THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

MUCH HADHAM FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 27th day of July, 1877, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Albury Petty Sessional Division of Hertfordshire, that a Fair has been annually held on the 24th day of June, in the village and parish of Much Hadham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 13th day of December, 1877, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, November 13, 1877.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, of three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Bowes, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of ten pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Bowes, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Birtley, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Birtley aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Birtley.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Bapchild, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one capital sum of eight hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of enlarging and otherwise improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Bapchild.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of certain freehold ground-rents, amounting to a clear yearly sum of forty-nine pounds, seventeen shillings and two pence, which have been permanently secured to the vicarage or benefice of Saint Luke, Winmarleigh, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a sum of four pounds and five shillings, which has been paid to us in favour of the same vicarage or benefice, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the said vicarage or benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of two shillings and ten pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage or benefice of Saint Luke, Winmarleigh, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions.

on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said lastly mentioned yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage or benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Swithin, in the city and county of the city of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, one yearly sum or stipend of forty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint Swithin, Lincoln.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of six hundred and seventy pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Fenny Stratford, in the county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-two pounds six shillings and eight pence, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a piece of land comprising three acres three roods and six perches, or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Fenny Stratford, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of forty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Coton-in-the-Elms, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of ten pounds, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land, comprising six hundred and thirty square yards (or thereabouts), which has been permanently secured to the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Coton-in-the-Elms, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of twelve pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Bishop Stortford, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Bishop Stortford.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Lyons, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Lyons aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Lyons.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Ilfracombe, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Ilfracombe.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred and twenty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage or benefice of Christ Church, Harwood, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage or benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of four pounds, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a yearly ground-rent of forty pounds, which has been permanently secured to the same vicarage or benefice, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage or benefice of Christ Church, Harwood, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of forty-four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage or benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of six hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Great Bedwyn, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Great Bedwyn, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of the following benefactions, namely (1) certain ground-rents amounting together to thirty-seven pounds two shillings and sixpence per annum, and (2) certain yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting to fifteen pounds sixteen shillings and eight pence, both of which benefactions have been permanently secured to the consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Luke, Halliwell, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and in further consideration of an additional benefaction, consisting of fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same consolidated chapelry and benefice, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice a yearly sum of one pound thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Luke, Halliwell, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Swallowcliffe, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eighteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Minister or Incumbent of the district of Saint Cuthbert, in the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Ministers or Incumbents of the same district, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the seventeenth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said district, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Old Radnor with Kinnerton, in the counties of Radnor and Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said

vicarage of Old Radnor with Kinnerton shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Old Radnor with Kinnerton aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Old Radnor with Kinnerton.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners for Littleport and Downham District (who are hereinafter referred to as the Commissioners), intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to introduce a Bill for the following or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say:

1. To alter the qualification of the commissioners and the right of appointing commissioners or deputy commissioners, and to extinguish the right of the Lord or Lady of any Manor in the said district as such; and of the steward or agent of any such Lord or Lady; or the agent of any rector or vicar as such to be a commissioner.

2. To authorise the commissioners to appoint committees, and to make provision with respect thereto, and to the powers and duties thereof.

3. To abolish the meeting held for certain purposes on the first Wednesday in April in each year, and to provide that all matters required to be done at such meeting may be done at the meeting held on the last Wednesday in April.

4. To repeal section 40 (meetings to be advertised in Cambridge newspaper) of 39 and 40 Geo. III, cap. xxvi, and in lieu thereof to extend to all new Works the provisions of section 9, of 50 Geo. III, cap. cxciv, as to the giving of notice previous to the making of certain Works.

5. To empower the commissioners to assess, levy and recover for "Inner Works" one rate or tax not exceeding four shillings per acre, in lieu of the three separate rates or taxes, amounting to three shillings per acre, now authorised to be levied for that purpose.

6. To empower the commissioners to assess, levy and recover for "Outer Works" one rate or tax not exceeding two shillings and sixpence per acre, in lieu of the two separate rates or taxes of that amount now authorised to be levied for that purpose.

7. To repeal and re-enact with or without alteration, and if thought fit to consolidate the provisions now in force with respect to the assessing, levying, collecting, and the payment of rates and taxes, and to repeal section 22 of 50 Geo. III, cap. cxciv, whereby separate accounts of rates and taxes are required to be kept.

8. To alter, extend and amend, or to repeal and make other provisions with respect to the borrowing powers of the commissioners, and to enable them from time to time to borrow moneys by mortgage, debenture stock, debentures or annuities, and to charge the moneys borrowed on or all or any of the rates and taxes for the time being leviable by them.

9. To make provision for the payment out of the rates of the expenses of the commissioners at their meetings.

10. To make further and better provision for the cleansing out, scouring, and deepening of the drains and ditches within the said district.

11. To alter the qualification of the commissioners for all, or any one or more of the interior districts, or to abolish such districts or district, and to dissolve the commissioners thereof, and to enable the commissioners to exercise all or any of the functions and powers (including the levying of rates and taxes) of the commissioners for interior districts in all or any one or more of such districts.

12. To divide or to make provision for the dividing of the said district, or any part or parts thereof from time to time, or at any time into sub-districts, for the purpose (therein or in any part thereof) of the making and maintaining of new, and the altering, regulating, and maintaining, of existing roads, droves, footways, and bridges (hereinafter referred to generally as roads), not being public highways nor repairable ratione tenuræ.

13. To provide for the appointing within any or every such sub-district of a road committee or other body, surveyor or surveyors, waywarden or waywardens, or other officer or officers, for the making, maintaining, and supervising of roads, with all or any of the powers and liabilities attaching by law to surveyors of highways, and such other powers as may be deemed expedient for securing such making, maintenance, and supervision, and generally for carrying into effect, all or any of the powers of the intended Act, and to provide for the salaries or remuneration to be paid to such officers.

14. To authorise for the purposes of the intended Act, the acquisition by agreement of lands, easements, and hereditaments, and the right of entry on lands, and the occupation thereof, either temporarily or permanently, and the procuring thereof of road materials.

15. To authorise the sale, lease, letting, or exchange of lands not required for the purposes of the Act, and particularly lands, whether waste or otherwise, situate at the sides of, and used with or for the purposes of such roads, and not required for the purposes thereof.

16. To authorise vestries or other the road authorities of any parishes or areas within or adjoining the said district, to enter into and carry into effect, agreements for the making and maintaining of such new roads, and the maintaining, altering, and varying of such existing roads, and either wholly or in part, and upon such terms, payments (annual or in gross), and conditions as may be agreed on, and for those purposes, or any of them, to levy rates and taxes, and to raise money on the security thereof, and of any other rates from time to time leviable by them respectively.

17. To authorise and provide for the determining from time to time of the assessable value of lands and hereditaments within the said district, and within any such sub-district or districts, and for the assessing and levying of rates, taxes, contributions, and charges on the owners, lessees, and occupiers thereof, and upon all persons and corporations in respect of any lands, property, rights, or interests which may be benefited by the carrying into execution the powers of the intended Act, or any of them, for the purpose of defraying the costs, charges, and expenses of obtaining the intended Act, and of carrying the same into execution, and to provide for the apportioning between all or any one or more of the sub-districts, of costs, charges, and expenses, incurred in any sub-district or districts. The Bill will contain all such powers and provisions as may be deemed expedient for the assessing, levying, and enforcing payment of such rates, taxes, contributions, and charges, and for the exempting of any lands, hereditaments, persons, and corporations, wholly or partially, from the payment thereof, or of any portion thereof respectively, and for the altering and varying from time to time of such assessments and levies.

18. To authorise agreements with such owners, lessees, and occupiers, persons and corporations with respect to the apportionment and payment of the composition for, and the exemption from such rates, taxes, contributions, and charges, and to enable trustees, corporations and persons, with limited interests in lands and hereditaments, or under disability, to charge thereon such composition, rates, taxes, and contributions, and to enter into agreements with respect thereto.

19. To authorise the raising from time to time of such sums of money as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, on the credit and security of the rates, taxes, contributions, and charges to be levied and received thereunder for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act from time to time, and to empower the commissioners to contribute out of any funds over which they have power or control, and to levy additional rates, and to borrow money on the security of any rates for the time being leviable by them.

20. The powers of the intended Act, so far as they relate to roads, will or may be conferred on the commissioners or a committee or committees thereof, or on commissioners to be constituted by or appointed and elected under the powers of the intended Act, or on officers to be from time to time appointed by some one or more of such bodies.

21. To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which will interfere with the full execution of any of the powers of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

22. The Bill will incorporate with itself and if deemed expedient with variations the provisions or such of the provisions as may be thought necessary of the following Acts, namely, the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," the "Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," the "Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," the "Local Loans Act, 1875," and will also alter, repeal, and amend such provisions as may be thought necessary of the following local Acts relating to the said district, namely, 29 George II, cap. 22; 39 and 40 George III, cap. 26; and 50 George III, cap. 194; and all other Acts directly or indirectly relating to the commissioners or to the said district.

23. Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 7th day of November, 1877.

Cardiff Water.

(New Reservoirs and Waterworks; Purchase of Lands and Easements by Compulsion and by Agreement; Impounding of Water; Supply of Water in bulk; Further Powers as to Repair of Pipes and Regulations for preventing Waste; Increase of Share and Loan Capital; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for an Act to effect all or some of the following purposes:—

To authorise the Cardiff Waterworks Company (hereinafter called "the Company") to make and maintain, with all requisite and proper embankments, drains, works, and conveniences connected therewith respectively, the following reservoirs, filter beds, conduits, aqueducts, lines of pipes, and works which will be wholly situate in the county of Glamorgan, namely:—

1. A Reservoir (Upper Llanishen Reservoir) in the valley of the Nant Mawr Brook, and situated wholly within the parishes of Lisvane and Llanishen, and formed by an embankment across such valley, commencing at a point in such valley $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line, in an easterly direction from the south-eastern angle of the Llanishen Mill, and continuing in a straight line in a south-westerly direction for a length of $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, and terminating at a point, $4\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a southerly direction from the said south-eastern angle of the said Llanishen Mill; the said reservoir (Upper Llanishen Reservoir) being intended to impound the waters of the said Nant Mawr Brook and its tributaries, and to extend from the aforesaid embankment northward up the valley of the said brook, and to terminate at a point in the same, $14\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a north-westerly direction, from the north-eastern angle of the said Llanishen Mill.

2. A Reservoir (Lower Llanishen Reservoir) also in the valley of the said Nant-Mawr Brook, and situated wholly within the said parishes of Lisvane and Llanishen, and formed by an embankment across the valley, commencing at a point in such valley $10\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a westerly direction, from the western angle of the south-western cowhouse forming part of the farm buildings of the farm known as Ty-Llwyd, and continuing in a straight line in a south-easterly direction for a length of 4 chains, or thereabouts, and thence continuing in a straight line in a south-westerly direction for a length of 13 chains, or thereabouts, and terminating at a point 5 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a north-easterly direction from the eastern end of a house or cottage known as Wern-Fawr, in the occupation of John Kilby, the said Lower Llanishen Reservoir being intended to impound the waters of the said Nant-Mawr Brook, and to extend from the embankment last aforesaid in a north-westerly direction along the course of the said brook, and to terminate at a point in such Nant-Mawr Brook, 16 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a north-westerly direction from the centre line of the said embankment at the point where it crosses the said Nant-Mawr Brook.

3. An Aqueduct, or open watercourse (Aqueduct No. 1), wholly in the parishes of Llanishen and Lisvane, for diverting the Nant-Mawr Brook, commencing at a point in that brook, 8 chains, or thereabouts, measured along the brook course, in an easterly direction, from a point in the eastern boundary fence of the Rhymney Railway, where that fence crosses the Nant-Mawr Brook, and terminating in the parish of Lisvane, in the said Nant-Mawr Brook, by a junction with such brook, at a point 7 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a north-westerly direction, from the northern end of the Company's present intercepting or intake-tank, on the said Nant-Mawr Brook, now used for diverting the waters of that brook into the Company's existing Lisvane Reservoir No. 1.

4. An Aqueduct, or open watercourse (Aqueduct No. 2), in the parishes of Llanishen and Lisvane, for diverting the Nant-Mawr Brook, commencing at a point in that brook, $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a southerly direction, along the course of the Nant-Mawr Brook, from the southern end of the intercepting Tank or intake above described, on the Nant-Mawr Brook, and terminating in the Nant-Mawr Brook, at a point $8\frac{1}{2}$ chains, measured in a straight line in a north-easterly direction, from the northern angle of the barn situate on the northern side of and forming part of the Rhyd-y-penna Farm Buildings.

5. A set of Filters (Llanishen Filters), wholly in the parish of Llanishen, and about 5 chains from the southern side of Llanishen Mill, at or near the north-eastern side of a field, bounded on the west by the Rhymney Railway, and on the east by the road leading from Llanishen Mill to Wern Fawr, known as the Llanishen Mill-road, such field being known as Cae Linton, belonging or reputed to belong to John Boyle and William Stuart, Esquires, trustees for the Marquess of Bute, and in the occupation of Charles Tinker, such set of filters being intended to filter the water of the said Upper Llanishen Reservoir.

6. A Reservoir (Lisvane Reservoir No. 2) situated wholly within the parishes of Llanishen and Lisvane, on lands to the south of the Company's present store reservoir known as the "Lisvane Reservoir No. 1," the main embankment of which intended Lisvane Reservoir No. 2 runs east and west across the valley of the said Nant Mawr Brook and the western end of which embankment is situated 13 chains, or thereabouts, north of the north-east angle of the barn situate on the northern side of and forming part of the buildings known as "Rhyd-y-penna Farm," and the eastern end of which is situated 19 chains, or thereabouts, from the said northern angle of the said barn, the said embankment running east and west for a length of $14\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts, between the said points, the reservoir being intended to impound the waters of the said Nant-Mawr Brook, and also the waters of the streams called Nant Dulas and Llanishen Brook, and their tributaries, which said Nant Dulas and Llanishen Brook are situated wholly within the parishes of Lisvane, Llanishen, and Llanedarn, otherwise Llanedern, or some or one of them, in the said county, and to extend in a northerly direction, and to terminate at a point in the said Nant-Mawr Brook 29 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a northerly direction from the centre line of the said embankment at the point where it crosses the said Nant-Mawr Brook, and $43\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, northward from the said northern angle of the said barn.

7. A set of Filters (Cardiff Filters) wholly in the parishes of Llandaff and Llanishen, on lands adjoining to and lying west of the Rhymney Railway, and situate between that railway and the main road leading from the Llanishen Brickyard to the Cardiff New Cemetery, and bounded on the north by a public road leading from the said last-mentioned road over the said railway; the southern boundary of the said lands being situate 21 chains, or thereabouts, measured northward along the said road from the point at which it is crossed by a brook called the Nant Wedal, which forms the boundary between the parishes of Llandaff and St. John the Baptist, Cardiff, such lands belong or are reputed to belong to John Boyle and William Stuart, Esquires, trustees for the Marquess of Bute, and are in the occupation of Isaac Bryant.

8. Conduit No. 1.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, situate wholly in the parishes of Lisvane and Llanishen, commencing at a point $9\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in an easterly direction from a point in the eastern boundary fence of the Rhymney Railway, where that fence crosses the Nant-Mawr Brook, and terminating at a point $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a southerly direction from the aforesaid point of commencement, by a junction with the northern end of the aforesaid Upper Llanishen Reservoir.

9. Conduit No. 2.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, situate wholly in the parish of Lisvane, commencing at the aforesaid Aqueduct No. 1, at a point $4\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in an easterly direction from the south-east angle of the said Llanishen Mill, and terminating by a junction with the northern end of the Lower Llanishen Reservoir, at a point 2 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a southerly direction from the aforesaid point of commencement.

10. Conduit No. 3.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, commencing in the parish of Llanishen from and out of the southern end of the Upper Llanishen Reservoir, at a point 3 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line, in a southerly direction, from the south-eastern angle of the said Llanishen Mill, passing through the parishes of Llanishen, Whitchurch and Llandaff, and terminating in and by a junction with the Company's existing Penhill Service Reservoir in the last-named parish, at a point in the northern side of such Penhill Service Reservoir, 2 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a westerly direction from the north-eastern angle of the said Penhill Service Reservoir.

11. Conduit No. 4.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, situate wholly in the parishes of Lisvane and Llanishen, commencing from and out of the southern end of the said Lower Llanishen Reservoir at a point 14 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a north-easterly direction from the eastern angle of a house or cottage called Wern-Fawr, in the occupation of John Kilby, and terminating at a point where the said Aqueduct No. 1 joins the Nant-Mawr Brook course at a point $15\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in an easterly direction from the eastern angle of the said house or cottage called Wern-Fawr.

12. Conduit No. 5.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, situate in the parish of Llanishen, commencing from and out of the southern end of the said Lower Llanishen Reservoir, at a point 10 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a north-easterly direction from the eastern angle of a house or cottage called Wern-Fawr, in the occupation of John Kilby, and terminating at a point 9 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a northerly direction from the northern angle of the Barn, situate on the northern side of, and forming part of, the Rhyd-y-penna Farm Buildings aforesaid, by a junction with the intended Conduit No. 7 hereinafter mentioned.

13. Conduit No. 6.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, situate wholly in the parishes of Llanishen and Lisvane, commencing in the tank on the eastern side of the Company's existing intercepting or intake-tank, used for diverting the waters of the Nant-Mawr Brook into the Company's Lisvane Reservoir No. 1, and terminating at a point $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line from the aforesaid point of commencement by a junction with the northern end of the intended Lisvane Reservoir No. 2.

14. Conduit No. 7.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, commencing in the parish of Llanishen, from and out of the southern end of the intended Lisvane Reservoir No. 2, at a point $13\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a northerly direction from the northern angle of the barn situate on the northern side, and forming part of the Rhyd-y-penna Farm Buildings, and passing through the parishes of Llanishen, Llandaff, St. John the Baptist, and Roath, and terminating in the parish of St. John the Baptist, Cardiff, at or near the south-eastern angle of the Cardiff Savings Bank, at the junction of the road or street called North-street with Duke-street and Queen-street in the borough of Cardiff.

15. Road Diversion No. 1.—A diversion and alteration in the line and levels of a public road, situate in the parishes of Lisvane and Llanishen, commencing at a point on the road leading from Wern-Fawr aforesaid towards Llanishen Mill, and to or near to Tymawr Farm House, $11\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a northerly direction from the western angle of a house or cottage, called Wern-Fawr, in the occupation of John Kilby, and terminating at a point on the said road, 25 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a northerly direction from the aforesaid point of commencement.

16. Road Diversion No. 2.—A diversion and alteration in the line and levels of a public road situate in the parishes of Lisvane and Llanishen, commencing at a point on the road leading from the Llanishen Station on the Rhymney Railway to Lisvane, 6 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in an easterly direction from the eastern angle of a house or cottage called Wern-Fawr, in the occupation of John Kilby, and terminating at a point in the said road, $20\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in an easterly direction from the aforesaid point of commencement.

17. A set of subsiding Reservoirs and Filters (Ely Reservoirs and Filters), situate wholly in the parish of Llandaff, upon lands lying near and to the westward of Ely Flour Mill, and bounded on the north by the South Wales Railway, and on all other sides by the River Ely, such lands belonging, or reputed to belong to, and in the occupation of William Sheward Cartwright, Esq., for the purpose of impounding and filtering the waters of the said River Ely.

18. Conduit No. 8.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes wholly in the parish of Llandaff, commencing from and out of the said Ely Filters at a point $8\frac{1}{2}$ chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a westerly direction from the north-west angle of Ely Flour Mill, and terminating in the well of the Company's existing pumping engines at Ely.

19. Conduit No. 9.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, wholly in the parish of Llandaff, commencing at a spring known as Fairwater Spring, situated on land on the north side of and adjoining the South Wales

Railway, and bounded on the east by the road leading from Ely Flour Mill to the village of Fairwater, in the parish of Llandaff, and terminating in the aforesaid well of the Company's pumping engines at Ely.

20. Conduit No. 10.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, wholly in the parish of Llandaff, commencing in the bed of the river Ely, at a point 2 chains, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a northerly direction from the said well of the Company's pumping engines at Ely, and terminating in such well.

21. Conduit No. 11.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, wholly in the parish of Llandaff, commencing at a point on the north bank of the River Ely, 11½ chains, measured in a straight line in an easterly direction from the north-east angle of Ely Flour Mill aforesaid, and terminating in the aforesaid well of the Company's pumping engines at Ely.

22. Conduit No. 12.—One or more conduits, aqueducts, or lines of pipes, commencing in the parish of Llandaff at the aforesaid well of the Company's pumping engines at Ely, and passing through the village of Ely and the parishes of Llandaff, St. John the Baptist, and St. Mary, Cardiff, and terminating in the parish of St. John the Baptist, Cardiff, at or near the south-eastern angle of the Cardiff Savings Bank, at the junction of the road or street called North-street, with Duke-street and Queen-street, in the borough of Cardiff.

To authorise the Company to take, purchase, and acquire, by compulsion or agreement, and to appropriate and use lands, houses, mills, fishlocks, buildings, streams, springs of water, and other waters or hereditaments in or near the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them, and to take on lease and take grants of easements of, in, or under, over or through any lands, houses, mills, fishlocks, springs, streams, brooks, and waters, and other hereditaments, as are delineated on the plans, to be deposited in respect of the Bill, or as may be required or deemed necessary or desirable for any of the purposes of the intended reservoirs, filters, lines of pipes, and other works, or otherwise, for the purposes of the Bill, and any rights, interest, or easements, in, over, or in connection with such lands, houses, mills, fishlocks, buildings, and streams of water and other property, and to alter, vary, or extinguish, all existing rights or privileges connected with such lands, houses, waters, and other property.

To authorise the temporary occupation and use by the Company of lands, houses, buildings, easements, and hereditaments, for obtaining materials for the construction of the said intended reservoirs, filters, and lines of pipes, or otherwise, for the purposes of the Bill, and to incorporate with such variations and amendments as may be proper or requisite all or some of the provisions of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the temporary occupation of lands near the railway during the construction thereof, or to make other provisions with reference thereto.

To authorise the Company, and any and every sanitary or local authority, public body, commissioners, or persons, to contract and agree as to the supply by the Company of water, in bulk or otherwise, for public, sanitary, private trade, manufacturing, shipping, or agricultural purposes, and to confer upon such authorities, bodies, and persons, all such powers as to the levying of rates, borrowing of money, or otherwise, within the district or areas under their respective control as may be requisite for enabling them respectively to carry into effect any such contract, or agreement, and to confirm any agreements entered into for any of the purposes aforesaid.

To authorise the Company to intercept, collect, divert, and impound, in the said reservoirs and other works, and otherwise to appropriate and use for the purposes of their undertaking the waters of the following streams and brooks or any of them—that is to say:—

Nant Dulas, Nant-Mawr, Lanishen Brook and Roath Brook, all which waters now flow or proceed directly or derivatively into the River Rumney in the county of Glamorgan.

Fairwater Brook, Fairwater Spring, the waters of which last-mentioned brook and spring now flow or proceed directly or derivatively into the River Ely, and the said River Ely, all in the county of Glamorgan, and the tributaries of the said several streams, springs, brooks, and rivers, and all other brooks, streams, springs, watercourses, and surface waters which may be tributary to the said streams or brooks, or which may flow or pass into the said reservoirs, or which may be intercepted or interfered with by the said reservoirs, tanks, aqueducts, conduits, or other works of the Company.

To authorise the Company in constructing the said works to deviate from the lines thereof, as laid down on the deposited plan, to any extent which may be shown on the said plan, or defined by the Bill, and to deviate from the levels shown on the deposited sections to any extent which may be defined by the Bill.

To authorise the Company to break up, stop up, alter, or divert temporarily or permanently, all turnpike and other roads, footpaths, and highways, railways, bridges, arches, tunnels, streets, lanes, courts, alleys, tramways, waters, watercourses, sewers, mains, pipes, telegraph wires and apparatus, and other works, of whatever description, which it may be necessary or convenient to break up, stop up, alter, or divert, for any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might prevent or interfere with the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To authorise the Company to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock, with or without preference or priority in payment of dividend, and by mortgage debentures, debenture stock, or otherwise.

The Bill will also confirm and enact, or will authorise the Company to make and enforce, regulations for the prevention of waste by the users and consumers of water supplied by the Company, and will impose penalties for and confer powers with respect to the wrongful use of water supplied by the Company, and will also make provision for requiring the owners, lessees, and occupiers of houses and premises within the Company's limits of supply, to make, erect, and provide all such cisterns, pipes, valves, and other apparatus, and to do all such other acts and things as may be necessary in relation thereto.

To alter, amend, and, if necessary, to repeal, certain of the provisions of the following Acts of Parliament, or some of them, that is to say:—

"The Cardiff Waterworks Act, 1853," and "The Cardiff Waterworks Act, 1860," and any other Acts relating to the Company.

The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869;" "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863;" and such of the provisions as may be deemed expedient of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," relating to roads and to the temporary occupation of lands near the railway during the construction thereof.

A plan and section in duplicate of the intended reservoirs, filters, aqueducts, conduits, lines of pipes, and works, and of the lands and buildings proposed to be taken under the powers of the intended Act, and the springs and streams intended to be diverted, with a Book of Reference to the plan, with the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands; and a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Glamorgan, at his office at Cardiff, and a copy of so much of the said plan, section and Book of Reference as relates to each of the parishes, or through which the said intended works, or any of them, are proposed to be made, or any lands and houses proposed to be taken are situate; and also a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Parish Clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode; and in the case of an extra-parochial place, with the Parish Clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto at his place of abode.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December, 1877, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1877.

Sutton-in-Ashfield Gas.

(Purchase by the Sutton-in-Ashfield Local Board of the Undertaking of the Sutton-in-Ashfield Gas Light and Coke Company, and winding-up of that Company; Powers for the Local Board to supply Gas in Company's District; To Levy Rates and Borrow Money, and to make Agreements for supply of Gas with Sanitary Authorities; Amendment and incorporation of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, by or on behalf of the Local Board of Health for the district of Sutton-in-Ashfield, in the County of Nottingham (hereinafter called the Local Board), for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

1. To empower the Local Board to purchase by agreement, arbitration, or otherwise, and to provide for the transfer to and vesting in the Local Board of the undertaking, works, lands, and property (real and personal), powers, rights, and privileges now belonging or which at the date of the transfer may belong to the Sutton-in-Ashfield Gas Light and Coke Company (hereinafter called the Gas Company), for such price or consideration, and upon such terms and conditions as may be expressed and provided for by the Bill, or as may be agreed upon between the Gas Company and the Local Board, or as may be determined by arbitration, and to enable and require the Gas Company to sell and transfer their undertaking, property, and rights accordingly.

2. To authorise agreements between the Gas Company and the Local Board, and to confirm any agreement or agreements already made, or which previous to the passing of the Bill may be made with reference to the purchase and transfer aforesaid, or any of the objects of the Bill.

3. To provide for the dissolution and winding-up of the Gas Company, and for the payment of the purchase money or other consideration to the Gas Company, or for the distribution thereof among the shareholders of the Gas Company, or other persons entitled thereto, or in any manner which may be defined in the Bill or which Parliament may prescribe.

4. To empower the Local Board to carry on the undertaking of the Gas Company, and to sell and supply gas within the limits of supply of the Gas Company, and both within and without the district of the Local Board, and to have and exercise all or any of the powers, rights, authorities, and privileges of the Gas Company in relation to their undertaking, in as full and ample a manner as the Gas Company may or can lawfully exercise the same respectively; and also to have and exercise all powers and rights usually conferred upon Gas Companies or Sanitary Authorities supplying gas, and particularly power to maintain, improve, alter, and enlarge the gas works of the Gas Company to be acquired under the Bill, and within the limits of supply of the Gas Company to break up sewers, drains, mains, pipes, streets, roads, and places, to lay, repair, and maintain mains, pipes, and other works, to manufacture, sell, let, hire, or otherwise deal with meters, fittings, and other apparatus, articles, and things, to acquire, hold, and use patent rights and licences, to sell, supply, and distribute gas at such price or prices, and upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may be defined in the Bill; to manufacture, sell, store, and dispose of gas, coal, coke, tar, and the residual products arising in the manufacture of gas, and to receive and levy rates, rents, and charges in respect of the supply of gas, gas meters, and residual products.

5. To empower the Local Board to levy rates upon all lands, houses, and property within the district of the Local Board, and to alter and increase existing rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, rents, and charges, and to apply such rates, rents, and charges, and any money belonging to or under the control of the Local Board, to all or any of the objects and purposes of the Bill.

6. To authorise the Local Board to borrow and raise money by mortgage, bond, annuities (terminable or perpetual), debentures, debenture stock (redeemable or irredeemable), or otherwise, for purchasing and carrying on the undertaking of the Gas Company, and for any other of the purposes of the Bill, and payment of the costs thereof, upon the security of the undertaking, rates, revenues, and property which they may acquire under the Bill, and of the district fund and general district rate of the Local Board, and of all other the rates, revenues, and property of the Local Board, and to make such provisions with regard to the issue and conversion of any of the before-mentioned securities as may be deemed convenient.

7. To enable the Local Board to enter into contracts or agreements with any Sanitary or Local Authority, or any Highway Board or the Trustees of any turnpike-road, or any other body or person for the supply of gas, and for that purpose to enable any such authority, board, or trustees to raise money by rates and borrowing.

8. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would be inconsistent or interfere with the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

9. To amend, alter, and incorporate or make applicable to the Local Board all or some of the provisions of the following Acts, viz.:—the "Gas and Water Orders Confirmation Act, 1874," and the "Sutton-in-Ashfield Gas Order, 1874," confirmed thereby, the "Public Health Act, 1875," the "Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," and the "Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871," the "Towns Improvement Act, 1847," and the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," and any other Act in force within the district of the Local Board, or relating to the objects of the Bill.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this eighth day of November, 1877.

Normanton Gas.

(Dissolution and Re-incorporation for Gas purposes of the Normanton Gas and Water Company; Powers for manufacturing Gas and Residual Products, and supplying Gas within the Townships comprised in or adjoining to the parish of Normanton; other Powers usually conferred on Gas Companies; Increase of Capital).

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to dissolve the Normanton Gas and Water Company Limited, hereinafter referred to as the old Company, and to annul their memorandum and articles of association, and re-incorporate the shareholders of the old Company, or otherwise to incorporate a new Company by the name of the Normanton Gas Company, or by such other name as may be deemed expedient, and to vest in the Company to be so re-incorporated or incorporated (hereinafter in either case called the Company) all the undertaking, works, lands, property, and effects of the old Company, and all their powers, rights, easements, and privileges in relation to gas and the benefit of all their contracts, agreements, and licenses under patent rights, and to confer upon the Company all such other powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient, or are usually conferred by Parliament upon Gas Companies for enabling them to manufacture, convert, store, and sell gas and residual products evolved in the manufacture of gas, and to purchase, sell, let, or otherwise deal in meters and to purchase and hold patent rights and licenses, and to break up streets, roads, and public places, and to lay, take up, repair, renew, enlarge, and extend mains, pipes, and other works, and to do all other acts necessary or proper for well and effectually making, distributing, and supplying gas within the townships of Normanton, Altofts, Woodhouse, Warmfield-cum-Heath, Kirkthorpe, Whitwood, Snyderdale, and Newland, in or adjoining to the parish of Normanton, in the West Riding of the county of York, or some of such townships or some parts or part thereof respectively.

And it is proposed to take powers for manufacturing and converting gas and residual products on the existing gas premises of the old Company, situate at Normanton, and bounded as follows, that is to say: on the south by a brick wall separating the site of the Company's works from a grass field, also belonging to the Company, on the north by Buckle-lane, in the township of Normanton, on the west by an arable field belonging or reputed to belong to Sir Charles Edward Dodsworth, of Thornton, Watlass, near Bedale, in the county of York, and now in the occupation of Benjamin Shillito, Farmer, of Altofts, in the county of York, and on the east by Gashouse-lane, in the township of Normanton, and it is proposed to make provision with respect to the capital and borrowing powers of the Company, and to authorize the Company to raise more money by the creation of ordinary or preference shares or stock, and by mortgage, debenture stock, or otherwise, and to levy rates, rents, and charges; to alter existing rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, rents, or charges.

And it is proposed to take powers to stop up, alter, or divert, temporarily or permanently, all streets, roads, and highways, streams, water courses, sewers, pipes, and works of any description which it may be necessary to stop up, alter, or divert for any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to amend any local and personal Acts so far as may be necessary for effecting any of the objects of the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent or impede the accomplishment of any such objects, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated the 3rd day of November, 1877.

Forth Bridge Railway.

(Powers to Forth Bridge Railway Company to make working and other arrangements with North British, Midland, North Eastern, and Great Northern Railway Companies; Option to North British Railway Company to apply for powers to acquire undertaking of the Forth Bridge Railway Company; Powers with reference to the Forth Bridge Railway to the North British, Midland, North Eastern, and Great Northern Railway Companies, and powers to these Companies or any one or more of them, to contribute towards, and to hold shares and stock in the undertaking of the Forth Bridge Railway Company, and to contribute annual or other payments to the revenues thereof, to guarantee interest and dividends on the capital of the Forth Bridge Railway Company, and to raise additional Capital by shares, and stock, and borrowing, or otherwise; Confirmation of agreements with before mentioned Companies; Incorporation of Acts, Amendment of Acts, and other purposes.)

1. To enable the Forth Bridge Railway Company (in this notice hereinafter referred to as the Company), on the one hand, and the North British, Midland, North Eastern, and Great Northern Railway Companies (in this notice called the four Companies), or any one or more of them on the other hand, from time to time, to enter into, and carry into effect, contracts and agreements with respect to the matters following, or some of them:—

(1.) The construction, working, use, management, and maintenance of the railways and works of the Company, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, and the raising of the capital for the same by subscriptions, contribution, or guarantee, or by all or any one or more of these modes.

(2.) The supply of rolling stock, plant, and machinery, the appointment, payment, and removal of officers and servants, the payments to be made, and the conditions to be performed with respect to such construction, working, use, management, and maintenance, the interchange, regulation, management, accommodation, conveyance, transmission, and delivery of traffic coming from, or destined for, or passing over the respective undertakings of the contracting Companies, the tolls, rates, and duties to be leviable upon and in respect of such traffic for the use of the railways of the Company, or the commutation thereof, and the division, appropriation, and apportionment of the revenues arising from such traffic, or other the profits of the respective undertakings of the contracting Companies, and to provide for the appointment of joint committees for carrying into effect any such agreements, and to confirm and give effect to any agreement or agreements already made, or which, previously to the passing of the Bill, may be made touching any of the matters aforesaid, and to enable the four Companies, or any one or more of them, to levy tolls, rates, and charges in respect of the railway and undertaking of the Company.

(3.) To authorise and empower the North British Railway Company, on such terms as have been or may hereafter be agreed upon between them and the Company, to enter upon, possess, work, use, and maintain the railways of the Company in the same manner and with the same powers and obligations as if the railways of the Company formed portions of the railways of the North British Railway Company.

(4.) To confer on the North British Railway Company the option of applying to Parliament for powers to purchase and acquire the whole undertaking of the Company, on such terms and conditions as have been or may hereafter be agreed upon between that Company and the Company, and to provide for the Company, and the Midland, North Eastern, and Great Northern Railway Companies, or any one or more of them, concurring in all applications to Parliament, and all other steps which the North British Railway Company shall consider necessary for effecting and carrying out the purchase and transfer of such undertaking.

(5.) The payment to the Company by the North British Railway Company of certain annual or other payments, in respect of traffic to be carried free of charge to that Company over the railways of the Company.

(6.) To empower the four Companies, or any one or more of them, and any Company or persons for the time being working or using the railways of the four Companies, or any part thereof, by agreement or otherwise, and on such terms and conditions, and on payment of such tolls and rates or other payments as may be agreed on, or as may be settled by arbitration, or provided by the Bill to run over, work, and use with their engines, carriages, and waggons, officers and servants, whether or not in charge of engines and trains, or for any other purpose whatsoever, and for the purposes of their traffic of every description the railways or portions of railways hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, so much of the North British Railway as is situate between the northern terminus of the Forth Bridge Railway and Perth and Dundee respectively, including the Tay Bridge undertaking of the North British Railway, and also the railways and undertaking of the Forth Bridge Railway Company.

(7.) To provide and require the North British Railway Company to adopt the railways of the Company for such portions of their traffic as has been, or may be agreed upon between them and the Company.

(8.) To authorise and require the four Companies, or any one or more of them, to contribute and pay or otherwise guarantee to the Company such annual or other payments, and in such proportions as has been agreed to between them and the Company, or may, previous to the passing of the Bill, be agreed upon, and to provide in certain circumstances for the repayment of such contributions and payments.

(9.) To provide for the regulation and use of the railways of the Company by the four Companies, or any one or more of them, and to empower the four Companies, or any one or more of them, to subscribe or contribute towards the construction and maintenance, in whole or in part, of the railways and works of the Company, and to guarantee such interest, dividends, annual or other payments, in respect of the moneys expended in the construction of the said railways and works, or any part or portion thereof, or other the expenses of the Company, as may be agreed upon between the four Companies or any one or more of them and the Company, and to subscribe to and take and hold shares in the capital of the Company, and either to contribute and pay to the Company such annual or other sums, or to guarantee the dividends on the shares or stock of the Company to such an amount as may be agreed upon, or to make provision for setting aside a fund or funds to guarantee or provide for interest on the debentures and dividends on the shares and stock of the Company, or any part or portion thereof, in such manner and to such extent as the Bill may provide, and to provide for the payment of interest on calls on the capital of the Company prior to the opening of the railways by the Company, and to apply to the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, any capital or funds now belonging, or which hereafter may respectively belong to the four Companies, or any or either of them, or be under the control of their respective directors; and if they shall think fit, to authorise the four Companies, or any of them, to raise additional moneys for these purposes, or any of them, or for any of the purposes of the Bill, by the creation of new shares or stock in their respective undertakings, with or without preference or priority in payment of dividends or interest, or other rights or privileges attached thereto, over their existing and authorised capital, or by borrowing or mortgage or bond, or by creating debenture stock, or by any of those means, or by such other means as Parliament shall authorise or direct, or as the Bill may provide; and to appoint directors in the undertaking of the Company, and to confirm and give effect to any agreement or agreements already made, or which, previously to the passing of the Bill, may be made touching any of the matters aforesaid.

2. Or to provide, by enactments in the Bill, for securing all or any of the matters and objects before enumerated and referred to.

3. To alter and amend the provisions of "The Fourth Bridge Railway Act, 1873," and in particular, to alter the provisions of that Act with respect to the number of directors of the Company as fixed by that Act, and the number of the quorum of such directors, and to make further and other provisions with reference to the number of said directors and the quorum thereof, and to alter and amend "The Forth Bridge Railway Act, 1876," and "The North British Railway (Fife Railways) Act, 1876."

4. To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges inconsistent with, or which would or might in any way impede or interfere with any of the objects aforesaid, and of the Bill being carried into effect, and to confer all other rights and privileges necessary or expedient for effecting the said objects, or in relation thereto, and to incorporate with the Bill the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869;" "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845;" "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863;" "The Railway Companies Powers Act, 1864;" "The Railway Companies Act, 1867;" "The Railway Companies (Scotland) Act, 1867;" "The Regulation of Railways Act, 1868;" and "The Regulation of Railways Act, 1873."

5. To repeal, alter, or amend all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Forth Bridge Railway Act, 1873," and "The Forth Bridge Railway Act, 1876," "The North British, Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee, and West of Fife Railways Amalgamation Act, 1862," and of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them relating to the North British Railway Company, and the undertakings belonging to,

Lea Bridge District Gas Light and Coke Company (Limited.)

(Dissolution and re-incorporation of the Lea Bridge District Gas Light and Coke Company, Limited; Power to continue Gas Works; To supply Gas in Walthamstow and Leyton in Essex; To acquire and hold Lands and break up Streets; To raise further Capital; To levy Rates, Rents, and Charges; To confirm Agreement with the West Ham Gas Company, and other Powers.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following purposes.

1. To dissolve the Lea Bridge District Gas Light and Coke Company Limited (hereinafter called "The Limited Company"), and to cancel and annul the Memorandum and Articles of Association under which that Company is acting.

2. To re-incorporate the shareholders of the Limited Company, or to incorporate the shareholders therein together with such other persons and corporations as may become shareholders in the undertaking, into a new Company (hereinafter called "The Company").

3. To confer upon the Company all necessary powers and authorities for the supply of gas for all purposes, and to the exclusion of any other Company now authorised to supply gas therein within the district hereinafter specified, that is to say, the parish of Walthamstow, and so much of the parish of Leyton in the county of Essex, as lies on the north-west side of the following line, namely, a line commencing at the bridge carrying the Lea Bridge-road over the River Lea, and thence passing along the roads or lanes known as Marsh-lane, Park-road, Cooper's-lane, James-lane, passing near Forest Farm, and terminating in the Assembly Row, Leyton, at a point 700 yards from Whips Cross, and drawn with respect to such roads or lanes aforesaid, in such manner as to exclude from the limits of the intended Act all houses which or the gardens or grounds of which abut on such roads or lanes respectively.

4. To confirm or give effect to any agreement between the Company and the West Ham Gas Company with reference to the limits over which their powers shall respectively extend.

5. To declare and define the capital of the Company, and to provide for the cancellation of the existing shares of the Limited Company, and for the vesting and apportionment of new shares or stock in and among the shareholders of the Company, and to enable the Company to raise further capital by shares or stock, borrowing on mortgage, and by debenture stock, and to attach to such shares or stock, or any part thereof, a preference or priority of dividend, and other advantages, and to authorise the formation of any reserve, or renewal fund, and generally to provide for the application of the revenue of the Company.

6. To vest in the Company all lands and all Gas Works, erections, building, rights, easements, and other property, powers, and authorities now vested in, or belonging to, or occupied, or enjoyed by the Limited Company, or held in trust for them, and all mains, pipes, retorts, plant, apparatus, stock and effects laid down, or provided by, and all other property and things of whatever nature, belonging to the Limited Company, together with the benefit of all contracts and engagements entered into by or on behalf of that Company, and to empower the Company to hold such lands and other property.

7. To authorise the Company to manufacture and to store gas and the several matters or things producible from the several residual substances arising or resulting from the manufacture of gas, and to sell and dispose of gas, coke, coal tar, and other residual and manufactured products, matters, and things; also to acquire and hold patent rights and licences, to use and exercise patent rights, and carry on the business usually carried on by Gas Companies, or which is, or may become incident thereto; to erect, provide, maintain, alter, enlarge or discontinue Gas Works, retorts, and apparatus, and to lay down and maintain mains and pipes in, through, across, along, or under railways, streets, roads, lanes, rivers, canals, waters, bridges, and other passages and places within the limits of supply, and to break up and interfere with streets, roads, lanes, bridges, and other passages and places, and also with any sewers, drains, and pipes in, over, or under the same.

8. To empower the Company to manufacture, purchase, or hire gas meters and fittings and other gas apparatus, and to sell or let the same, and to levy and collect rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas and gas meters and fittings and other gas apparatus, and any rents or sums of money which, at the date of the passing of the intended Act, may be due to the Limited Company, and if need be to alter existing rates, rents, and charges.

9. To authorise the Company to purchase and hold lands, and to sell and dispose of lands, and to enable the Company to acquire by compulsion or agreement any freehold, leasehold, [or other interest subsisting in the lands hereinafter mentioned or any part thereof.

10. The lands to be held and used for the manufacture and storage of gas and the manufacture and sale of residual products are the lands now belonging to the Company, situate in the parish of Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, which lands are bounded as follows:—

On the south-west by the Eastern Counties Cambridge Line of the Great Eastern Railway, on the north-west by a piece of land lately acquired from the Limited Company by the Great Eastern Railway Company, and lying between the works of the Company and the Lea Bridge-road; on the north-east, partly by a piece of meadow-land belonging to the trustees of the will of the late Edward Warner, and in the occupation of George Chittock, partly by another piece of meadow-land belonging to the said trustees, and now unoccupied, partly by another piece of unoccupied land belonging to the said trustees, and formerly used as a road, and partly by another piece of meadow-land belonging to William Owen Tucker, and now in the occupation of Wellington Williams, and on the south-east by a piece of meadow and market garden-land belonging to Alderman Sydney, and in the occupation of Steven George Croxton and Richard Dugwell or one of them.

11. The Bill will or may incorporate with itself and apply to the Company, with or without modification, all or some of the provisions of "The Companies Clauses, Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871," and it will confer upon the Company all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill, and it will vary and extinguish all such existing rights and privileges as may interfere with the attainment of any of the objects aforesaid.

12. The Bill will or may provide for the exemption of the Company's undertaking, either wholly or in part, from the application of "The Metropolitan Gas Act, 1860," or any other Act or Acts relating to the supply of gas to the metropolis, and so far as necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid, alter or amend "The West Ham Gas Company's Act, 1856," and "The West Ham Gas Company's Act, 1869," and any other Act relating to that Company.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1877.

Christ Church, Newgate Street (London).
Tithes Commutation Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to provide for the commutation of tithes in the parish of Christ Church, Newgate-street, in the City of London.

And by such Bill for the purposes aforesaid, it is proposed to enact that all Rectorial Tithes and all sums of money in lieu of Rectorial Tithes whatsoever, arising or growing due in the said parish, shall as from a day to be named in the Bill or to be fixed by Parliament, cease and be extinguished, and that the Governors of Saint Bartholomew's Hospital shall instead thereof be entitled to receive such fixed sum and sums and at such periods as shall be named in or provided for by the Bill.

To authorise and require the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the said parish, from time to time to make and levy upon all property rateable to poor rates or subject to tithes in the said parish, such a rate or rates as may be necessary to provide the before-mentioned fixed sums and other the sums requisite to be raised for the purposes after-mentioned and those referred to in the Bill, subject nevertheless as regards such rate or rates to any such exemptions, partial or otherwise, as may be contained or provided for in the Bill.

To authorise the churchwardens and overseers to appoint all such officers as may be requisite for the purposes of the intended Act.

To provide for the payment out of the said intended rates of the expenses or a portion of the expenses incurred by the parishioners of the said parish, in respect of questions which have arisen, and the action which has been taken with respect to the before-mentioned tithes, and also in like manner to provide for the payment of the costs or a portion of the costs of passing the intended Act or incident thereto.

To authorise agreements as to the commutation of the said tithes and the withdrawal and discontinuance of any legal proceedings now pending with reference thereto.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, and to vary and extinguish exemption from rates, and if necessary, to confer such exemptions.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870.

Northern London Estates Company Limited.

(Application to the Board of Trade for Powers to Construct Waterworks, and to supply Water to a certain Estate belonging to the said Company, known as the Bush Hill Park Estate, situate in the parishes of Enfield and Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex, and also to certain Lands adjoining the said Estate, and not belonging to the said Company.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade by the Northern London Estates Company Limited (which said Company is in this notice called "the Company") for a Provisional Order pursuant to "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," for authority to construct and maintain waterworks, and supply water to the lands known as the Bush Hill Park Estate, situate in the parishes of Enfield and Edmonton, in the county of Middlesex, and also to certain other lands adjoining the said estate, situate in the same parishes, and now belonging to or in the respective occupations of Edward Ford, Esq., J.P., George J. Braikenridge, Esq., John Collins, Esq., Frederick Beadel, Esq., Richard F. Pike, Esq., W. J. Dawson, Esq., and Raikes Currie, Esq. It is proposed to apply for powers in the said Order to authorise the Company to construct and maintain in the lines and according to the levels shown on the plans and sections deposited as hereinafter mentioned, the waterworks hereinafter described with all needful pipes, approaches, culverts, cuts, drains, weirs, sluices, engines, filter beds, meters, and other works connected therewith, that is to say: the sinking of a well or wells into or through the chalk, the construction of one or more service reservoirs at such an elevation as shall be sufficient to cause the water to reach the top storey of houses erected within the lines on the plans deposited, the erection of pumps and engines, and the laying down of such cast-iron mains and service pipes as may be required within the said lines. And it is proposed to authorise the Company to acquire by agreement and hold lands for the purpose of their undertaking, and to authorise the Company from time to time for the purpose of laying down, repairing and maintaining any mains, pipes, culverts, and other works to break up and interfere with such streets, roads, highways, lanes, bridges, rivers, and other public and private passages and places, and also to interfere with any sewers or drains in or over the same, so as to enable the Company to carry on the business usually carried on by water companies.

And it is proposed to authorise the Company to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with all corporations, local boards, public bodies, commissioners, and other authorities, and all persons whomsoever, for the supply of water, upon such terms and conditions as they shall think fit.

And it is proposed to authorise the Company to manufacture, purchase, or hire water meters and water apparatus, and to sell or let the same, and to levy rates, rents, and charges therefor, and for the water supplied by them, and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers and authorities for the purposes of the intended Order.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1877, a plan and section of the proposed waterworks, together with a copy of this notice, will be deposited for public inspection in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for Middlesex, at his office at the Sessions House, Broad Sanctuary, Westminster, in the said county of Middlesex, at the respective offices of the Clerks to the Justices at Enfield and Edmonton aforesaid, at the offices of Messrs. Emmet and Son, 14, Bloomsbury-square, Middlesex, Solicitors, and a similar deposit will also be made at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

On and after the 23rd day of December next, printed copies of the draft Provisional Order may be obtained at the offices of Messrs. Emmet and Son, of 14, Bloomsbury-square, London, upon payment of the sum of one shilling for each copy, and copies of the said Order, if and when made by the Board of Trade, will be deposited for public inspection at the before-mentioned office of the Clerk of the Peace for Middlesex, at the respective offices of the Clerks to the Justices at Enfield and Edmonton aforesaid, and may be obtained upon application at the offices of Messrs. Emmet and Son, before mentioned, at the said price of one shilling each.

All persons desirous of making any representations to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the proposed application, may do so by letter, addressed to the Assistant-Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15th day of January, 1878, provided that at the same time they also send a copy of their said objections to Messrs. Emmet and Son, at their offices, 14, Bloomsbury-square, London aforesaid.

Dated the 30th day of October, 1877.

Stockton-on-Tees Quay and Markets.

(Construction of Quay and Works in connection therewith; Erection of Warehouses, Sheds, and other Buildings; Diversion of Roads, &c.; Use of Locomotive Engines; Purchase of Lands by compulsion and by agreement; Making of Bye-laws, Rules, &c.; Sale, &c., of Surplus Lands; Levying of Tolls, Rates, Dues, &c., in connection with proposed Quay; Borrowing of Money; Contribution by Corporation towards repair and improvement of Ox-bridge and Brown's-bridge over Lustrum Beck; Agreements with North-Eastern Railway Company as to contribution of money towards, or as to the construction of, proposed Quay and other works, and as to other matters; Increased and Additional Market Tolls, Stallages, &c.; Amendment of Stockton-on-Tees Extension and Improvement Act, 1869, and Stockton-on-Tees Market Act, 1876; Amendment and Incorporation of Acts, and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Stockton-on-Tees (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following among other purposes, and to enable the Corporation to construct the works, and to exercise the powers, and effect the objects hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, that is to say:—

The making and maintaining of a quay and embankment on the western side margin, or left bank of the River Tees, wholly in the parish of Stockton-on-Tees, in the borough of Stockton, in the county of Durham, commencing in or on the foreshore of the River Tees, at a point 335 feet, or thereabouts, measured in a straight line in a south-easterly direction from the north-eastern corner of the end house on the southern side of the street known as Castlegate, at the river end of such street, and terminating at the south-western end of the river wharf or frontage of Wren's Quay adjoining the north-eastern side of the inlet known as Bishop's Landing Place, being a total length of 1,500 lineal feet, or thereabouts.

The filling in, raising, levelling, and metalling, or paving so much of the banks of the River Tees as will be reclaimed by means of such embankment, and of the roadway and other lands within the limits of deviation marked on the plans hereinafter mentioned, and the laying down thereon of rails, sidings, roads, and approaches.

The making, laying down, erecting, building, and maintaining upon or in connection with the said quay and embankment all requisite and proper roads, approaches, sidings, wharves, coal staiths, coal drops, warehouses, sheds, (as well of wood or other combustible material, as of brick or other incombustible material), cranes, machinery, walls, piers, platforms, jetties, landing places, waiting rooms, moorings, buoys, lights, and other works and conveniences for the embarking or disembarking of passengers, and for loading or unloading and storing of fish, animals, grain, goods, stores, and merchandise of every description or otherwise, for, or in connection with, the several works and purposes aforesaid, all which intended works will be situate or be made in the parish of Stockton-on-Tees, in the borough of Stockton, in the county of Durham.

To remove all landing stages, cranes, dolphins, mooring posts, buoys, or other erections abutting upon, or in, the River Tees; and to intercept and divert any drains, sewers, or watercourses, and to extinguish all haling and other rights of way that may interfere with or obstruct the use of the said quay or the approaches thereto.

To dredge, deepen, and scour such portions of the said River Tees, and the channels thereof, as may be requisite or expedient for affording free and uninterrupted access to the quay and other works, to be authorised by the Bill.

To deviate from the lines of the intended works, within the limits to be shown upon the plans hereinafter mentioned, and to deviate vertically from the levels shown upon the sections hereinafter mentioned, to such an extent as may be deemed necessary, or as may be authorised by the Bill.

To authorise the use by the Corporation and the North-Eastern Railway Company, or either of them, of locomotive or other engines, and carriages, trucks, and cars upon the existing sidings and works on the banks of the River Tees, in the said parish of Stockton-on-Tees, and upon any and every sidings and works to be made upon or in connection with the said quay under the powers of the Bill.

To purchase compulsorily, or by agreement, all messuages, lands, and hereditaments, and easements in, through, under, or over land and hereditaments required for the purpose of the intended works or the general purposes of the Corporation in relation thereto, and to exercise and acquire other rights and privileges, and to vary and extinguish all existing rights of frontage and foreshore and other rights and privileges in any manner connected with the said River Tees, or with any of the lands, houses, and other property to be acquired under the powers of the Bill, or otherwise, or which would or could in any manner interfere with the objects and purposes of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To divert, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, any roads, railways, tramways, streets, highways, thoroughfares, courts, alleys, bridges, sewers, drains, watercourses, pipes, stairs, quays, slopes, river approaches, and landing places within the said parish for the several purposes of the Bill.

To empower the Corporation from time to time to make, rescind, and vary bye-laws, rules, and regulations for or with respect to the use, management, and protection of the quay and other works to be authorised by the Bill, and as to the payments to be made for admission thereto, and for preventing nuisances therein, and for the removal therefrom of persons misconducting themselves therein, and to attach penalties to the breach or non-observance of any such bye-laws, rules, and regulations.

To enable the Corporation to sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise dispose of any lands which the Corporation may from time to time acquire, and not require for the purposes of the undertaking, and to confer upon the Corporation all needful powers for preventing and removing obstructions to vessels approaching or leaving, or being moored at or near the proposed quay.

To confer upon the Corporation all such powers, rights and privileges, as may be deemed necessary or expedient, or as may be defined by the Bill with respect to the management of their undertaking quay, wharves, warehouses, sheds, and other buildings and appliances, and to enable them to issue dock or other warrants, or certificates for goods or merchandise warehoused by or deposited with the Corporation subject to the provisions contained in the Bill.

To enable the Corporation to appoint meters and weighers of corn, seed, grain and other commodities.

To empower the Corporation to levy tolls, rates, dues, wharfage, and other charges on vessels, quays, wharves, merchandise, minerals, animals, and persons at, upon, or in respect of the proposed new quay, embankments, wharves, piers, landing-places, and other works and conveniences which the Corporation may be authorised by the Bill to construct and maintain, and from time to time to vary and alter the same, and to confer exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, dues, and charges.

To empower the Corporation to borrow, and from time to time to re-borrow, on mortgage, bond, annuity, or otherwise, of the rates, dues, and charges now existing or to arise under the Bill, or of the Borough Fund, or of the Borough rates, for the purposes of the Bill.

To authorise the Corporation to contribute money towards the repair and improvement of the two bridges crossing the Lustrum Beck known as Ox-bridge and Brown's-bridge upon such terms and conditions as they may think fit, or as may be expressed in the Bill.

To authorise the North Eastern Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") to execute the works to be authorised by the Bill or any portion or portions of such works if the Corporation shall think fit, and to subscribe or contribute to the cost of the quay and other works, to be constructed under the powers of the Bill, and to appropriate such portion of their existing capital as may be necessary therefor, and to enable the Corporation and the Company, from time to time, to enter into and carry into effect, agreements with respect to the construction of the whole or any part of the proposed quay and other works or with respect to the working, use, management, and maintenance of the said quay, embankment, and other works, or any portion thereof, the supply of rolling stock, plant, and machinery, and of officers and servants, the payments to be made, and the conditions to be performed, with respect to such working, use, management, and maintenance, the accommodation, conveyance, transmission, and delivery of traffic coming from or destined for the railway of the Company or the quay of the Corporation, respectively, and for and with respect to the fixing of the tolls, rates, and charges to be demanded, taken, and recovered in respect of such traffic, and the division, appropriation, and apportionment of the revenue arising from such traffic, the payment of any fixed or contingent rent, and the appointment of joint Committees for the carrying into effect any such agreement, and to confirm and give effect to any agreement already made, or which, previously to the passing of the Bill, may be made touching any of the matters aforesaid.

To authorise the temporary occupation and use of lands, houses, buildings, easements, and hereditaments for obtaining materials for the construction of the said quay, embankment, and other works, or otherwise, for the purposes of the Bill, and to incorporate, with such variations and amendments, as may be proper or requisite, all or some of the provisions of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the temporary occupation of lands near the railway during the construction thereof, or to make other provisions with reference thereto.

To authorise the Corporation to demand and recover (and as well in addition to, as in substitution of the tolls, rents, rates, stallages, dues, duties, and other payments authorised by "The Stockton-on-Tees Extension and Improvement Act, 1869," and "The Stockton-on-Tees Market Act, 1876," or either of them) new and additional tolls, rents, rates, stallages, dues, duties, and other payments for and in respect of the markets authorised by and established in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and for stallage and standing therein, and for weighing and measuring, and for the exhibition in bulk or in sample of corn and other articles and things, and for other matters connected with such markets, and to alter and increase or diminish all or any of the existing market tolls, rents, rates, stallages, dues, duties, and other payments which the Corporation are now, under the said last-mentioned Acts, or either of them, or otherwise authorised to demand, take, and recover, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from tolls, rents, rates, stallages, dues, duties and other payments.

To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, and explain, or to repeal so far as may be necessary or desirable for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, the provisions of the following local and personal Acts, that is to say:—"The Stockton-on-Tees Extension and Improvement Act, 1869," "The Stockton-on-Tees Market Act, 1876," and any other Act or Acts relating to the borough of Stockton-on-Tees, the 48th George III., cap. 48; "The Tees Conservancy and Stockton Dock Act, 1852;" "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1854;" "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1858;" "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1863;" "The Tees Conservancy Act, 1867;" "The Pier and Harbour Orders Confirmation Act, 1874;" and

"The Tees Conservancy Act, 1875;" and any other Act or Acts relating to the Tees Conservancy. The 17 and 18 Vic., cap. 211; 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 122; 28 Vic., cap. 111; 28 and 29 Vic., cap. 368; 33 Vic., cap. 7; and 37 and 38 Vic., cap. 105, and any other Act or Acts relating to the North-Eastern Railway Company.

To incorporate with the Bill "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847."

To vary and extinguish, exclude or modify, all existing powers, rights, privileges, and exemptions, which may interfere with any objects and purposes of the Bill, and to confer all other powers, rights, privileges, and exemptions necessary or expedient for carrying any of such objects and purposes into effect.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the lines, situations, and levels of the proposed new quay, embankment, and other works, and the lands, houses, and other property in or through which they will be made, or which may be taken compulsorily for the purposes of the Bill, together with books of reference of such plans containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property; and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the county of Durham, at his office in the city of Durham, in the county of Durham, and on or before the same day a copy of the said plans and sections, and book of reference, and a copy of this notice will also be deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Stockton-on-Tees, at his residence.

Printed copies of the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1877.

Hemel Hempsted District Gas.

(Dissolution of Hemel Hempsted and Boxmoor Gas and Coke Company (Limited) and Boxmoor Two Waters, and Crouchfield Gas and Coke Company (Limited); Incorporation into a Company of the proprietors of the dissolved Companies and other persons; Money powers; Defining limits of supply; power to new Company to hold and purchase lands and manufacture and supply gas &c.; Power to acquire undertakings of Kings Langley Gas Company (Limited) and Hunton Bridge and Abbots Langley Gas Company (Limited); Agreements with Local Authorities and persons; and other purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the purposes, or some of the purposes following (that is to say):

To dissolve the Hemel Hempsted and Boxmoor Gas and Coke Company (Limited), and to cancel and annul their Memorandum and Articles of Association;

To dissolve the Boxmoor Two Waters and Crouchfield Gas and Coke Company

(Limited), and to cancel and annul their Memorandum and Articles of Association;

To incorporate into a Company (hereinafter called the Company) the proprietors of the two Companies so to be dissolved (in this notice called "the dissolved Companies"), or those proprietors or some of them and other persons and corporations;

To declare, define and, regulate the undertaking, capital and borrowing powers, and to make provision for the regulation and management of the affairs and proceedings of the Company, and to authorise them to raise further money by the creation and issue of ordinary or preference shares or stock in their undertaking, and by borrowing on mortgage or otherwise, and to create and issue debenture stock;

To vest in the Company all the works, lands, buildings, property, interests, rights, powers, privileges, easements, licences, benefits of licences and agreements, belonging to the dissolved Companies, or either of them;

To confer upon the Company the powers or some of the powers, and to enable them to carry into effect the objects or some of the objects following (that is to say)

To maintain, alter, enlarge, improve, extend, and renew or discontinue the existing gas and other works of the dissolved Companies for the manufacture, storing, and supply of gas, and to erect and maintain gas and other works upon the lands hereinafter described, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof (that is to say):—

1. Land belonging or reputed to belong to the Hemel Hempsted, and Boxmoor Gas and Coke Company (Limited) and occupied by them for the purposes of their gas works, and a piece of garden ground adjoining the gas works which is now occupied by Walter Mole, which land is situate in Pope's Lane, Hemel Hempsted, and measures about 3 roods and 26 perches, and is bounded on the north by a garden belonging or reputed to belong to Joseph Cranstone, on the south by premises belonging or reputed to belong to Henry Mutton, on the east by the river Gade, and on the west by Pope's Lane;
2. Land belonging or reputed to belong to the Boxmoor Two Waters and Crouchfield Gas and Coke Company (Limited), and occupied by them for the purposes of their works, and measuring about 1 rood and 37 perches, situate at Boxmoor, and bounded on the north-west by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Rev. George Holloway, on the north-east and south-east by lands belonging to or reputed to belong to Thomas Coupland, and on the south by the Hemel Hempsted and London and North-Western Railway.
3. Land adjoining the gas works at Boxmoor, belonging or reputed to belong to Thomas Coupland, measuring about 1 acre and 4 perches, and bounded on the north-west by the Boxmoor Gas Works, and by properties belonging or reputed to belong to the Rev. George Holloway and to Thomas Coupland, on the north-east by the highway and, by other properties belonging or reputed to belong to the said Thomas Coupland and to James Timms, on the south-east by properties belonging or reputed to belong to the said Thomas Coupland, and by land belonging to the Hemel Hempsted and London and North-Western Railway Company, and on the south by the Railway of that Company;

The 3 pieces of land before described are situated in the parish of Hemel Hempsted in the county of Hertford;

To purchase by compulsion or agreement the land 3rdly before described for the purposes of the existing gas works at Boxmoor, and on such land or any part or parts thereof, to erect, make, and maintain additional buildings, works, and conveniences for the manufacture and storage of gas, and any residual products arising in the manufacture of gas, and to manufacture and store gas and such residual products, and to make such approaches to such lands as the Company may think fit;

To light with and supply gas in and to the parishes of Hemel Hempsted, and Bovingdon, and such parts of the parishes of Saint Michaels, Northchurch, Great Gaddesden, Flamstead, Redbourn, Abbots Langley and Kings Langley in the county of Hertford, as are within a distance of three miles from Hemel Hempsted parish church, and, in the event of the undertakings of the Kings Langley and Hunton Bridge and Abbots Langley Gas Companies being acquired by the Company, to light and supply gas in and to the other parts of the said parishes of Kings Langley and Abbots Langley;

To manufacture and supply gas and to convert, manufacture, sell, and dispose of coke, coal, tar, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, sulphate of ammonia, muriate of ammonia, chemicals, oils, and all other products, refuse or residuum arising, remaining, produced by, or obtained from the manufacture of gas or the materials used therein, and to manufacture and sell such articles as can be produced from or by means of the several matters and things aforesaid, and to contract for, take, and use any leave, licence or authority to work, use, exercise or put in practice, any invention or inventions, under any letters patent, at any time heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, granting any right or privilege of working, using, exercising or vending any invention in relation to the manufacture and distribution of gas, or the utilization of the residual products arising from the manufacture of gas, or otherwise in relation thereto, and to sell, let, or deal in and fit, and put up gas fittings, tubes, meters, pipes, and all other articles and things in any way connected with gas works or with the supply of gas, and generally to carry on the business usually carried on by Gas Companies, including anything which is or may become incident thereto, and to maintain, alter, or renew any existing mains and pipes within the limits to be supplied with gas, and to lay down and place mains and pipes in, along, through, over, and under, and for those purposes, to open, break up, and cross, alter, and divert, any streets, roads, highways, lanes, footways, bridges, squares, open grounds, railways, canals, tramways, sewers, drains, mill-streams, watercourses, passages, and other places within the limits of supply;

To manufacture, purchase, or hire gas meters, fittings or other gas apparatus, and to sell or let the same;

To enter into and carry in effect contracts and arrangements for the supply of gas with any Corporation, Rural Sanitary Authority, Local Board of Health, or Local Board or the trustees of any turnpike or other road or any highway board constituted in pursuance of any Act relating to highways in England, or any surveyors of any highway, or any other corporations, bodies or persons, and to vary, suspend or rescind any such contract or arrangement, or to enter into and carry into effect other contracts or arrangements in lieu thereof, or in addition thereto, and the Bill will confer all necessary powers in that behalf upon all such boards, trustees, Corporations, bodies and persons, and will enable them to apply for the purposes of any such contract or arrangement any funds which they have raised or may raise under any Act of Parliament;

To demand, take, and recover rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas, and the sale and hire of gas meters and fittings, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such rates, rents, and charges, and to confer other rights and privileges;

To purchase by agreement and to hold lands and houses, and to take the same by agreement on lease;

To sell or lease any lands or property purchased by them and not required for the purposes of the Company, and also to sell all or some part or parts of the works, lands, and property of the dissolved Companies or either of them;

The Bill will authorise the Company to purchase and acquire the undertakings of the Kings Langley Gas Company (Limited), and the Hunton Bridge and Abbots Langley Gas Company (Limited), or either of those undertakings, and empower those Companies to sell to the Company, and will authorise the Company, either to discontinue and dispose of the gas works, buildings, mains, pipes, property, and plant of the said Companies, or to continue the same upon the lands next hereinafter described, and the Bill will provide for the distribution of the purchase money, and the winding-up of the said Companies; the lands last before referred to, are the following:—

(a.) Land belonging or reputed to belong to and occupied by the Kings Langley Gas and Coke Company (Limited), for the purposes of their gas works, situate in Church-lane, in the parish of Kings Langley in the county of Hertford, measuring about 23 perches, bounded on the north by Church-lane, on the south, on the west, and on the east by lands belonging or reputed to belong to the Right Honorable the Earl of Essex;

(b.) Land belonging or reputed to belong to the Hunton Bridge and Abbots Langley Gas and Coke Company, (Limited), and occupied by them for the purposes of their Gas Works situate at Hunton Bridge in the parish of Abbots Langley in the county of Hertford, measuring about 35 perches, bounded on the north by a meadow belonging or reputed to belong to the Right Honorable the Earl of Essex, on the west by premises and gardens belonging or reputed to belong to the said Earl, on the east by the London and North Western Railway, and on the south by a yard and premises belonging or reputed to belong to the said Earl.

And the Bill will or may incorporate with itself "The Gas Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871," "The Companies Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860 and 1869," or some parts of those respective Acts, and will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges.

[Duplicate plans describing the lands to be taken under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, and a copy of this notice will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Hertford, at his office at St. Albans; and a copy of such plans, book of reference and Gazette Notice, will on or before the same day be deposited with the parish clerk of Hemel Hempsted at his residence.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Board of Trade.—Session 1878.

New Tredegar Gas and Water.

(Application to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order under "The Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870;" Maintenance of Existing Gas and Water Works; Manufacture and Storage of Gas and Residual Products; Supply of Gas and Water within Prescribed Limits; Levying of Rates and Charges; Opening of Streets; Increase of Capital; Incorporation of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made by the New Tredegar Gas and Water Company, Limited (hereinafter called "the Company"), to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order, under "The Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870," for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

To confirm any purchase, lease, or agreement which may have been made by or on behalf of the Company in respect of any lands now occupied by them, and to vest or provide for the same being vested in the Company, or to authorise the purchase or lease by the Company of the following lands, that is to say:—

1. A piece or parcel of land near the Tir Phil Railway Station, in the parish of Gellygaer, in the county of Glamorgan, occupied by the gas works, buildings, and apparatus connected with the supply of gas, by the Company, bounded on all sides by rough pasture land belonging to Edward Rhys Wingfield, Esquire.

2. A piece or parcel of land, being part of Senghenith-common, situate in the parish of Gellygaer aforesaid, occupied by the reservoirs and other works connected with the supply of water by the Company, bounded on all sides by rough pasture land belonging to the Marquess of Bute.

To maintain and continue, and from time to time to enlarge, alter, extend, repair, renew and use the gas works, and apparatus connected with the supply of gas, upon the lands first hereinbefore described, with all necessary buildings, gasholders, receivers, purifiers, retorts, meters, apparatus, works, and conveniences, and to manufacture and store gas, and to convert or manufacture the products resulting from the manufacture of gas thereon.

To maintain and continue, and from time to time to enlarge, alter, extend, repair, renew, and use the reservoirs, filter beds, conduits, cuts, drains, weirs, sluices, and other works connected with the supply of water upon the lands secondly hereinbefore described.

To authorise the Company to supply gas and water to such parts of the Rhymney Valley within the parishes of Bedwelty, in the county of Monmouth, and Gellygaer, in the county of Glamorgan, as are situate within half mile to the east or west and $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles to the north or south of the aforesaid gas works; and to levy rates, rents, and charges for the same, and to exercise all such powers, rights and privileges as are usually conferred on Gas and Water Companies.

To authorise the Company, from time to time, for the purpose of laying down, repairing, and maintaining any mains, pipes, culverts, and other works connected with the said supply of gas and water, to open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets, roads, railways, highways, lanes, bridges, and other public and private passages and places in the said parishes of Gellygaer and Bedwelty, and also to remove and alter any sewers, drains, and pipes, telegraph wires and posts, in, over, or under the same, as may be necessary to enable the Company to carry on the business usually carried on by Gas and Water Companies.

To authorise the Company to acquire by agreement, and to hold lands and property for the purposes of their undertaking, and to take, divert, collect, and impound any springs and streams of water flowing from Senghenith Common into the River Rhymney, and also all springs and waters found in, upon, or under any land acquired, or to be acquired, or held by the Company.

To authorise the Company to make and carry into effect contracts and agreements with all Corporations, Local Boards, Public Bodies, Commissioners, Companies, and other legal authorities, and all persons whomsoever, for the supply of gas and water upon such terms and conditions as they shall respectively think fit.

To authorise the Company to manufacture, purchase, or hire gas or water meters, and gas and water supply service taps and apparatus, and to sell or let the same, and to levy rates, rents, and charges therefor; to alter existing rates or rents, to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates and rents; to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges, and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers and authorities for the purposes of the intended Order.

To define and regulate the existing capital of the Company, and to authorise the Company to raise additional capital by the creation of new ordinary and preferential shares or stock, and to borrow money on mortgage, bond, debentures, or debenture stock, and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in the Order.

To incorporate with the intended Provisional Order the provisions or some of the provisions of "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847;" "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871;" "The Water Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863;" "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1833;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869."

On or before the 30th day of November inst. a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, and a map showing the lands to be used for the manufacture and storage of gas and residual products arising from the manufacture of gas, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Monmouth, at his office at Newport, in that county, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Glamorgan, at his office at Cardiff, in that county, and also at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

On and after the 23rd day of December next printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade; and on and after that date copies will be furnished to all persons applying for the same, at the price of one shilling each, at the office of Messrs. Wyatt, Hoskins, and Hooker, 23, Parliament-street, Westminster.

When the Provisional Order has been granted by the Board of Trade, printed copies thereof will be deposited for public inspection at the before-mentioned offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the respective counties of Monmouth and Glamorgan, and will be supplied to all persons applying for the same at the office of Messrs. Wyatt, Hoskins, and Hooker aforesaid, on payment of one shilling each.

All persons desirous of making any representations to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the intended application, may do so by letter, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15th of January, 1878, and at the same time delivering a copy of their objection or objections at the office of Messrs. Wyatt, Hoskins, and Hooker aforesaid.

Dated this 5th day of November, 1877.

Lewes Gas.

(Dissolution and Re-incorporation of the Lewes Gas Light Company; power to continue Gas Works; to supply Gas in Lewes and adjoining Parishes; to raise further Capital; to levy Rates, Rents, and Charges and other Powers.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following purposes:—

1. To dissolve the Lewes Gas Light Company (hereinafter called "the Dissolved Company"), and to annul and cancel the Deed of Settlement of the 10th September, 1822, and the Deed of the 25th January, 1845, altering such Deed and any Special Resolutions passed by the said Company, and under which they are now acting.

2. To re-incorporate the shareholders of the Dissolved Company or to incorporate the shareholders therein together with such other persons and corporations as may become shareholders in the undertaking into a new Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers and authorities for the supply of gas within the town and borough of Lewes, and the several parishes and precincts and places hereinafter mentioned, namely, the parish of Saint Peter and Saint Mary Westout, otherwise Saint Ann, Saint Michael, Saint John-under-the-Castle, and All Saints, Precincts of the Castle of Lewes, and the parishes of Saint Thomas-a-Becket, Cliffe, near Lewes, South Malling, and Saint John the Baptist, Southover, Beddingham, West Firle, Glynde, Ringmer, Hamsey, Barcombe, and Kingston, all in the county of Sussex, or any part of those places.

3. To make any provisions in reference to the capital and shares of the Dissolved Company which may be necessary or expedient, and to provide for the vesting and apportionment of such shares or of new shares or stock instead thereof in and among the shareholders of the Company, and to enable the Company to raise further capital by shares, stock, borrowing on mortgage and debenture stock, and to attach to such shares or stock or any part thereof a preference or priority of dividend and other advantages.

4. To vest in the Company all lands and all gas works, erections, buildings, rights, easements, and other property, powers and authorities now vested in or belonging to or occupied, or enjoyed by the dissolved Company, or held in trust for them, and all mains, pipes, retorts, plant, apparatus, stock, and effects laid down or provided by, and all other property and things of whatever nature belonging to the dissolved Company; together with the benefit of all contracts and engagements entered into by, or on behalf of that Company, and to empower the Company to hold such lands and other property.

5. To authorise the Company to manufacture and store gas, and the several matters or things producible from the residual substances arising or resulting from the manufacture of gas, and to sell and dispose of gas, coke, coal tar, and other residual and manufactured products, matters, and things. Also, to acquire and hold patent rights, and licences to use and exercise patent rights, and carry on the business usually carried on by gas Companies, or which is or may become incident thereto; to erect, provide, maintain, alter, enlarge, or discontinue gas works, retorts, and apparatus, and to lay down and maintain mains and pipes in, through, across, along, or under railways, streets, roads, lanes, rivers, canals, waters, bridges, and other passages and places within the limits of supply, and to break up, and interfere with streets, roads, lanes, bridges, and other passages and places, and also with any sewers, drains, and pipes in, over or under the same.

6. To empower the Company to manufacture, purchase or hire gas meters and fittings and other gas apparatus, and to sell or let the same, and to levy and collect rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas and gas meters and fittings and other gas apparatus, and any rents or sums of money which at the date of the passing of the intended Act may be due to the dissolved Company, and if need be to alter existing rates, rents, and charges.

7. To authorise the Company to purchase and hold lands, and to sell and dispose of lands.

8. The lands to be held and used for the manufacture and storage of gas, and the manufacture and sale of residual products, are the lands now belonging to the Company in or near Foundry-lane and the Lower Timber Yard, both in the parish of St. Thomas-à-Becket, Cliffe, near Lewes, which are bounded as follows:—

The lands in Foundry-lane are bounded on the north-west by a warehouse and malthouse, belonging to Edward Monk; on the north partly by a malt kiln belonging to the said Edward Monk, partly by Foundry-lane, and partly by a workshop and lands belonging to Ebenezer Morris; on the north-east by a summer house and lands belonging to the said Ebenezer Morris; and on the south-west by the river Ouse.

The land in the lower timber yard is bounded on the south-west by the river Ouse; on the north-east and east by the upper timber yard, belonging to Messrs. Parsons Brothers; and on the north-west by a coal shed and other property belonging to Messrs. Newington, Lucas, and Kemp.

9. The Bill will, or may, incorporate with itself and apply to the Company with or without modification, the provisions, or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869; the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847; and the Gas Works Clauses Act 1871; and it will confer upon the Company all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill; and it will vary and extinguish all such existing rights and privileges as may interfere with the attainment of any of the objects aforesaid, and it will, or may so far as necessary for the purposes aforesaid, alter or amend an Act of 9 George IV, cap. 25, for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, regulating, and improving the vill and parish of the Cliffe, near Lewes, in the county of Sussex, and an Act of 46 George III, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, repairing, and improving the roads, streets, lanes, and other public passages and places within the borough of Lewes, in the county of Sussex, and for other purposes, and of any other local Act relating to the said places or either of them.

10. Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 7th day of November, 1877.

Hartlepool Gas and Water.

(Alteration, Amendment or Repeal, and Consolidation of all or some of the Provisions of "The Hartlepool Gas and Water Act, 1867," and "The Hartlepool Gas and Water Act, 1867, Amendment Act, 1874;" Dissolution and Reincorporation of Company; Additional Borrowing Powers in respect of the Company's present Authorized Capital; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers in Connection therewith; Purchase of Lands by Agreement; Provisions as to Supply of Light otherwise than by means of Gas; Provisions as to Use of Patent Rights, and for Stopping up Footpath; Incorporation of Acts and other Purposes.)

for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following, among other purposes, that is to say:—

To alter, extend, enlarge, amend, consolidate, and so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, to repeal and re-enact all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Hartlepool Gas and Water Act, 1867," and "The Hartlepool Gas and Water Act, 1867, Amendment Act, 1874," or either of them, with such variations, modifications, exceptions, or additions as may be deemed expedient, and to dissolve, reincorporate, and continue the Company under their present or any other name, and to revive and confer upon them all the rights, powers, privileges, and authorities originally conferred upon them by the Acts of Parliament above referred to, and to confer upon them the new and further powers hereinafter mentioned.

To confer upon the Company, in addition to their present borrowing powers, further borrowing powers in respect to their present authorized capital.

To authorize the Company to raise further money by the creation and issue of new shares and stock of the Company, and by borrowing on mortgage, or bond, or otherwise, or by any of those means, and to attach (if the Company think fit) to such shares or stock, or any part thereof, a preference or priority of dividend over the existing or ordinary shares of the Company, or other special privileges, to create and issue debenture stock, and to make provision for the classification, division, and regulation of the Company's existing share and loan capital.

To acquire lands by agreement for the general purposes of the Company other than the manufacture of gas or residual products.

To make provisions enabling the Company to supply to the public lights within their district, and to private consumers, for the convenience and advantage of the public, light produced by electricity or by any means other than the burning of gas, and for that purpose to utilize all or any of their present works, plant, machinery, mains, pipes, and apparatus, so far as the same may be applicable to any such purpose, and to exercise with respect to such supply all their existing statutory and other rights and powers, and such other rights and powers as may be conferred upon them by the Bill.

To authorize the Company to purchase, take, hold, and use patent rights or licences, or authorities under letters patent for the use of inventions relative to the manufacture, conversion, utilization, or distribution of gas or inflammable air, or relative to the manufacture, utilization, or distribution of any other kind of illuminating agent, whether by electricity or otherwise.

To enable the Company to extinguish all rights of way over, and to stop up and discontinue so much of the following footpath, that is to say:—A track or footway, in the parish of Monkhesleden, leading out of the public highway between Hartlepool and Trimdon, commencing at or near the ford crossing Hurworth Burn, and proceeding thence in a north-easterly direction across the Hurworth Reservoir and works of the Company, and across Pike Whin Moor towards South Wingate, or Hartbushes, to another footpath crossing a corner of the said moor at the north side thereof.

The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871," "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1863," "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," and the

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of Dividend Meeting.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the Bankrupt hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, before Philip Henry Pepsy, Esq., a Registrar:

Adolphus Frederick Bell, of No. 3, Charlwood-road, Putney, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, one of Her Majesty's Messengers on Home Service, adjudicated bankrupt on the 8th day of December, 1862. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 5th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignee will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupt. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of a petition for an adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 7th day of June, 1860, by William McHaffie the younger, of No. 10, Austin-friars, in the city of London, Merchant, Trader, Dealer and Chapman, will sit on the 11th day of December, 1877 (and not on the 27th day of November, 1877, as previously advertized), at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the London Bankruptcy Court, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in order to make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

JAMES MOTTERAM, Esq., Q.C., one of Her Majesty's Commissioners, authorized to act under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 14th day of February, 1852, against William Haden Richardson, Benjamin Richardson, and Jonathan Richardson, carrying on business at Wordsley, in the county of Stafford, and at 75, Lamb's Conduit-street, in the county of Middlesex, as Glass Manufacturers and Dealers in Glass and Copartners, will sit on the 3rd day of December, 1877, at the County Court of Warwickshire, holden at Birmingham, at three o'clock in the afternoon, in order to audit the accounts of the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts.

JAMES MOTTERAM, Esq., Q.C., one of Her Majesty's Commissioners, authorized to act under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 14th day of February, 1852, against William Haden Richardson, Benjamin Richardson, and Jonathan Richardson, carrying on business at Wordsley, in the county of Stafford, and at 75, Lamb's Conduit-street, in the county of Middlesex, as Glass Manufacturers and Dealers in Glass and Copartners, will sit on the 3rd day of December, 1877, at the County Court of Warwickshire, holden at Birmingham, at three o'clock in the afternoon, in order to make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.
