the present advertisement should be published before the 30th day of July then next, in newspapers mentioned in such Order, and of which this newspaper was one.

Now notice is hereby given, that this advertisement is published in accordance with the aforesaid Order of the said Court, and also that by virtue of the Partition Act, 1876, and of the said Order the said Ruth, now or formerly the wife of the said Henry Ogden, and (if she be dead) her heir-at-law, or other real representative, and the said Henry Ogden (if he be living), and the said James Harrison (if he be living), and the husband of the said Ruth, and all (if any) other persons claiming to be interested in the property aforesaid, who have not been served with notice of the said Decree, are required to come in and establish their respective claims in respect thereof before the Vice-Chancellor, at the office of the District Registrar of the said Court, situate at Cross-street-chambers, 73, Cross-street, in the city of Manchester, in England, on or before the 31st day of December, 1877.

And notice is hereby also given, that from and after the 31st day of December, 1877, all persons who shall not have so come in and established such claims, whether they are within or without the jurisdiction of the said Court, and including persons under any disability, will be bound by the proceedings in the said suit as if, on the said 27th March, 1877, the day of the date of the said Order they had been served with notice of the said Decree.
