The said stock transferred as aforesaid shall be applicable, and, after due notice in the London Gazette, shall be applied towards compensating any landowners or other persons whose property may have been interfered with or otherwise rendered less valuable by the commencement, construction, or abandonment of the railway or any portion thereof, or who may have been subjected to injury or loss in consequence of the compulsory powers of taking property conferred upon the Company by this Act, and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation shall have been paid, and shall be distributed in satisfaction of such compensation as aforesaid in such manner and in such proportions as to the Court of Chancery in England may seem fit; and if no such compensation shall be payable, or if a portion of the said stock shall have been found sufficient to satisfy all just claims in respect of such compensation, then the said stock, or such portion thereof as may not be required as aforesaid, shall either be forfeited to Her Majesty, and accordingly be paid or transferred to or for the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, in such manner as the Court of Chancery in England thinks fit to order on the application of the Solicitor of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom;

or in the discretion of the Court, if the Company is insolvent, and has been ordered to be wound up, or a receiver has been appointed, shall wholly or in part be paid or transferred to such receiver, or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company, or be otherwise applied as part of the assets of the Company for the benefit of the creditors thereof: Provided, that until the said stock has been repaid, to the depositors, or has become otherwise applicable as hereinbefore mentioned, any interest or dividends accruing thereon shall from time to time, and as often as the same shall become payable, be paid to or on the application of the person or persons, or the majority of the persons, named in such warrant or order as aforesaid, or the survivors or survivor of them.

And whereas by "The Temple Mineral Railway (Abandonment) Act, 1877," the Company is authorized and required to abandon the making of the said railway, and it is by that Act (sections 3, 4, and 5), enacted as follows:—

3. The abandonment by the Company, under the authority of this Act, of the railway shall not prejudice or affect the right of the owner or occupier of any land to receive compensation for any damage occasioned by the entry of the Company on such land for the purpose of surveying and taking levels, or probing or boring to ascertain the nature of the soil, or setting out the line of railway, and shall not prejudice or affect the right of the owner or occupier of any land which may have been temporarily occupied by the Company to receive compensation for such temporary occupation, or for any loss, damage, or injury which may have been sustained by such owner or occupier by reason thereof, or of the exercise as regards such land, of any of the powers contained in the "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," or of the Act of 1874.

4. Where before the passing of this Act any contract may have been entered into, or notice given by the Company for the purchasing of any land for the purposes of or in relation to the railway, or any portion thereof, the Company shall be released from all liability to purchase, or to complete the purchase of any such land, but notwithstanding, full compensation shall be made by the Company to the owners and occupiers, or other persons interested in such land, for all injury or damage sustained by them respectively by reason of the purchase not being completed pursuant to the contract or notice, and the amount and application of the compensation shall be determined in manner provided by "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," as amended by any subsequent Act for determining the amount and application of compensation paid for lands taken under the provisions thereof.

5. Subject to the provisions of section 37 of the Act of 1874, the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice may, and shall, at any time after the passing of this Act, on application by the persons or the majority of the persons named in the warrant or order mentioned in the thirty-sixth section of the Act of 1874, or the survivors or survivor of them, by petition, in a summary way, order that the sum of three thousand two hundred and ten pounds three per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities mentioned in the said thirty-sixth section of the Act of 1874, and the interest or dividends thereon may be paid or transferred to the person or persons so applying, or to any other person or persons whom they or he may appoint in that behalf, and upon such order being made the said sum of three thousand two hundred and ten pounds three per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and the interest or dividends thereon shall be paid or transferred to such person or persons accordingly.

Notice is hereby given, that a petition will be presented to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, to be heard before the Master of the Rolls, on Thursday, the 23rd day of August, 1877, praying that the said sum of £3,210 three per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities may be transferred out of Court to the persons named in the warrant or order mentioned in the 36th section of the said Act of 1874, or their assigns.
