AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of July, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870" it is among other things enacted, that if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer :

Or direct that such Law or Ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act.

And whereas by an Ordinance, numbered 4 of 1877, enacted by the Legislature of the Straits Settlements, the short title of which is "The Extradition Ordinance, 1877," it is provided that "all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under 'The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873,' are thereby vested in and may in the Colony be exercised and done by any Police Magistrate in relation to the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals under the said Acts":

And whereas it is further provided by the said Ordinance that the said Ordinance shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Colony.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of the Straits Settlements without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Carnarvon, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of July, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of that Act, "It shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time," "to repeal or alter any Bye law made in exercise of the above Powers, and to make a new Bye-law or new Bye-laws in lieu thereof :"

And whereas one of the Bye-laws (No. 15) of the Tyne Pilotage Commissioners, duly made and sanctioned by Her Majesty in pursuance of the above recited Act, provides that

"The following Pilotage Rates shall be paid, namely:—

"For Sea Pilotage from and including the 1st day of April to the 1st day of October in each year, one shilling and threepence for every foot of water which any ship or vessel shall draw, and from and including the 1st day of October to the 1st day of April in each year, one shilling and sixpence for every such foot of water :

"For River Pilotage, all the year round, up to Bill Point, one shilling for every foot of water which any ship or vessel shall draw, and for Pilotage above Bill Point sixpence additional for every such foot of water :

"Ships of over 500 Tons Registered Burden shall pay one half-penny per ton on the excess of Tonnage above 500 Tons, in addition to the above Pilotage Dues :

"Vessels having lee-boards shall pay five shillings in addition to the above rates :

"Down-River Pilots may continue their charge into the Sea Pilotage District, for the purpose of mooring vessels: and Up-River Pilots may commence their charge within the Sea Pilotage District for the purpose of unmooring vessels and proceeding up the river :

"The Pilotage Dues shall be paid to the Commissioners or to the Pilot performing such Pilotage duty within five days after the performance thereof. The Commissioners may, from time to time, increase or diminish the said Pilotage Dues subject to the approval of the Board to Trade :"

And whereas the Tyne Pilotage Commissioners have submitted for Her Majesty's approval the
