Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1877.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day, the Honourable Alfred Henry Thesiger was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Sir Montague Edward Smith to be a Member of "The Universities Committee of the Privy Council," in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section I. of "The Trade Marks Registration Extension Act, 1877," 40 and 41 Victoria, cap. 37, it is enacted that "In so far as relates to the registration of trade marks used in the textile industries, but not further or otherwise, section one of the Trade Marks Registration Amendment Act, 1876, shall be construed as if for the words 'from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven,' there were substituted the words 'from and after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, or such further time as Her Majesty may by Order in Council determine.'"

And whereas it is deemed expedient that the time for the registration of trade marks used in the textile industries should be extended beyond the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased in accordance with the above recited enactment to prolong, till the 30th of June 1878, the time for the registration of trade marks used in the textile industries.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Brandon, in the parish of Brancepeth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Brandon aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Brancepeth which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Brandon as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Brandon.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Brancepeth in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north partly by the parish or district of Esh and partly by the parish of Saint Oswald Durham both in the county and diocese aforesaid on the east by the last-named parish on the south-east and on the south partly by the new parish of Croxdale and partly by the parish of Tudhoe both in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say, on the south-west and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Tudhoe from the parish of Brancepeth aforesaid at the point where the River Wear is joined by the stream called or known as Nafferton Gill and where the boundary which divides the township of Tudhoe from the township of Brandon and Byshottles meets the boundary dividing the last named township from the township of Brancepeth and extending thence for a distance of about four and a quarter miles alternately north-westward and westward along the last-mentioned township boundary to the point on the northern side of Pithouse Plantation at Tallyho-Gate on the southern side of Pithouse-lane where the same township boundary diverges to the south from the said lane and extending thence first northward to and then westward for a distance of fourteen and a half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the same lane to its junction at or near to the north-western corner of the said Pithouse Plantation with the bridle road leading to Esh Colliery and extending thence north-westward, for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said bridle road to a point at the junction of the same bridle road with the tract of the Old Roman-road called or known as Watling-street at or near to which point of junction a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. J. D. C. 1877, No. 1' has been placed and extending thence northward for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts along the middle of the track of the said old road (thereby crossing the close numbered 207 upon the title commutation map of the said township of Brandon and Byshottles and upon the map hereunto annexed) to the the southern end of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 208 and 220 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 209 and 219 upon the same maps, and continuing thence still northward along the said fence to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. J. D. C. 1877, No. 2' and placed at the northern end of the said fence on the southern side of the bridle road leading from Hill House to Flass Hall and extending thence for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts first northward and then westward to and along the middle of the last-described bridle road thereby passing through Ragpath Wood to the boundary at or near to the River Deerness which boundary divides the said parish of Brancepeth from the parish or district of Esh aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven in the words following, that is to say,

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew situate in the township of Livesey, within the new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles sometime part of the parish of Blackburn in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles, and of the new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes, also sometime part of the parish of Blackburn aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective new parishes.

And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles, and of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew situate in the township of Livesey as aforesaid.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, as such bishop and with the consent of the Venerable Edward Birch, Archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Blackburn and vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Blackburn the patron (in right of his incumbency of such vicarage) both of the vicarage of the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles and also of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Immanuel, Feniscowles, and of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Tockholes, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew, situate in the township of Livesey as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew Livesey.'

'We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew Livesey being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles sometime part of the parish of Blackburn in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes likewise sometime part of the parish of Blackburn aforesaid which said portions of such new parishes are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Mark Witton also sometime part of the parish of Blackburn aforesaid from the new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles aforesaid at a point in the middle of the Blackburn and Walton Cop Trust-road, a little to the south-west of Finiscliffe Bridge and extending thence south-westward for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said Trust-road to its junction with Green-lane near the mile stone indicating a distance of nine miles from Preston and of one mile and three quarters to Blackburn and extending thence, that is, from the said point of junction for a distance of forty-four chains or thereabouts first southward then south-eastward and then again southward along the middle of the same lane thereby crossing the line of the Blackburn and Preston Branch of the East Lancashire Railway, and crossing also the Leeds and Liverpool Canal to the point at the house called or known as Cleggs where the same lane joins the Livesey Branch-road and Gib-lane and continuing thence southward for a distance of forty-four chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named lane to the boundary at the junction of the same lane with the old highway leading from Preston to Darwen, which boundary divides the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles from the new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes aforesaid and extending thence eastward for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts along the last-mentioned boundary thereby following the middle of the said old highway to the point near Peak Brow where the same boundary diverges from the same old highway in a north-westerly direction and continuing thence for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts first eastward and then southward still following the middle of the said old highway to a point at the junction of the same old highway with Meadow Head-lane, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes from the district of Saint Cuthbert Darwen, also sometime part of the parish of Blackburn aforesaid and extending thence first north-eastward then south-eastward and then northward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction in the River Darwen with the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes from the new parish of Saint James Lower Darwen also sometime part of the parish of Blackburn aforesaid, and extending thence generally north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary and along the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Stephen Tockholes from the new parish of Christ Church Blackburn also some time part of the parish of Blackburn aforesaid thereby following the course of the River Darwen aforesaid to the point where the last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles from the new parish of Christ Church Blackburn aforesaid, and continuing thence still north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary and along the boundary dividing the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles from the new parish of All Saints Nova Scotia Blackburn and from the new parish of Saint Peter Blackburn both some time part of the parish of Blackburn aforesaid, thereby continuing to follow generally the course of the River Darwen aforesaid to the point where the boundary dividing the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles from the new parish of Saint Peter Blackburn aforesaid joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Immanuel Feniscowles from the new parish of Saint Mark Witton aforesaid and extending thence generally westward along the last-mentioned boundary to the first described point in the middle of the said Blackburn and Walton Cop Trust-road, a little to the south-west of Finiscliffe Bridge as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen the Martyr situate at Moulton in the parish of Davenham in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen the Martyr situate at Moulton as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those portions of the said parish of Davenham which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Stephen the Martyr situate at Moulton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen the Martyr, Moulton.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Stephen the Martyr Moulton being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Davenham in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the main portion of the township of Moulton, exclusive, that is, of that detached portion of the said township which is situate on the southern side of Brick Kiln-lane.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the same parish which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of that part of the township of Bostock which consists of the one triangular field, which is bounded on the north by the township of Davenham in the said parish of Davenham on the south-west by the main portion of the township of Moulton aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say on the south-east by Jack-lane: the exact boundary on this side being an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said main portion of the township of Moulton from the township of Bostock aforesaid at the point where Jack-lane is joined by the road leading to Moulton Church and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of one hundred and forty-four yards or thereabouts along the middle of Jack-lane aforesaid to the boundary which divides the said township of Bostock from the township of Davenham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of

Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the Parish of Charlton-by-Dover in the County of Kent and in the Diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said Parish of Charlton-by-Dover which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate District in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any Consecrated Church or Chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said Parish of Charlton-by-Dover have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts or of some of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act to the incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as an incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors a grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum and also so soon as a Church shall have been erected within and for such district and shall have been approved by us and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, to make to the incumbent of the said new parish and his successors a further grant from the said fund of fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the said proposed district.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds has been so paid to us as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto or (as the case may be of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter become should be assigned in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and most Reverend Archibald Campbell Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Charlton-by-Dover which is mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Bartholomew Charlton-by-Dover.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, or (as the case may be) of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter become shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Warden Council and scholars of Keble College in the University of Oxford and their successors and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Bartholomew Charlton-by-Dover, being

"All that part of the parish of Charlton by Dover in the County of Kent and in the Diocese of Canterbury which is bounded on the north and on the north-west by the parish of Buckland in the said county and diocese, and on the south partly by the Parish of Hougham partly by the new Parish of Christ Church Hougham in Dover and partly by the Parish or Parochial Chapelry of Saint Mary the Virgin Dover all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say on the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish or parochial chapelry from the Parish of Charlton-by-Dover aforesaid at a point in the middle of the High-street in the Town of Dover opposite to the north-eastern end of the roadway called or known as Trafalgar-place, and extending thence north-westward for a distance of three hundred and fifty-seven yards or thereabouts along the middle of the said High-street to its junction with Tower Hamlets-road with Bridge-street and with the London-road and continuing thence still north-westward for a distance of two hundred and thirty-eight yards or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary which divides the said Parish of Charlton-by-Dover from the Parish of Buckland aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the rectory of the said Parish of Charlton-by-Dover out of which parish it is intended that the district recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the eight day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new Parish of Bierley out of the new Parish of Whitechapel out of the new Parish of Wike out of the new Parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth and out of the Parochial Chapelry of Wibsey, all which said cures are situate in the County of York and in the Diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new Parish of Bierley, of the said new Parish of Whitechapel of the said new Parish of Wike, of the said new Parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth and of the said Parochial Chapelry of Wibsey which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds four pounds per centum Debenture Stock of the Caledonian Railway Company has been transferred into our name in the books of the same Company to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district and the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act.

"And whereas the said sum of Debenture Stock of the Caledonian Railway Company has been so provided as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district when duly licensed as aforesaid a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our Common Seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert Bishop of the said Diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new Parish of Bierley of the said new Parish of Whitechapel of the said new Parish of Wike of the said new Parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth and of the said Parochial Chapelry of Wibsey which are described in the Schedule hereunder written (all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed) shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Oakenshaw-cum-Woodlands.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Robert Bishop of the said Diocese of Ripon and by his successors Bishops of the same Diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or any other Act of Parliament."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

The District of Oakenshaw-cum-Woodlands, being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the new Parish of Bierley of the new Parish of Whitechapel of the new Parish of Wike of the new Parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth and of the Parochial Chapelry of Wibsey all in the County of York and in the diocese of Ripon which said several portions of such cures are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new Parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth from the new Parish of Whitechapel aforesaid at the point a little to the south of Hunsworth mill where Hunsworth Beck is joined by Stubs Beck and extending thence generally westward for a distance of one mile or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named beck to the point where it is crossed by the boundary which divides the said new Parish of Whitechapel from the new Parish of Wike aforesaid and continuing thence still generally westward for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts along the last-mentioned boundary thereby passing along the southern side of the said Stubs Beck to a point in the middle of the southern end of the foot bridge which carries the footpath leading from Well-lane to the Homestead called or known as Lower Cow Close over the same Beck and extending thence that is from the said boundary northward for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said footpath to its junction at the said Homestead with Cow Close-lane and with the footpath which leads through the same Homestead past the western side of the house and premises called or known as Woods Farm House into Wike-lane and extending thence generally northward for a distance of about half-a-mile along the middle of the last described footpath to its junction with Wike-lane aforesaid and extending thence that is from the said point of junction north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts (thereby passing to the south-west of the house called or known as Wood Royd) to a point at the south-eastern corner of the reservoir of the new Biggin Iron Works upon the boundary which divides the said new Parish of Wike from the new Parish of Saint Mark Low Moor in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence eastward for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction at Low Moor Beck on the western side of the line of the Cleckheaton branch of the West Riding Union Railway with the boundary which divides the said new Parish of Wike from the Parochial Chapelry of Wibsey aforesaid and continuing thence still eastward for a distance of two chains or thereabouts along the last-mentioned boundary to a point in the middle of the last-mentioned branch line of railway and extending thence generally northward for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts along the middle of the same branch line of railway to its junction at the Low Moor Railway Station with the line of the Bradford and Halifax branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named branch line of railway to the point where it is crossed by the footpath leading from Park House into Merrydale-road and extending thence generally north-eastward for a distance of fifteen and a-half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last described footpath (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said Parochial Chapelry of Wibsey from the new Parish of Bierly aforesaid) to the point where the same footpath joins the south-western end of Merrydale-road aforesaid and continuing thence still north-eastward for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Rockhill-lane and continuing thence still north-eastward for a distance of two chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction on the northern side of the house called or known as Tan House with the cross road leading into Back-lane and extending thence that is from the said Rockhill-lane south-eastward for a distance of six chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said cross road to its junction at Brogden House with Back-lane aforesaid and extending thence northward for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction on the northern side of the house called or known as Hardy's Farm House with the footpath leading over Tom Royd Bridge into Cliff Hollin's-lane and extending thence for a distance of forty-four chains or thereabouts first south-eastward then north-eastward and then again south-eastward along the middle of the last described footpath (thereby crossing at Tom Royd Bridge aforesaid the boundary which divides the said new Parish of Bierly from the new Parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth aforesaid) to the point where the same footpath joins Cliff Hollin's-lane aforesaid and extending thence generally south-westward for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the footpath leading through the wood called or known as Cockleshaw Range into Hunsworth-lane and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described footpath to the centre of the foot bridge in Cockleshaw Range aforesaid which carries the same footpath over Cockleshaw Beck and extending thence generally south-westward for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named Beck to a point at the junction of the same Beck with Hunsworth Beck aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said new Parish of Birkenshaw-cum-Hunsworth from the new Parish of Whitechapel aforesaid and extending thence generally southward for a distance of three-quarters of a mile or thereabouts along the last-mentioned boundary thereby following the course of the said Hunsworth Beck to the first-described point a little to the south of Hunsworth mill aforesaid where the said Hunsworth Beck is joined by Stubs Beck as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the several cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such Scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ripon.

C. L. Pest.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-ground or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued, subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that, from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the under-mentioned parish with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-third day of October last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the eighth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the above-recited Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the under-mentioned parish shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz. :—

WYCLIFFE CHAPELYARD, STEPNEY.—Forthwith in the chapelyard, except in vaults, each coffin buried in which shall be enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in family graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

MUCH HADHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Albury Petty Sessional Division of the county of Hertford, that a Fair has been annually held on the 24th day of June, in the village and parish of Much Hadham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been held annually on the 24th day of June, in the village and parish of Much Hadham, in the Albury Petty Sessional Division of the county of Hertford, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 15th day of December, 1877.

Richard Assheton Cross.
