

of Haslingden from the new parish of Christ Church Accrington aforesaid at a point in the Old Warmden Sandstone Quarry in the middle of the stream which flows through Warmden Clough to the Oak Print Works and extending thence westward for a distance of fifty-three chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said stream to its junction with the Warmden Clough Reservoir of the said Oak Print Works and continuing thence still westward along the southern bank of the said reservoir for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the point at the south-western corner thereof where the same stream issues from the said reservoir and extending thence south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby passing close by the south-eastern side of the house and buildings called or known as Laund, and crossing the foot road leading from the said Oak Print Works to Higher Laund and also crossing Manchester-road, the points at which the said two lastly mentioned roads are crossed being indicated by boundary stones inscribed respectively 'B. St. J. D. C. 1877, No. 1' and 'B. St. J. D. C. 1877, No. 2' and placed on the north-eastern sides of such roads respectively) to the point at or near to Lane-ends where Hollins-lane is joined by the occupation road leading to Laund House and continuing thence still south-westward for a distance of two and a half-chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said Hollins-lane to the point where it bends sharply to the south-east, such point being opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. J. D. C. 1877, No. 3' and placed on the south-western side of the same lane, and continuing thence that is from the last-mentioned point in the middle of the same lane, to the last-mentioned boundary stone, and extending thence still south-westward but in a more southerly direction, and in a straight line for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the mile post situate on the southern side of the line of the East Lancashire Railway and indicating a distance of twenty-one miles from Manchester, and continuing thence that is from the said mile post in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a further distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the stream called or known as Wood Nook Water which boundary divides the said new parish of Christ Church Accrington from the new parish of Saint James, Accrington aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Saint Albans in the county of Herts now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the twelfth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty made or expressed to be made between William Pennell therein described the official assignee and John Purrott therein described and William Langley therein described the creditors' assignees of the estate and effects of John Samuel Story therein described a bankrupt of the first part the said John Samuel Story of the second part Maria Hodge therein described of the third part Gordon Calthrop therein described of the fourth part and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fifth part the messuage or tenement lands and hereditaments described in the schedule hereto annexed with their appurtenances became (inter alia) and are now vested in us.

And whereas the said messuage or tenement lands and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in our possession but some portions thereof on account of their character and situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said messuage or tenement lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such messuage or tenement lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign all or any of the said messuage or tenement lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in