

dred and ninety-one pounds rent-charges in commutation of tithes and from fifty-one acres of glebe land and surplice fees, none of which glebe land is situate within the chapelry of Kingston.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants or landowners of Kingston aforesaid or of the portion of the parish of Corfe Castle hereafter referred to possess any legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the said church of Corfe Castle or that any of the inhabitants or landowners of Corfe Castle possess any such legal right to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the said parochial chapel of Kingston.

"That the right of patronage of and to the rectory and parish church of Corfe Castle with the chapelry of Kingston aforesaid is vested in Walter Ralph Bankes of Kingston Lacey in the said county of Dorset, Esquire, and the Reverend Eldon Surtees Bankes, Clerk, is the present incumbent thereof.

"That it appears to us that under the provision of the Acts of Parliament 1st and 2nd Victoria chapter 106 and the 2nd and 3rd Victoria chapter 49, the said parochial chapelry of Kingston with a portion of the said parish of Corfe Castle adjacent thereto (containing in the whole two thousand seven hundred and fifty-five acres or thereabouts, which with a few exceptions wholly belong to the said Earl of Eldon) may be advantageously separated from the said rectory and parish church of Corfe Castle and be constituted a separate benefice.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the 26th section of the first-mentioned Act we have prepared the following scheme which, together with the consents thereto of the patron and rector of the said benefice, we do submit to your Grace to the intent that you may, if on full consideration and inquiry your Grace shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same, and such consents, by your report to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the scheme and consents referred to in the said representation are in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"That the said parochial chapelry of Kingston together with all that part of the said parish of Corfe Castle lying on the north-east side of and immediately adjoining the said chapelry and divided from the remainder of the said parish by a boundary line commencing at the stream or brook which enters the said parish of Corfe Castle on the north-west side thereof at the north corner of a field numbered 981 on the map annexed to the tithe commutation apportionment of the said parish and thence proceeds in an easterly direction along the said stream until it passes through and divides the field numbered 299 on the said map to a point where it touches Corfe Common, thence leaving the said brook and proceeding in a southerly direction along the outer boundary of Corfe Common (being parts of the north-west, south-west, south and south-east sides of the said common) until such boundary line reaches the north corner of a field numbered 969 on the said map thence proceeding in a south-easterly direction for distance of eighteen and a half chains along the north-east sides of the fields numbered 969, 970 and 971 on the said map, thence in a south-westerly direction for a distance of eleven chains along the south-east side of the said field numbered 971 where the said boundary line touches the parish of Langton Matravers, shall be separated from the said rectory and parish church of Corfe Castle and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice by the name or style of 'The Perpetual Curacy of Kingston' of which the said church or chapel in the said parochial chapelry shall be the parish church.

"That the proposed separate parish and benefice shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said rectory of Corfe Castle and the incumbent of the said proposed separate parish and benefice shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same.

"That the herbage of the chapel-yard of Kingston aforesaid and the surplice fees for churchings, marriages and burials or other ecclesiastical offices solemnized and performed within the said proposed new benefice and all dues offerings and other emoluments arising within or in respect of the same and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice (but not including any rent-charges in commutation of tithes) shall belong and be attached to the said proposed separate benefice of Kingston for ever and be held received and enjoyed by the incumbent thereof for the time being accordingly.

"That the rector of the said rectory of Corfe Castle for the time being shall continue to pay the same amount of first fruits and yearly tenths as have heretofore been payable in respect of the said rectory and chapelry.

"That the patronage or right of nomination of or to the said proposed benefice of Kingston shall be vested in the said Right Honourable John Earl of Eldon his heirs and assigns for ever.

"That in consideration of such right of nomination being vested in the said Earl of Eldon his heirs and assigns he undertakes with us (as testified by his signature hereto) immediately upon this scheme, with the consent of Her Majesty the Queen in Council ordering that the same shall be carried into effect, being registered in the Registry of our diocese with a view of providing an endowment for the said new benefice and for the maintenance of the incumbent for the time being thereof to transfer the sum of eleven thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities unto the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England or the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy in trust for the endowment or benefit of the said new benefice of Kingston and to the intent that the dividends which may from time to time accrue thereon or the income of the security or securities in which the same may from time to time be invested may be paid to the incumbent for the time being of the said new benefice for his maintenance and benefit for ever.

"That in further consideration of the said right of nomination being vested in the said Earl of Eldon his heirs and assigns he also undertakes with us (testified as aforesaid) that he or his heirs will with all convenient speed convey and assure to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England a suitable house of residence with outbuildings and garden thereto belonging as and for a house of residence for the incumbent for the time being of the said new benefice of Kingston.

"That the inhabitants of the said chapelry of Kingston and of the portion of the parish of Corfe Castle proposed to be detached as aforesaid shall be liable to the repairs and maintenance of the church or chapel of Kingston and to the expenses incidental to the due performance of Divine service therein but shall not be liable to contribute
