“ As witness our hand this twenty-first day of December in the year of Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

“ A. C. Cantuar.”

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and doth hereby order that the said united benefice consisting of the vicarage of North Wheatley and the rectory of Saundby shall be disunited by separating the said rectory of Saundby from the said vicarage of North Wheatley.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and doth hereby order that all and singular the tithe rent-charges and other payments or compositions in lieu of tithes and all the glebe lands and other endowments and emoluments belonging or reputed to belong to the said vicarage of North Wheatley and also all such surplice fees, Easter offerings and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within or in respect of the said vicarage and parish of North Wheatley shall continue to belong to the said vicarage and the vicar thereof. And also that there be assigned and attached to the said vicarage of North Wheatley the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said united benefice of North Wheatley with Saundby and situate at North Wheatley aforesaid. And also that the yearly rent-charges in lieu of tithes belonging to the rectory of Saundby amounting together to sum of three hundred and twenty-six pounds six shillings and one penny and consisting partly of rent-charges arising from lands in the said parish of Saundby and partly of rent-charges arising from lands in the parish of North Wheatley shall be divided and apportioned so that there be assigned and attached to the said vicarage of North Wheatley the rent-charges amounting to the sum of one hundred and fifty-one pounds three shillings and eleven pence specified in the first schedule hereto, and also the rent-charges amounting to the sum of four pounds six shillings and three pence specified in the second schedule hereto (which sums of one hundred and fifty-one pounds three shillings and eleven pence and four pounds six shillings and three pence make together the sum of one hundred and fifty-five pounds ten shillings and two pence) and arising partly from lands in the said parish of North Wheatley and partly from lands in the parish of Saundby, and that the remainder of the said tithe rent-charges belonging to the said rectory of Saundby amounting to the sum of one hundred and seventy pounds fifteen shillings and eleven pence and all other (if any) tithe rent-charges, glebe lands endowments and emoluments belonging or reputed to belong to the said rectory of Saundby other than those so assigned and attached to the said vicarage of North Wheatley as aforesaid, and also all such surplice fees Easter offerings and other emoluments usually payable to the incumbent of a parish or benefice as shall arise within or in respect of the rectory and parish of Saundby aforesaid shall continue to belong to the said rectory of Saundby and the rector thereof. And also that no apportionment shall be made of the sum of fourteen pounds eight shillings and sixpence halfpenny for first fruits and the sum of one pound eight shillings and ten pence farthing for tenths with which the said rectory of Saundby is now charged.

The FIRST SCHEDULE hereinbefore referred to :—

All those tithe rent-charges comprised in the second schedule to a certain order of exchange relating to the parishes of Saundby and North Wheatley dated the 22nd day of March, 1877, that is to say :—

Improprate tithe rent-charge amounting to the sum of one hundred and fifty-one pounds three shillings and eleven pence chargeable on the lands hereunder specified.
