C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-ground be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-ground be postponed as follows, viz. :—

In the churchyard of Saint John, Sheffield, to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, on condition that the restrictions contained in that part of the Order in Council of the fourth of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, relating to that churchyard be observed.

In the churchyard of Stony Middleton, in the parish of Hathersage, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

In the churchyard of Winlaton to the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

In the churchyard of Writtle, Essex, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

In the churchyard of Whitworth, Rochdale, and in the burial-ground of Hale Fold Independent Chapel, Whitworth, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

In the churchyard of Shipdham, Norfolk, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

In the churchyard of Madron, in the county of Cornwall, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz. :—

MARKET HARBOUROUGH.—Forthwith wholly in the Baptist Chapelyard, Market Harborough, except in existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

CLEETHORPES.—Forthwith wholly in Saint Peter's Church, Cleethorpes; and in the churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves which are free from water, every coffin buried in which shall be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

NORTH SOMERCOTES.—Forthwith wholly in North Somercotes Church, in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves for the burials of those only whose wives or husbands have been buried in the churchyard.

TETNEY.—Forthwith wholly in Tetney Church in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves that can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of entire bones.

ROTHLEY.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Rothley, in the county of Leicester, and in the Rothley Baptist Chapel; and in the churchyard and chapelyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of entire bones.

ROTHERFIELD.—Forthwith wholly in Rotherfield Church, in the county of Sussex; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed in brickwork or stonework properly cemented; and except also in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of entire bones.
