"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Peache and of the said Francis Lupton Harrison and also with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert Bishop of the said Diocese of Ripon (in testimony of which consent they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary Low Harrogate and of and to the church thereof shall be transferred from him the said Francis Lupton Harrison and from his successors Vicars or Incumbents of the said Benefice of Pannal and shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Alfred Peache and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose with the same consents testified as aforesaid that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, and as from the day aforesaid all and singular the freehold lands and hereditaments being four acres three roods and six poles in extent or thereabouts which are described in the schedule to this scheme annexed and which are delineated on the map or plan also to this scheme annexed and are thereon verged round with pink all which said lands and hereditaments are (as the said Alfred Peache and Francis Lupton Harrison do hereby testify) parcel of the glebe of the said parish of Pannal shall (but subject to any existing leases duly made thereof or of any part thereof) be transferred from the said Benefice of Pannal and shall cease to be parcel of the glebe thereof and shall be annexed to the said Benefice of Saint Mary Low Harrogate as part of the endowments of the same Benefice, and shall as glebe of the same last-named Benefice be vested absolutely in the Vicar or Incumbent of Saint Mary's Low Harrogate and his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to the forgoing Scheme annexed.
