

to the repairs and maintenance of the parish church of Corfe Castle nor of any church or chapel hereafter built elsewhere than within the limits of the proposed new benefice and that the inhabitants of such new benefice shall not as such inhabitants be entitled to any accommodation within the parish church of Corfe Castle aforesaid nor shall the inhabitants of the remaining part of the said parish of Corfe Castle, as such inhabitants, be entitled to any accommodation within the said church or chapel of Kingston.

"Given under my hand this seventh day of April in the year our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

"George Sarum.

"Eldon.

"The CONSENTS above referred to.

"We Walter Ralph Bankes of Kingston Lacey near Wimborne in the county of Dorset, Esquire, the patron entitled to present or nominate to the rectory and parish church of Corfe Castle with the chapelry of Kingston aforesaid in case the same were now vacant, and the Reverend Eldon Surtees Bankes, Clerk, the incumbent of the same benefice do hereby signify our consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the chapelry of Kingston and a portion of the parish of Corfe Castle from the said rectory and parish church of Corfe Castle and constituting the said chapelry and portion of Corfe Castle aforesaid a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy and benefice.

"As witness our hands this seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

"W. Ralph Bankes.

"Eldon S. Bankes."

And whereas the said Lord Bishop hath transmitted the said scheme to the said Lord Archbishop together with the said consents.

And whereas the said Lord Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with such scheme hath certified the same and such consents as aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council by his report dated the fourteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, which report is in the words and figures following that is to say:—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby report to your Majesty in Council:—

"That the Right Reverend George Lord Bishop of Salisbury has represented unto us (amongst other things):—

"That to the rectory and parish church of Corfe Castle in the county of Dorset and diocese of Salisbury belongs the ancient parochial chapelry of Kingston the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That there is in the said chapelry a church or chapel distant from the parish church of Corfe Castle aforesaid about two miles.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said parochial chapelry of Kingston with a portion of the said parish of Corfe Castle adjacent thereto may be advantageously separated from the said rectory and parish of Corfe Castle and be constituted a separate benefice.

"That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patron and incumbent of the said benefice of Corfe Castle has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign chapter 106 certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this fourteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered that the said scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Salisbury be carried into effect.

C. L. Pecl.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of April, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist situate in the Leigh-road within the limits of the parish of Wimborne Minster, in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate in the Leigh-road as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Wimborne Minster which is
