TUESDAY, JULY 17, 1877.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of July, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint John Bancroft, Esquire, M.A., late Scholar of Jesus College, Oxford, to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of July, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council of the 30th day of April 1877, made in pursuance of the Bishopric of St. Albans Act, 1875, the Bishopric of St. Albans was constituted out of certain parts of the then diocese of Rochester :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order that there shall be transferred to the residue of the diocese of Rochester (remaining after such constitution as aforesaid of the Bishopric of St. Albans)

Firstly. All such parishes situate wholly or partly in the parliamentary divisions of East Surrey and Mid Surrey as now form part of the diocese of Winchester, with the exception of the parishes of Newdegate and Thames-Ditton, partly situate in the parliamentary division of Mid-Surrey :

Secondly. All such parishes situate in the county of Surrey as now form part of the diocese of London.

This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of August 1877.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of July, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such
