TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1878.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 12, 1878.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 25th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 2, 1878.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 7th, and on Thursday, the 9th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the name be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under the circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 2, 1878.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 17th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations should be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of March, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow out of the parish of Boldon out of the parish or parochial chapelry of Monkwearmouth and out of the parish of Whitburn all in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow and of the said parish of Boldon and of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Monkwearmouth and of the said parish of Whitburn which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts or of some of them and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors a grant of two hundred pounds per annum and also so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district and shall have been approved by us and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly herein mentioned Act to make and pay such further grant from the said fund as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of the said new parish to three hundred pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow and of the said parish of Boldon and of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Monkwearmouth and of the said parish of Whitburn which are mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Hedworth.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Hedworth being:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow of the parish of Boldon of the parish or parochial chapelry of Monkwearmouth and of the parish of Whitburn all in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham wherein the present incumbents of such parishes or parochial chapelries now respectively possess the exclusive cure of souls which said portions of such parishes or parochial chapelries are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Boldon from the parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow aforesaid at a point on the southern side of the turnpike-road leading from Gateshead to Monkwearmouth opposite to the north-eastern end of the houses called or known as 'White Mere Pool' such point being a little to the east of the milestone indicating four miles from Gateshead and seven miles from Monkwearmouth and extending thence that is from the said point first northward to and then eastward along the middle of the said turnpike-road for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction at the bridge (called Poole Bridge) over the line of the North-Eastern Railway with the turnpike-road leading from Gateshead to South Shields which turnpike-road is at this point called or known as Leam-lane and is for the greater part of its course identical with the ancient way known as the Wreken Dike and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned turnpike-road for a distance of nearly two miles to a point at the centre of Primrose Bridge which carries the same turnpike-road over the River Don and extending thence generally northward along the middle of the said river for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow from that detached portion of the parish or parochial chapelry of Monkwearmouth aforesaid in which the buildings called or known as High Simonside are situate and extending thence first generally north-westward and then generally north-eastward along the last-described boundary for a distance of one mile or thereabouts thereby continuing to follow the course of the said River Don to the point where such boundary joins the boundary dividing the said detached portion of the parish or parochial chapelry of Monkwearmouth from the district of Saint Simon South Shields in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence alternately eastward and southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of one mile and a half or thereabouts (thereby crossing the turnpike-road leading from Gateshead to South Shields aforesaid) to a point on the southern side of Green-lane where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said district of Saint Simon South Shields from that detached portion of the said parish of Whitburn which is called or known as Biddick and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary for a distance of about three quarters of a mile to its junction at the road leading from South Shields to East Boldon with the boundary which divides the parish of Harton in the county and diocese aforesaid from the said detached portion of the parish of Whitburn and continuing thence still north-eastward along the last-described boundary for a distance of about one quarter of a mile to the point at or near to the south-eastern corner of the buildings and premises called or known as the Harton and Whitburn Colliery where such boundary joins the boundary dividing the said detached portion of the parish of Whitburn from the parish of Boldon aforesaid and extending thence first south-eastward and then south-westward along the last-described boundary for a distance of about one-half of a mile to a point in the middle of the road leading from South Shields to East Boldon as aforesaid at its junction with the roadway leading to Biddick House and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the said road leading from South Shields to East Boldon as aforesaid for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Boldon from that detached portion of the said parish of Whitburn which is called or known as Newton Garths and extending thence first eastward then southward then westward and finally north-westward along the last-described boundary for a distance of about one mile and a half (thereby crossing the line of the Sunderland Branch of the North-Eastern Railway and also crossing the road leading from South Shields to East Boldon as aforesaid) to a point in the middle of the line of the Newton Garths Branch of the said North-Eastern Railway such point being a little to the west of the bridge which carries the last-named branch line of railway over the River Don aforesaid and extending thence first westward and then south-westward for a distance of fifty-one chains or thereabouts along the last-named branch line of railway to its junction with the line of the Pontop and South Shields Branch of the said North-Eastern Railway and continuing thence still south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned branch line of railway for a further distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses North-lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the occupation-road leading to the house called or known as Coldsides and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said occupation-road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its junction at Coldsides aforesaid with the footpath leading to Hedworth and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Boldon from the parish or parochial chapelry of Jarrow aforesaid and extending thence first south-westward then westward then southward and then again westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of about two miles and one-third of a mile (thereby following in part the course of the turnpike-road leading from Gateshead to Monkwearmouth as aforesaid) to the first-described point on the southern side of the last-mentioned turnpike-road opposite to the north-eastern end of the houses called or known as White Mere Pool as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the several cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 4th day of April, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of

Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Southport, in the parish of North Meols, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate at Southport as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of North Meols which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints, situate at Southport as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Southport.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Southport being:—

"All that part of the parish of North Meols in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Chester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north-west by the boundary of the said parish on the shore of the Irish Sea on the south-west by the new parish of the Holy Trinity Southport within the original limits of the parish of North Meols aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say on the south and on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Southport from the parish of North Meols aforesaid at the point at or near to the Blowick Station on the line of the Wigan and Southport Branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway where the said branch line of railway is crossed by Meols Cop-road and extending thence south-eastward along the northern side of the same branch line of railway for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed 'S. A. S. D. C. 1878 No. 1' and placed on the northern side of the said railway and extending thence north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed 'S. A. S. D. C. 1878 No. 2' and placed on the southern side of Crowland-street at a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts (measured along the last-named street) to the north-east of the junction of the same street with Meols Cop-road aforesaid and continuing thence that is from the last-described boundary-stone still north-westward in precisely the same direction for a distance of thirty-seven chains or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed 'S. A. S. D. C. 1878 No. 3' and placed on the south-eastern side on Bispham-road at a distance of seven chains and a quarter or thereabouts (measured along the last-named road) to the north-east of the junction of the same road with Long-lane and continuing thence that is from the last-described boundary-stone first north-westward to and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of seven chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Long-lane, aforesaid and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Roc-lane and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of eighteen chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the new line of the West Lancashire Railway Company and extending thence northward along the western side of the last-named line of railway for a distance of twelve chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the fence on the northern side of Preston-road which forms the southern boundary of the premises of the Hesketh Park Railway Station and extending thence that is from the last-described point south-westward along the said fence (that is along the northern side of the said Preston-road and along the southern side of the same railway station premises) for a distance of forty-five yards or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed 'S. A. S. D. C. 1878 No. 4' and placed at the south-western extremity of the said fence at a point distant ninety yards, measured in a direct line from the middle of the road called or known as Park-avenue and extending thence for a distance of forty-three chains and a half or thereabouts in curved lines which incline mainly towards the north-west and which are parallel to and distant exactly ninety yards to the east and north of the middle of the curvilinear roads called or known respectively as Park-avenue aforesaid and as Park-crescent to a boundary-stone inscribed 'S. A. S. D. C. 1878 No. 5' and placed at a point at the wall or fence forming the north-eastern boundary of the house and premises called or known as Fernholme and as No. 83 Albert-road such point being distant ninety yards (measured in the line of the said wall or fence) to the north-west of the junction of the said Albert-road with the road called or known as Park-crescent aforesaid and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned boundary-stone north-westward straight in the line of the same wall or fence across the foreshore and across the sands to the boundary of the said parish of North Meols upon the shore of the Irish Sea as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board : Suspending General Order relating to Election of Guardians, so far as regards Expenses :—

West Derby Union.

- To the Guardians of the Poor of the West Derby Union, in the county of Lancaster ;—
- To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the several parishes and places in the said Union ;—
- And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by a General Order, dated the 14th day of February, 1877, and addressed, among others, to the Guardians of the Poor of the West Derby Union, in the county of Lancaster, the Local Government Board prescribed Regulations relating to the election of Guardians of the Poor, and by Articles 32 and 33 of the said Order, provision is made for the remuneration to be paid to the Returning Officer for conducting such Elections ;

And whereas by an Order dated the 24th day of March, 1877, the Local Government Board suspended the provisions contained in those Articles, until the 1st day of March, 1878 ; and it is expedient that such provisions should be further suspended as hereinafter mentioned :

Now, therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby suspend, until the 1st day of March, 1879, or until such other time as we may by Order direct, the provisions contained in Articles 32 and 33 of the above-mentioned General Order, so far as regards the said West Derby Union.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Anglesey Union.—Parish of Amlwch.
To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Amlwch, in the county of Anglesey;
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the parish of Amlwch, in the county of Anglesey, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons;

And whereas at a meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the Scientific Hall, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 6th day of December, 1877, it was resolved,—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to issue an Order under their Seal of Office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict., c. 57), entitled, ‘An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in force within this parish, as regards the erection of a new Vestry Room.”

And whereas the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish have made application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above resolution:

Now, therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,” as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other Meetings, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Amlwch.

ARTICLE II.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Thos. Salt, Secretary.

Poplar Union.—Parish of Bromley Saint Leonard.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Bromley Saint Leonard, in the county of Middlesex;

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS on the application of the Churchwardens of the parish of Bromley Saint Leonard, in the county of Middlesex, made in pursuance of a resolution of the Vestry of the said parish, duly passed on Thursday, the twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the Poor Law Board, by an Order dated the 13th day of January, 1857, ordered, amongst other things, that so much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, cap. 57, as relates to the appointment of a Vestry Clerk, should forthwith be applied to, and be put in force, within the said parish;

And whereas at a Meeting of the said Vestry, held, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 20th day of September, 1877, it was resolved,—

“That the Churchwardens and Overseers be empowered to apply to the Local Government Board for their sanction to purchase the piece of land in the Bow-road, now occupied by Mrs. Bowry’s Almshouses, for the sum of two thousand six hundred pounds (£2,600), for the purpose of building thereon a Vestry Hall and Offices for the use of this parish.”

And whereas the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said parish have made application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above resolution:

Now, therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks,” as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other Meetings, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Bromley Saint Leonard.

ARTICLE II.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Master of the Rolls.

Friday, the 5th day of June, 1874.

Between John Michael Dillon, Plaintiff; George Ernest Fortescue, Defendant.

THIS cause coming on this day, to be heard and debated before the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, in the presence of Counsel for the plaintiff, and upon reading the Order dated the 26th of February, 1874, whereby it was ordered that the plaintiff's Bill should be taken pro confesso against the defendant, George Ernest Fortescue, at the hearing of this cause, a printed copy of the plaintiff's Bill, duly stamped by the Record and Writ Clerk, under the provisions of the General Order of the 13th July, 1861, an indenture dated the 27th of August, 1872, and upon hearing what was alleged by the Counsel for the plaintiff, his Honour doth order that the plaintiff's Bill be taken pro confesso against the defendant, George Ernest Fortescue, and doth order and decree the same accordingly. And it is ordered that the following account be taken, videlicet:—1. An account of what is due to the plaintiff for principal and interest, at the rate of £4 per cent. per annum, in respect of his security in the Bill mentioned, and for his costs of this suit, to be taxed by the Taxing Master. And it is ordered, that upon the defendant paying to the plaintiff what shall be certified to be due on such account within six calendar months after the date of the Chief Clerk's certificate, at such time and place as shall be thereby appointed, the plaintiff do reassign to the defendant the premises comprised in the said indenture dated the 27th August, 1872, but in default of the defendant so paying to the plaintiff what shall be so certified to be due to him by the time aforesaid, it is ordered that the defendant, George Ernest Fortescue, do from thenceforth stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of all right and equity of redemption of and to £600 New £3 per cent. Annuities in the Bill mentioned, part of a larger sum of like annuities now in his name, and the dividends due or to accrue due thereon, or in the event of the New £3 per cent. Annuities in his name, amounting only to £600, or being less than £600 like annuities, then the whole of such annuities and the dividends due or to accrue due thereon. And it is ordered that an injunction be awarded to restrain the defendant, George Ernest Fortescue, his Attorneys and Agents, from transferring, selling, or otherwise disposing of the said £600 New £3 per cent. Annuities standing in the name of the defendant, or such lesser amount of annuities as aforesaid, or any part thereof, and from receiving the dividends due or to accrue due thereon until further order, and that the Governor and Company of the Bank of England be restrained from permitting the said defendant, George Ernest Fortescue, to transfer or dispose of such annuities or receive such dividends until further order. But this Decree is subject to the provisions of the Rules contained in the 22nd of the Consolidated Orders as to making absolute Decrees founded on Bills taken pro confesso. And by an Order made in this cause by the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, on Friday, the 8th day of March, 1878, after reciting the above Decree dated the 6th June, 1874, and upon motion that day made unto this Court by Counsel for the plaintiff, it was alleged that the plaintiff had not been able to serve the said defendant with an office copy of the said Decree, or with the notice required by the 22nd of the Consolidated Orders, Rule 11, in that behalf, as by an affidavit of Godden Styles Hare, filed the 2nd day of March, 1878, appeared, that the defendant had not applied for permission to answer the plaintiff's Bill, and set aside the said Decree, and three years from the date of the said Decree having expired, and the plaintiff being desirous of proceeding under the said Decree, upon reading the said Decree and affidavit, and therefore it was prayed, and this Court did accordingly order, that the said Decree be made absolute against the said defendant, George Ernest Fortescue, and ordered that the plaintiff be at liberty, pursuant to the 22nd of the said Consolidated Orders, Rule 13, to proceed in the several accounts and inquiries directed by the said Decree, notwithstanding the defendant had not been served with the same, nor with the notice required by the 22nd of the Consolidated Orders, Rule 11. And it was ordered that the plaintiff be at liberty to serve the said Decree, the Summons to proceed, and notice of the time and place to be fixed by the Chief Clerk for repayment, pursuant to the said Decree, and other proceedings in this suit, upon the defendant, by advertising the same once in the London Gazette and in two newspapers circulating in the county of Devon. And it was ordered that service of warrant on leaving and warrant to tax the costs upon the said defendant be dispensed with, either of the parties were to be at liberty to apply as they might be advised.

The 2nd day of April, 1878.

Let all parties concerned attend at my chambers in the Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, Middlesex, on Monday, the 15th day of April, 1878, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, on the hearing of an application on the part of the plaintiff to proceed with the account directed to be taken and made by the Decree made in this cause bearing date the 5th day of June, 1874.

GEORGE JESSUP, Master of the Rolls.
