

places with respect to which the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and the said Company have power to make Bye-laws and Regulations.

1. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a carriage by the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise.

2. No passenger shall smoke inside any carriage.

3. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any carriage, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

4. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

5. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

6. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed, or other notice in or on the carriage, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage, any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and Regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

7. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage, and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if found in the interior of any carriage shall, on the request of the conductor, leave the interior of the carriage upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

8. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorised officer of the Company, the fare legally demandable for the journey.

9. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do, to the conductor or any duly authorised servant of the Company, and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

10. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Company, shall not use or attempt to use any carriages intended for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

11. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

12. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Company shall be permitted to travel on the steps, or platform of any carriage, or stand either on the roof or in the interior, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage, and shall cease so to do immediately on request by the conductor.

13. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage, when warned by the conductor not to do so.

14. When a carriage contains the full licensed number of passengers a notice to that effect shall be placed in conspicuous letters and in a conspicuous position on the carriage.

15. The conductor shall not permit any passenger beyond the licensed number to enter, or mount, or remain in or upon any part of a carriage.

16. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave, any carriage whilst in motion.

17. No dog or other animal shall, in any case, be allowed or taken inside any carriage, or on the outside of any carriage (except by permission of the conductor), nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive, or an annoyance to any passenger. Any dog or other animal taken inside or outside of any carriage, in breach of this Regulation, shall be removed by the person in charge thereof from the carriage immediately upon request for the purpose by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

18. No person shall travel in or on any carriage of the Company with loaded firearms, or with any explosive substance.

19. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Company.

20. Any person offending against, or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws or Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

21. The expression "conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employment of the Company, and having charge of a carriage for the time being.

22. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations.

23. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of August, 1877.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Sheffield, this 9th day of May, 1877.

Geo. Bassett, Mayor.

Dated this 14th day of May, 1877.

John Yeomans, Town Clerk.

In the Matter of Letters Patent granted to Henry Wilde, of the city of Manchester, Engineer, bearing date the 1st day of December, 1863 (No. 3006), for his invention of "improvements in the construction and working of electric telegraphs, and in apparatus connected therewith, partly applicable to other purposes."

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of the said Henry Wilde to present a petition to Her Majesty in Council praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the said Letters Patent. And notice is hereby further given, that on the 20th day of June next, or on such subsequent day as the Judicial Committee shall appoint for that purpose, application will be made by Counsel to the said Committee that a time may be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition; and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the said petition must enter a caveat to that effect at the Privy Council Office on or before the 20th day
