TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1878.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 12, 1878.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 25th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 2, 1878.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 17th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations should be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Edward Aldam Leatham, Esq., M.P., to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 25th April, 1878.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 39th and 40th years of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act for the preservation of Wild Fowl," it was by the 2nd section provided that any person who shall kill, wound, or take, or attempt to kill, wound, or take any wild fowl as defined by the said Act, or use any boat, gun, net, or other engine or instrument for the purpose of killing, wounding, or taking any wild fowl, or shall have in his control or possession any wild fowl recently killed, wounded, or taken, between the 15th day of February and the 10th day of July in any year, shall be liable to the penalty therein mentioned, and by the 3rd section, power was given to the Home Office as to Great Britain, upon the application of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any county, to extend or vary the time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild fowl was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by Order, under the hand of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices of the county of Anglesey, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild fowl, as defined by the said Act, is prohibited shall be varied in the county of Anglesey, so as to be from the 1st day of March to the 24th day of July in each year.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the said Act, and on such application as aforesaid, hereby order as follows:—

The time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild fowl, as defined by the said Act, is prohibited, shall be varied in the county of Anglesey, so as to be from the 1st day of March to the 24th day of July, in each year.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 6th day of May, 1878.

Richard Assheton Cross.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same) and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. The rates of postage to be henceforth charged by or under the authority of the Postmaster-General (in lieu of those now payable) in respect of letters conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, as mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunder written, shall be the rates of postage which are fixed and specified by and in such Schedule.

2. So much of the Treasury Warrant dated the 6th day of December, 1869, as relates to the rates of postage upon letters transmitted by post between the several countries and places respectively mentioned in the said Schedule hereunder written, is hereby repealed as from the date on which this Warrant comes into operation.

3. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

THE SCHEDULE above referred to.

RATES of POSTAGE to be charged on Letters posted in the Countries and Places hereunder in the First Column mentioned, addressed to the Countries and Places hereunder in the Second Column mentioned, and conveyed by post between such countries and places respectively by the routes and means of conveyance hereunder in the third column specified.

In Parliament.—Session 1878.

Sevenoaks, Maidstone, and Tunbridge Railway. (Repeal of certain Provisions of Awards made under London, Chatham, and Dover Railway (Arbitration) Act, 1869; Substitution of Railway Commissioners for Arbitrators appointed under that Act; Powers to the Railway Commissioners to decide disputes and settle accounts between Sevenoaks, Maidstone, and Tunbridge Railway Company and London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Company; Powers to the Commissioners with reference to the Working and Maintenance of Railways of Sevenoaks, Maidstone, and Tunbridge Railway Company and Division of Traffic Receipts between the two Companies; Provisions as to payment of Costs of Act by London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Company; Other Powers; Amendment or Repeal of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present Session for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To repeal sections 49 and 50 of the first award made by the arbitrators appointed by the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway (Arbitration Act), 1869, (hereinafter called the "Arbitration Act"), and also, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, the provisions of any other sections of the said first award and of the second and final award, made by the said arbitrators under the Arbitration Act.

2. To substitute the Railway Commissioners for the arbitrators appointed under the Arbitration Act, and to authorize the said Commissioners, in relation to the Sevenoaks, Maidstone, and Tunbridge Railway Company (hereinafter called "The Company"), and the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Company (hereinafter called "The Dover Company"), to exercise all or any of the powers contained in the Arbitration Act, and without reference to anything contained in the said awards.

3. To empower the said Commissioners, notwithstanding any previous decisions of any of the divisions of the High Court of Justice, or of the said Commissioners, to entertain and decide all disputes, questions, matters, or differences now existing, or which may hereafter arise between the Company and the Dover Company.

4. To authorize the said Commissioners, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the Bill, to give full effect to section 20 of the Arbitration Act, and to order and direct how and in what manner and in what proportion the gross receipts accruing to the Dover Company from the local traffic of the railways of the Company, or from traffic passing to or from the railways of the Company, or any portion of the system of the Dover Company, shall be divided between the two Companies, and what deductions shall be made from such gross receipts to constitute net earnings to be attributed to the Company as rental; and the Bill will also fix and prescribe the sums to be deducted by the Dover Company for the cost of maintenance and working of the said railways of the Company.

5. To empower the said Commissioners to settle all outstanding accounts between the two Companies, and to determine all claims by either Company against the other.

6. To make effectual provision for giving full and complete effect to the decisions of the said Commissioners.

7. To confer and impose upon the said Commissioners and the two Companies all powers, rights, authorities, duties, and obligations necessary for carrying the powers of the Bill into complete and full effect, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects and purposes of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

8. To provide for the payment, wholly or in part, by the Dover Company of the costs of and in relation to the Bill.

9. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or to repeal so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill all or some of the provisions of the several local and personal Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, that is to say:—"The Sevenoaks Railway Act, 1859," "The London, Chatham, and Dover Railway (Arbitration) Act, 1869;" "The London, Chatham, and Dover Railway Act, 1871;" "The Crystal Palace and Sevenoaks Railways Act, 1874," and all other Acts relating to or affecting the Company and the Dover Company, or which may relate to or be affected by the objects of the Bill.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid have been deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.
