THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

LINTON FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Linton Petty Sessional Division of the county of Cambridge, that a Fair has been annually held on the 20th, 21st, and 22nd days of July, in the parish of Linton, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871 :"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Pembroke College, Cambridge, as lords or owners of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, have consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished :

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 20th, 21st, and 22nd days of July, in the parish of Linton, in the Linton Petty Sessional Division of the county of Cambridge shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this
