*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, June 12, 1878.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg, stating that the Commander-in-Chief of the troops at Odessa has informed the Imperial Ministry for Foreign Affairs that merchant vessels are constantly causing injury, either by negligence or by intention, to the torpedoes which are sunken for the defence of Odessa. The Imperial authorities have consequently received orders to sue before the Tribunal for the exact amount of the injuries caused in each particular case.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Rome, enclosing a copy of a Decree, a translation of which is appended, issued by the Italian Government respecting the arrival of vessels with foul bills of health on account of yellow fever:—

MARINE HEALTH DECREE. No. 9.

THE Minister of the Interior, having taken the opinion of the Board of Health, decrees:—

From to-day, the health treatment of vessels arriving in Italian ports with foul bills of health, on account of yellow fever, is fixed as follows:—

ART. 1. Vessels which have made a safe voyage, and are satisfactorily healthy, will be subjected to observation of three or five days, according as the voyage has been of more or less than fourteen days.

ART. 2. This quarantine will be increased to five or seven days, if the vessels are declared by the Health Officer to be unhealthy.

ART. 3. Vessels which during the voyage or on arrival have had cases of sick or dead of yellow fever on board, will be subjected to ten days' rigorous quarantine.

ART. 4. Both for the quarantine of observation and for the rigorous quarantine, the measures for disinfection and for landing of goods prescribed by the quarantine regulations approved by the Government Decree of 29th April, 1867, remain obligatory.

ART. 5. Vessels in the above conditions can be admitted to pratique, if they have already undergone a quarantine corresponding to the present Decree, and have been already received into pratique in some Mediterranean port.

(For the Minister),

Whitehall, May 16, 1878.

The Right Honourable John Duke, Lord Coleridge, Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed John Ness Dransfield, of Penistone, in the county of York, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the West Riding of the county of York.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one thousand pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the London and North-Western Railway Company, which has been transferred into our name for the benefit of the vicarage of Saint Martin, Bradley, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Martin, Bradley, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the new parish and vicarage of Saint Cuthbert, Darwen, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same new parish and vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said new parish and vicarage of Saint Cuthbert, Darwen, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable to wards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said new parish and vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said new parish and vicarage of Saint Cuthbert, Darwen: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said new parish and vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of certain yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting together to forty-five pounds seventeen shillings and nine pence, which have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Copp, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Copp; to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards purchasing for the benefit of the said vicarage, as an addition to the permanent endowment thereof, certain other yearly tithe commutation rent-charges approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Copp.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Newburn, with the chapelries of the Holy Trinity and the Holy Saviour annexed, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly tithe commutation rent-charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of, and in full substitution for, the under-mentioned yearly sums or stipends, amounting in the aggregate to one hundred and seven pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or by our lessee, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Newburn, with the chapelries of the Holy Trinity and the Holy Saviour annexed, viz., first, the yearly sum or stipend of eighty-two pounds, so payable by us as aforesaid, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the eighth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette of the thirteenth day of the same month and year; secondly, the two yearly sums or stipends of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, and eight pounds six shillings and eight pence respectively, also payable by us, or by our lessee, to the said Incumbent in respect of the said and other tithe commutation rent-charges, to which substitution the Reverend John Reed, the present Incumbent of the said vicarage, is consenting, and in token whereof has signed this instrument: And provided, also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent-charges, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Thurgarton, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Thurgarton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Saffron Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Saffron Hill, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Saffron Hill.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Michael, Louth, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Monkton Combe, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Monkton Combe, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof; our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.
