THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.*HYTHE (HANTS) FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 30th day of August, 1877, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Lymington and New Forest Petty Sessional Division of the county of Southampton, that a Fair has been annually held on the second Monday after the 5th day of July, in the parish of Hythe, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 5th day of November, 1877, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

Whitehall, October 4, 1877.

PUBLIC HEALTH ACT, 1875.*BYE-LAWS AS TO HOUSES LET IN LODGINGS.

WHEREAS application has been made to the Local Government Board by the Local Board of the district of Featherstone, in the county of York, being the Urban Sanitary Authority for the said district, to declare, by notice to be published in the London Gazette, the enactment contained in the 90th section of the Public Health Act, 1875, to be in force within the said district.

Now, therefore, we, the Local Government Board, do hereby give notice and declare, that the said enactment is in force within the district of Featherstone aforesaid.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board this 5th day of October, 1877.

(Signed) John Lambert,
 Secretary,
 Acting on behalf of the said Board, under the authority of a General Order dated the 26th day of May, 1877.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Knighton, in the county of Radnor, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Office of the Clerk to the said Commissioners, situate in Wilcome-place, Knighton, on Friday, the 12th day of October, 1877, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts for the division of Knighton aforesaid.

Alfred Montgomery.
W. S. Northcote.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
 London, October 6, 1877.

Official Notice.*Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

I, JAMES A. HARLEY, of 26, St. Patrick's Quay, Cork, hereby give notice, that in consequence of my becoming owner of the brig "George and John Yourdi," and my believing that by continuing to sail her under that name may mislead parties having any business transactions with the vessel in respect of ownership, it is my intention to apply to the Board of Trade, under section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of my ship "The George and John Yourdi," of Cork, official number 52,554, of gross tonnage 249 tons, of register tonnage 249 tons, heretofore owned by Nicholas George Yourdi, of South Mall, Cork, for permission to change her name to the "James A. Harley," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Cork, as owned by James A. Harley.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at Cork, this 7th day of September, 1877.

Borough of Birmingham.

BYE-LAWS and Regulations made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Birmingham, acting by the Council as the Local Authority of the said Borough, with respect to the Birmingham (Corporation) Tramways, under the powers conferred upon them by "The Tramways Act, 1870."

1. The driver of every carriage shall drive the same at a rate not less than six miles, and not more than eight miles, in the hour upon the average.

2. The driver of every carriage shall drive the same so that it shall not follow a preceding carriage at a less distance than 100 yards along any portion of the line of tramway.

3. Every driver or conductor shall stop the carriage when required so to do by any passenger desirous of leaving the carriage, or by any person desirous of travelling by the carriage, and for whom there is room.

BYE-LAWS and Regulations made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Birmingham, acting by the Council as the Promoters of the Birmingham (Corporation) Tramways, under the powers conferred on them by "The Tramways Act, 1870."

1. The Bye-laws and Regulations hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all carriages of the Lessees, for the time being, of the tramways constructed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses within the said borough (hereinafter called the Lessees), and to all places with respect to which the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses have power to make Bye-laws or Regulations.

2. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a carriage by the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise.

3. No passenger shall smoke inside any carriage.

4. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any carriage, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

5. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage, shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

6. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

7. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on the carriage, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage, any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation, shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and Regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

8. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage, and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if found in the interior of any carriage, shall, on request of the conductor, leave the interior of the carriage upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

9. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorised officer of the Lessees, the fare legally demandable for the journey.

10. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do, to the conductor or any duly authorised servant of the Lessees, and shall, also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket, or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

11. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of "The Birmingham (Corporation) Tramways Order, 1872," shall not use, or attempt to use, any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

12. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

13. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Lessees, shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any carriage, or stand either on the roof, or in the interior, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

14. No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or mount any carriage, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any carriage, or travel therein, otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers.

15. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage, when warned by the conductor not to do so.

16. When a carriage contains the full licensed number of passengers, a notice to that effect shall be placed in conspicuous letters, and in a conspicuous position, on the carriage.

17. The conductor shall not permit any passenger beyond the licensed number to enter or mount, or remain in or upon any part of a carriage.

18. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave, any carriage whilst in motion.

19. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage, except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any carriage in breach of this Regulation, shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request, by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

20. No person shall travel in or on any carriage of the Lessees with loaded fire-arms.

21. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Lessees in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Lessees.

22. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce or prevent the breach of these Bye-laws and Regulations to the best of his ability.

23. There shall be placed and kept placed by the Lessees, in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use, a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations.

24. Any person offending against, or committing a breach of, any of these Bye-laws or Regulations, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

25. The expression "conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employment of the Lessees, and having charge of a carriage.

26. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of January, 1878.

Sealed with the Corporate Common Seal of the said Borough this 2nd day of October, 1877.

E. J. Hayes,
Town Clerk.
