FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1878.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February, 8, 1878.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 28th of February, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the name be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under the circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 12, 1878.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 11th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations should be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

RAINHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Brentwood Petty Sessional Division of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the Saturday in Whitsun week, in the parish of Rainham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof.

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the Saturday in Whitsun week, in the parish of Rainham, in the Brentwood Petty Sessional Division of the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 12th day of February, 1878.

Richard Assheton Cross.

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board. (Metropolis).—Printing and Circulating Weekly Lists of Paupers:—

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions and Separate Parishes named in the Schedule to this Order;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made as hereinafter mentioned, with respect to the publication of Lists of persons receiving out-door relief in the several Unions and Separate Parishes named in the Schedule to this Order:—

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows, with respect to each of such Unions and Separate Parishes:—

ARTICLE 1.—The Guardians may cause Lists to be prepared at such intervals as they may deem expedient, being not oftener than once a week, showing the name and address of each pauper who has during the interval been admitted into the Workhouse or has received out-door relief, whether in money or in kind, and the amount or value of the out-door relief so received in each case, and may cause such Lists, or any parts thereof, to be printed and circulated or distributed in such manner as they may think fit.

ARTICLE 2.—Such Lists shall be prepared by the Relieving Officers under the directions of the Guardians, and shall be certified by the Clerk to the Guardians in such manner as the Guardians may direct.

ARTICLE 3.—The reasonable costs incurred in the printing, circulation, or distribution of the said Lists, or of any parts thereof, shall, in the case of a Union, be charged by the Guardians to the Common Fund.

ARTICLE 4.—The term "Separate Parish" in this Order includes any place which is under a separate Board of Guardians.

*Civil Service Commission,
 February 13, 1878.*

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for not fewer than thirty situations as Out-door Officers in Her Majesty's Customs will be held on Friday, the 26th of April, 1878, in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Liverpool, Bristol, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Hull, Leeds, Portsmouth, Plymouth, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Cork, Belfast, and Limerick, under the Special Regulations, dated 26th April, 1875, and published in the London Gazette of the 30th April, 1875.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 12th of April, an "application" on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from him at once.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Llanrian with the vicarage of Llanreithan annexed, in the county of Pembroke, and in the diocese of Saint Davids, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same united vicarages, one yearly sum or stipend of eighty-three pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the thirteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said united vicarages, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of seven hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Upper Armley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and of a further benefaction, consisting of three thousand four hundred and twenty-eight square yards (or thereabouts) of land, which has been permanently secured to the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Upper Armley, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also, in further consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Upper Armley, one capital sum of eight hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Upper Armley: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a sum of two thousand and one hundred and ten pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Philip, Burwash Weald, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, and in consideration also of two further benefactions consisting of, first, certain pieces or parcels of land, comprising eight acres and one rood (or thereabouts), and, secondly, certain yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting together to one hundred and thirty pounds, and formerly belonging to the rectory and vicarage of Burwash, in the said county and diocese, both of which benefactions have been permanently secured to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Philip, Burwash Weald, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Philip, Burwash Weald, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land, comprising one thousand two hundred and ninety-six square yards (or thereabouts), which has been permanently secured to the district chapelry and benefice of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, Lower Moor, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a sum of six hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same district chapelry and benefice, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said district chapelry and benefice of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, Lower Moor, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of one thousand and five pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said district chapelry and benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said district chapelry and benefice of Saint Stephen and All Martyrs, Lower Moor.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a certain house and premises comprising four hundred and twenty-six square yards (or thereabouts) of land, which have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Arlecdon, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Arlecdon, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction one yearly sum or stipend of twenty-two pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the district chapelry and benefice of Saint Paul, Spennymoor, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said district chapelry and benefice shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the district chapelry of Saint Paul, Spennymoor aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said district chapelry and benefice of Saint Paul, Spennymoor.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a certain freehold house and premises, comprising one acre one rood and thirty-one and a half perches (or thereabouts) of land, which has been permanently secured to the consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Peter, Little Aston, in the counties of Stafford and Warwick, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a sum of one thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same consolidated chapelry and benefice, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Peter, Eittle Aston, and to his successors, to meet the said Benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the benefice of Saint Clement, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one hundred pounds, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging a like amount of the sum payable to the Governors of the bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said benefice, which was effected by a deed bearing date the eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice of Saint Clement, Kensington.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.
