CUSTOMS DUTIES IN SPAIN.

TRANSLATION, received from Sir John Walsham, of a Circular to the Administrators of Customs in Spain:—

*General Customs, Madrid,
July 29th, 1878.*

The following Royal Order has been communicated by the Minister of Finance to this Department, dated to-day.

Your Excellency, His Majesty the King (whom God preserve) has deigned to order that the extraordinary and transitory tax (surcharge) in the third column of the Tariff, shall not be applied to the produce of Great Britain when imported into the Peninsula and Balearic Islands.

By Royal Order I inform your Excellency of this, so that it may be put into execution.

I transmit you the above for your information and guidance.

May God preserve you many years.

(Signed) JUAN CAVERO.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of August, 1878.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The Orders of Council described in the Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked.

2. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Orders, or either of them, before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Orders, or either of them.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

Order of Council of 7 June, 1878, defining a part of the Port of London as a part thereof and landing-place within and at which animals brought from a port or place in France might be landed for quarantine.

Order of Council of 8 July, 1878, amending and continuing the aforesaid Order of 7 June, 1878.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of August, 1878.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, defining the part of the Port of Grimsby, in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, within which foreign cattle might be landed for slaughter: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

C. L. Peel.

(GRIMSBY.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of August, 1878.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the part of the Port of Grimsby, in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, within which foreign cattle may be landed for slaughter, as follows:

All that space at the Great Grimsby Royal Dock, in the borough of Grimsby, situate on the north-west side of the lock, known as the 70 feet lock, of the said Royal Dock, bounded by a line commencing at the water of the said lock at a point nineteen feet or thereabouts from the north corner of the said lock, thence running in a straight line in a north-westerly direction for one hundred and six feet or thereabouts along the northern side of certain cattle-pens, slaughter-house, and premises to the north-west corner thereof, thence running in a straight line in a south-westerly direction for two hundred and eighty-one feet or thereabouts along the north-west side of the said cattle-pens, slaughter-house, and premises to the south-west corner thereof, thence running in a straight line in a south-easterly direction for one hundred and six feet or thereabouts along the south-western side of the said cattle-pens, slaughter-house, and premises to the water of the said lock; and thence along the water of the said lock to the point aforesaid; all which space is coloured pink on the plan of part of Great Grimsby Docks, deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Grimsby.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 99.)—UNITED STATES.—PENOBSCOT BAY.

(1.) Buoy with self-acting Whistle at Entrance to Fox Island Thoroughfare.

THE United States Government has given notice, that an automatic (or self-acting) signal buoy has been placed at the entrance to Fox Island Thoroughfare, Penobscot Bay.

The buoy, painted red and black in horizontal stripes, and giving blasts of a whistle at short intervals, is moored in 20 fathoms at low water, with the following bearings, viz.:—

Spindle on Drunkard Ledge, N.N.E.
Brown Head Lighthouse, E. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N.

Owl Head Lighthouse, W. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N.
Position, approximate, lat. 44° 5' N., long. 68° 56' W.

SAVANNAH RIVER ENTRANCE.

(2.) Intended Leading Lights on Long Island.

Also, that on 1st November, 1878, leading lights will be exhibited from two beacons (named Tybee Knoll), recently erected at the east end of Long Island, Savannah River Entrance.

The low light will be a fixed white light of the sixth order, elevated 21 feet above high water, and shown from the upper part of the keeper's dwelling, which is of one storey, and painted white. Position, lat. 32° 2' N., long. 80° 54' 15" W.

The high light will be a fixed white light of the sixth order, elevated 44 feet above high water, and shown from a frame tower, which is painted white, and situated W. $\frac{1}{4}$ S. from the low light, distant 717 yards.

NOTE.—These lights in line lead through the dredged channel from Tybee Road into Savannah River.

Approaching from seaward, having crossed the bar, with Tybee Lighthouse and Beacon in line, and being near the position of Inner Bar Buoy (black) No. 3, steer N.W. by N. until Tybee Light vessel bears W. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N., and which may then be steered for till Tybee Knoll Beacons are in line.

[The bearings and courses are magnetic. Variation, Penobscot Bay, 1854° Westward in 1878; Savannah River Entrance, 2° Eastward in 1878.]

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 101.)—AFRICA—SOUTH-WEST COAST.
CAPE OF GOOD HOPE PENINSULA.

Shoal Ground off Olifants Bosh Point.

A sunken danger having been reported 3 miles from the shore, in the neighbourhood of Olifants Bosh Point, on which it was stated the Union Mail Steamer "Kafir" recently struck, on her passage between Table Bay and Cape of Good Hope; a close examination of this locality has been made by Commander W. J. L. Wharton, H.M. Surveying-vessel "Fawn," with the following results:—

No indication of sunken rocks farther from the coast than 6 cables could be found in the neighbourhood of Olifants Bosh Point, which is on the west coast of the peninsula about 7 miles from the Cape of Good Hope.

Albatross Rock, on which the "Kafir" probably struck, has less than 6 feet water, with 7 to 13 fathoms around and 5 fathoms between it and Olifants Bosh Point; the rock is about 2 cables long in an E.N.E. and W.S.W. direction, with a breadth of one cable; its outer part bears W. by S. from Olifants Bosh Point, distance 6 cables.

Position, lat $34^{\circ} 16' 40'' S.$, long. $18^{\circ} 22' 25'' E.$

A mile westward of Albatross Rock, the soundings increase to 27 and 30 fathoms, and nearly the same depths are found at the distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles in the same direction.

N.N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. from Albatross Rock, distant $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and nearly 4 cables from the shore, a detached rocky patch of small extent, with less than 6 feet water on it, also exists.

CAUTION.—Cape of Good Hope Light is obscured between the bearings S.S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. and

S.S.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. These bearings lead south-west of Albatross Rock, from one mile to about one-third of a mile clear of it.

(No. 102.)—CHINA—EAST COAST—YANGTSE-KIANG ENTRANCE.

(1.) Alterations in Kiu Toan Small Beacon Light.

THE Chinese Government has given notice, that on or about 1st May, 1878, the following alterations would be made in the light exhibited from Kiu Toan Small Beacon, Yangtse-Kiang Entrance:—

The sector of white light would be discontinued, and in clear weather the light (fixed red) should be visible in all directions, except over the land, from a distance of 5 miles.

WUSUNG RIVER ENTRANCE.

(2.) Alteration in Position of Wusung Outer Bar Buoy.

Also, that on 11th May, 1878, in consequence of changes in the banks at Wusung River Entrance, the following alteration was made in the position of Wusung Outer Bar Buoy:—

The buoy (red and black in vertical stripes) on the western side of Wusung River Entrance, was shifted three-quarters of a cable S. by W. of its former position.

(3.) Alterations in Wusung Light.

And that for the same reason, on 11th May, 1878, the following alterations were made in the light exhibited on the west side of Wusung River Entrance:—

The light (fixed) now shows white from the river bank north-west of the lighthouse to the bearing of S. $1^{\circ} E.$; green between the bearings S. $1^{\circ} E.$ and S. $56^{\circ} W.$; white over the navigable channel of the entrance between S. $56^{\circ} W.$ and S. $70\frac{1}{2}^{\circ} W.$; and red between S. $70\frac{1}{2}^{\circ} W.$, and the right bank of Wusung River.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation $2\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1878.]

(No. 103.)—ENGLAND—SOUTH COAST.
ISLE OF WIGHT.

Shoal Ground in Sandown Bay.

INFORMATION has been received, that on resounding Sandown Bay in connection with the operations for raising the wreck of H.M.S. "Eurydice," shoal ground with a least depth of 24 feet has been found to exist about three-quarters of a mile from the nearest shore of the Bay.

This shoal, with from 24 to 28 feet (low water ordinary spring tides), on a chalk bottom, has 6 to 8 fathoms around. It extends nearly 3 cables in a N.W. by W. and S.E. by E. direction, with a breadth of half a cable; its western extreme, on which there is the shoalest water (24 feet), lies with the following bearings.

Culver Cliff, N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., distant $1\frac{2}{3}$ miles.

Sandown Fort, N.W. by N.

Sandown Barrack Battery, W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N.

Dunnose, S.W. by W.

NOTE.—The shoulder of Appuldercomb Hill in line with Shanklin Railway-station bearing W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N., leads a quarter of a mile seaward of this shoal.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 104.)—NORTH SEA—JADE RIVER.

(1.) Alteration in Varelseriel High Light.

THE German Government has given notice, that on 1st August, 1878, the following alteration will be made in the character of the upper light exhibited on Schlaf Mole, northward of Varel:—

The fixed red light showing in two sectors from the upper lighthouse will be discontinued, and in place thereof a flashing light, visible in clear weather from a distance of 13 miles, will be exhibited as follows:—

In the western sector, between the bearings S. 39° E. and S. 13° W., there will be exhibited two flashes of one second's duration each, divided by an interval of one second of darkness, each pair of flashes being followed by an eclipse of four seconds.

In the eastern sector, between the bearings S. 16° $\frac{1}{2}$ W. and S. 69° W., there will be exhibited five flashes of one second's duration each, divided by intervals of one second of darkness, each group of flashes being followed by an eclipse of eight seconds.

NOTE.—The lower light (fixed white) will remain unaltered.

GULF OF FINLAND—BARÖ SOUND.

(2.) Temporary Discontinuance of Renskär Island Light.

The Russian Government has given notice, that Renskär Island Light is temporarily discontinued in order to repair the apparatus.

Also, that due notice will be given of the re-exhibition of this light.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of six hundred pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the North Eastern Railway Company, which has been transferred into our name for the benefit of the Incumbent for the time being of the rectory of Saint John, Bodle Street Green, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, and in consideration also of the following further benefactions, namely: (first), certain yearly impropriate tithes commutation rent-charges of the parish of Wartling, in the said county of Sussex, amounting together to twelve pounds ten shillings and four pence (secondly), certain further yearly tithes commutation rent-charges, amounting to thirty-two pounds one shilling and three pence, formerly belonging to the rectory of Warbleton, also in the said county of Sussex, and (thirdly), two clear yearly rent-charges of five pounds and two pounds and ten shillings respectively on the revenues of the rectory of Hurstmonceux, in the said county of Sussex, and on the vicarage of Wartling aforesaid respectively, all of which benefactions have been permanently secured to the aforesaid rectory of Saint John, Bodle Street Green, as and for an addition to the endowments thereof, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint John, Bodle Street Green, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-eight pounds one shilling and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund, under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Powerstock, or Poorstock, with West Milton, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, one capital sum of three hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of erecting stables and other outbuildings for and to the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Powerstock, or Poorstock, with West Milton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Llanfihangel Aberbythick, in the county of Caernarthen, and in the diocese of Saint David's, one capital sum of three hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llanfihangel Aberbythick: Provided always, that the said capital sum of three hundred pounds expressed to be hereby granted and appropriated, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in full substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, heretofore payable by us the said Commissioners to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llanfihangel Aberbythick, under the authority of another instrument sealed by us on the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and published in the London Gazette of the seventeenth day of the same month and year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint John, Walham Green, Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of enlarging and otherwise improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint John, Walham Green, Fulham.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Topsham, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those two pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, subject, however, to the right of way through, along, and over one of the said two pieces or parcels of land specifically mentioned in a certain deed of conveyance, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, whereby certain other lands and hereditaments (including the said right of way) were permanently secured by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as and for an addition to the churchyard of the parish church of Topsham aforesaid, and for an approach to the same, and which said deed of conveyance has been deposited in the registry of the diocese of Exeter: To have and to hold the said two pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, subject to the right of way aforesaid, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

Schedule.

First. All that piece or parcel of land with the messuage or tenement erected thereon, situate in the parish of Topsham, in the county of Devon, fronting to Fore-street, and bounded on the south side thereof by the piece or parcel of land and hereditaments secondly hereinafter described and more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and thereon marked A and coloured pink.

Secondly. All that other piece or parcel of land, together with the archway and rooms over the same, also situate in the said parish of Topsham, fronting to Fore-street aforesaid, and bounded on the north side thereof by the parcel of land and premises firstly herein described and more particularly delineated on the plan aforesaid, and thereon marked B and coloured blue.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Chatham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, that two Assistant-Curates, duly licensed by such Bishop, have been employed within the parish of Saint Paul, Chatham aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and that one of such Curates is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that the said yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint Paul, Chatham.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Luke, Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever; Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage, shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-sixth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement (exclusive of the adjacent roads), two acres and thirty-eight perches, more or less, formerly part of Holicondane Farm, situate in the new parish of Saint Luke, Ramsgate, within the original limits of the ancient parish of Ramsgate, in the Isle of Thanet, in the county of Kent, which said piece or parcel is bounded on or towards part of the north by the site of Saint Luke's Church, on the remaining part of the north by a road, or intended road, called or intended to be called Dagmar-road; on or towards part of the east by a slip of land five feet wide, lying between the said piece or parcel of land expressed to be hereby conveyed, and a road or intended road, called or intended to be called Granville-grove, on or towards part of the west by a road or intended road, called or intended to be called Holicondane-road, and on the remaining parts of the west by land recently sold by William Farley, of Saint Lawrence, near Ramsgate aforesaid, Builder, to William Gilbert Habershon and Alfred Robert Pite, and on the remaining parts of the east and on the south by lands and hereditaments of Mr. J. Rood, and the said piece or parcel of land is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Melbourne, in the county of Cambridge, and in the diocese of Ely, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in full substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of twenty-five pounds, formerly paid by the Dean and Chapter of Ely, and latterly payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Melbourne, to which substitution the Reverend James Hamilton, the present Incumbent of the said vicarage of Melbourne is consenting, and in token thereof has signed this instrument: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

No. 24612.

B

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

James Hamilton, Vicar.

Schedule.

All those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, consisting of a house, with the out-buildings, orchard, close, and meadow-land adjoining thereto, containing in the whole seven acres two roods and thirty-two perches (or thereabouts), situate and being in the parish of Melbourne, in the county of Cambridge, and lying to the south and west of the church and parsonage house and premises of the said parish, and which said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments comprise the whole of Nos. 80. and 86, and part of No. 81, in the apportionment of rent-charge in lieu of tithes of the said parish of Melbourne, and are particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured green.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Primitive Methodist Chapel, situate at Railway-terrace, in the parish of Rugby, in the county of Warwick, in the district of Rugby, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 8th day of July, 1878, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. 4, cap. 85, being substituted for the building known as the Primitive Methodist Chapel, situate at Queen-street, in Rugby aforesaid, now disused.

Harding James Henry.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 31st May, 1878, made ex parte Charles Edward Berrey, in the matter of the National Debt Act, 1870, the following enquiry is directed, that is to say: "An enquiry who is or are entitled to the £734 consolidated £3 per centum annuities and £500 reduced three pounds per centum annuities, standing in the name of George James Berrey, the legal personal representative of John Alexander Berrey, and afterwards transferred to the Commissioners of the reduction of the National Debt and to the dividends due, and to accrue due thereon respectively." Now pursuant to such Order, all persons claiming to be entitled to the funds in such Order mentioned, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 31st day of October, 1878, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, situate No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Tuesday, the 12th November, 1878, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims. It appears by the proceedings that one James Henry Harding, who, in the year 1842, was described as of Ipswich, and is believed to have been then resident there, would, if living, be absolutely entitled to the fund.—Dated this 2nd day of August, 1878.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Mervyn Bunbury, of No. 24, Montpelier-street, Brompton, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Hazlitt, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of James Rigg Brougham, Esq., the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 4th day of July, 1878, reporting that by the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy by the late Trustee, it appears that he had been unable to realize the alleged assets set forth in the bankrupt's statement of affairs, and that it had not been brought to his knowledge that the bankrupt had since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, and upon reading the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 13th day of July, 1878, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, Official Solicitor, on behalf of the Registrar-Trustee, and Mr. Willis, of Counsel for the petitioning creditor, and not opposing, the Court being satisfied that by the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy by the late Trustee, he has been unable to realize the alleged assets set forth in the bankrupt's statement of affairs, and that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt has since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed; doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Mervyn Bunbury has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of August, 1878.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of William Harris, of No. 17, Wynne-road, Brixton-road, in the county of Surrey, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Hazlitt, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of James Rigg Brougham, Esq., Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 4th day of July, 1878, reporting that by the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy by the late Trustee, it appeared that the whole of the assets of the bankrupt were sold by the Sheriff of Surrey, and that it had not been brought to his knowledge that the bankrupt had since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors; and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, and upon reading the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 13th day of July, 1878, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, Official Solicitor, on behalf of the said Registrar-Trustee, and no one appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that by the accounts rendered to the Comptroller in bankruptcy by the late Trustee, the whole of the assets of the bankrupt were sold by the Sheriff of Surrey, and that it has not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt has since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said William Harris has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of August, 1878.
