THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

BOSTON FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough and port of Boston, in the county of Lincoln, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held in that borough on the 5th day of August, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the day for the holding of such Fair should be altered, and that instead of being held as aforesaid such Fair should in future be held on the first Wednesday in August in each year.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly given to the Clerk to the Justices acting in and for the said borough of Boston, and otherwise published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding of the said Fair should be altered as proposed:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the day for the holding of the Fair which has been annually held in the borough of Boston on the 5th day of August, shall be altered, and that instead of being held as aforesaid, it shall be held on the first Wednesday in August, in each year, as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 9th day of October, 1877.

Civil Service Commission,

October 11, 1877.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for thirty-five Boy Clerkships in the Lower Division of the Civil Service will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, on Thursday and Friday, the 8th and 9th of November, 1877, under the Regulations, dated 22nd May, 1876, and published in the London Gazette of the 30th May, 1876.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 30th of October, an "application" on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from him at once.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of Robert Beswick and Company Limited.
