WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the rectory of Saint Paul in the Bail, in the city and county of the city of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same rectory, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and seventy-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said rectory of Saint Paul in the Bail, in the said city of Lincoln, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Saint Paul in the Bail, in the said city of Lincoln: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and seventy-five pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Sherburn, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances (subject as hereinafter mentioned) to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever, except and reserved at all times and for ever unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, our successors, assigns, and lessees, all mines and minerals whatsoever within and under the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, with full liberty, power, and authority to win, get, and work out the said mines and minerals, but by underground operations only, and so that the surface of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments be not injured thereby: Provided always, that the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in substitution for a portion, amounting to four pounds per annum of the yearly sum of one hundred and ninety pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Sherburn, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the fourth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and published in the London Gazette of the twelfth day of the same month and year: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing two acres (or thereabouts), and comprising portions of two fields called or known by the names of Middle Field and Town Field, situate at Sherburn, in the parish of Pitlington, in the county of Durham, bounded on the north in part by the churchyard of Sherburn aforesaid, and in part by the parsonage site and premises belonging to the vicarage of Sherburn aforesaid, on the south-west by the Sherburn Branch of the Lambton Railway, and on the south-east by other land belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and which said piece or parcel of land is further delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a portion of the value of a piece or parcel of land, comprising three roods and thirty-nine perches (or thereabouts), which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Dovercourt, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, and in further consideration of another benefaction, consisting of a sum of fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Dovercourt, to meet the said benefactions, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Dovercourt.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Grimley, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances (subject as hereinafter mentioned), to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever, except and reserved at all times and for ever unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, our successors, assigns, and lessees, all mines and minerals whatsoever within and under the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, with full liberty, power, and authority to win, get, and work out the said mines and minerals, but by underground operations only, and so that the surface of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments be not injured thereby; Provided always, that the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in substitution for a portion amounting to one pound and ten shillings per annum of the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-four pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Grimley, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and published in the London Gazette of the ninth day of the same month and year: and Provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-third day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land known as Crossing Hands Piece, containing one acre three roods and five perches (or thereabouts), situate in the parish of Grimley, in the county of Worcester, bounded on the east by the high-road leading from Ludlow to Worcester, and on all other sides by lands belonging to the Bishoprick of Worcester, and which said piece or parcel of land is further delineated and numbered 467 on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice of All Saints, Awbridge, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Mary Magdalene, Paddington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and forty-six pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate, out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage of Saint Mary Magdalene, Paddington, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Mary Magdalene, Paddington: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and forty-six pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

Official Notice.

Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

I EDWARD HERBERT WOOD, of Raasay, and Rona, give notice, that in consequence of the name of my yacht "Amy" being so general among yachts, hence causing confusion, it is my intention to apply to the Board of Trade, under section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of my yacht the "Amy," of Raasay, county Inverness, official number 68,111, of gross tonnage 136.76 tons, of register tonnage 71.6 tons, formerly owned by N. B. Stewart, of Glasgow, for permission to change her name to "The Rona," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Inverness, as owned by Edward Herbert Wood, of Raasay.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at Raasay, N.B., this 29th day of July, 1878.

Edward Herbert Wood.
