Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1843 to 1875, and by the Act of Parliament of the session of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign (chapter 80), "for the better government of Her Majesty's subjects resorting to China," or otherwise, in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

(b.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, immediately from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first exhibited in the public office of Her Majesty's Consul-General for the district of the Consulate of Shanghai; for which purpose Her Majesty's Consul-General or other principal Consular Officer for the time being for that district is hereby required forthwith, on receipt by him from Her Majesty's Minister in China of a copy of this Order, with instructions in this behalf, to affix and exhibit this Order conspicuously in that public office, and to keep the same so affixed and exhibited during one month thereafter; of the time of which first exhibition notice shall be published as soon thereafter as practicable in each Consular district in China and in Japan, in such manner as Her Majesty's Ministers there respectively direct; and the time of the expiration of that month shall be deemed the time of the commencement of this Order.

3.—(1.) Articles 9 to 22, both inclusive, of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, are hereby revoked.

(2.) Articles 36 and 37 of that Order are hereby revoked as regards Japan only.

(3.) In this Order "The Secretary of State" means one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

(4.) Subject to the foregoing provisions, this Order shall be read as one with the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865.

(5.) A copy of this Order shall be kept exhibited conspicuously in each Court and Consulate in China and in Japan.

(6.) Printed copies thereof shall be provided, and shall be sold at such reasonable price as Her Majesty's Ministers there respectively direct.

4.—(1.) There shall be a Chief Justice and an Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court for China and Japan.

(2.) The Assistant-Judge shall be the Registrar of the Supreme Court; and the office of Law Secretary of the Supreme Court is hereby abolished.

(3.) The Assistant-Judge shall hear and determine such causes and matters, civil and criminal, and transact such other part of the business of the Supreme Court, as the Chief Justice from time to time by general order, or otherwise, directs; and for that purpose the Assistant-Judge shall have all the like jurisdiction, power, and authority as the Chief Justice.

(4.) Any party to a suit or proceeding wherein any matter or question is heard and determined by the Assistant-Judge shall be entitled, as of course, to a rehearing before the Chief Justice, sitting with the Assistant-Judge, or, in the unavoidable absence of the Assistant-Judge, alone.

(5.) If, on any such rehearing, there is a difference of opinion between the Chief Justice and the Assistant-Judge, the opinion of the Chief Justice shall prevail.

(6.) Throughout the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, and the Rules made thereunder, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall, as regards China, be deemed to be therein substituted for the Judge of the Supreme Court.

(7.) There shall be attached to the Supreme Court a Chief Clerk, and so many officers and clerks as the Secretary of State from time to time thinks fit.

Court for Japan.

5.—(1.) There shall be in and for Japan a Court styled Her Britannic Majesty's Court for Japan.

(2.) The Court for Japan shall have a seal, bearing its style and such device as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

(3.) The Court for Japan shall hold its ordinary sittings at Kanagawa, or, on emergency, at any other place within the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, but may at any time transfer its ordinary sittings to any place in Japan approved by the Secretary of State or by Her Majesty's Minister in Japan.

(4.) There shall be a Judge and an Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan.

(5.) The Assistant-Judge shall hear and determine such causes and matters, civil and criminal, and transact such other part of the business of the Court, as the Judge from time to time by general order, or otherwise, directs; and for that purpose the Assistant-Judge shall have all the like jurisdiction, power, and authority as the Judge.

(6.) Any party to a suit or proceeding wherein any matter or question is heard and determined by the Assistant-Judge shall be entitled, as of course, to a rehearing before the Judge, sitting with the Assistant-Judge, or, in the unavoidable absence of the Assistant-Judge, alone.

(7.) If, on any such rehearing, there is a difference of opinion between the Judge and the Assistant-Judge, the opinion of the Judge shall prevail.

(8.) In Japan, persons accused of crimes which in England are capital shall be tried by the Judge of the Court for Japan, with a jury, and not otherwise.

(9.) There shall be attached to the Court for Japan a Chief Clerk, and so many officers and clerks as the Secretary of State from time to time thinks fit.

Jurisdiction in Japan.

6.—(1.) Her Majesty's Consul for the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa shall cease to hold and form a Provincial Court.

(2.) Unless and until the Secretary of State otherwise directs, Her Majesty's Consul for the time being for the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa shall be the Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan.

(3.) All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exerciseable in Japan shall, for and within the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, be vested in the Court for Japan as its ordinary original jurisdiction.

(4.) All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exerciseable in Japan beyond the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, and not under this Order vested in the Court for Japan, shall, to the extent and in the manner provided by the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, as modified by this Order, be vested in the Provincial Courts in Japan, each for and within its own district.

(5.) The Court for Japan shall have, in all matters, civil and criminal, an extraordinary original jurisdiction throughout Japan, concurrent with the jurisdiction of the several Provincial Courts in Japan, the same to be exercised subject and according to the provisions of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, as modified by this Order.

7.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the provisions of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, and the Rules in force in the Supreme Court and other Courts in China and Japan made under that Order, shall extend and apply to the Court for Japan, as if the same were a Court (not a Provincial Court) established under that Order.

(2.) For the purpose of the application thereof to the Court of Japan, in Articles 23, 24, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 47, 54 to 57, 59, 61, 62, 67, 68, 69, 72, 74, 77 to 80, 83, 93, 99, 102, 105, 108 to 111, 117, 119, 120 to 126, 144, 153, 155, all inclusive of that Order, and throughout those Rules, there shall, as regards Japan, be deemed to be substituted Japan for China or for China and Japan, Kanagawa for Shanghai, the Court for Japan for the Supreme Court for China and Japan, and the Judge and Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan for the Judge and Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court; but not so as to affect those Articles or Rules as regards operation thereof in and for China.

8.—(1.) Article 119 of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, relative to appeals in civil cases to the Supreme Court for China and Japan, shall extend and apply to appeals from decisions of the Court for Japan, as if the same were a Provincial Court within that Article; and that Article, and the Rules therein referred to, shall accordingly, notwithstanding anything in this Order, apply to appeals from the Court for Japan to the Supreme Court for China and Japan; but the last-mentioned appeals shall not be heard except by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, sitting with the Assistant-Judge of that Court, or, in the unavoidable absence of the Assistant-Judge, alone.

(2.) If, on any such appeal, there is a difference of opinion between the Chief Justice and the Assistant-Judge, the opinion of the Chief Justice shall prevail.

(3.) Articles 120 to 126, both inclusive, of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865, relative to appeals to the Supreme Court for China and Japan in criminal cases, shall extend and apply to appeals to that Court in criminal cases from decisions of the Court for Japan, both in cases originally tried in the Court for Japan and in cases brought by virtue of this Order before that Court, under those Articles, by way of appeal from any Court or Officer in Japan; and, for the purposes of this Article, the Court for Japan shall, in cases so brought before it by way of appeal, be deemed to be the Court trying the case.

Judges in China and Japan.

9.—(1.) The Chief Justice and Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court and the Judge and Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan shall each be appointed by Her Majesty by warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, subject and according to Article 23 of the China and Japan Order in Council, 1865.

(2.) The Chief Justice and the Judge shall each be a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization, who, at the time of his appointment, is a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, of not less than seven years' standing.

10.—(1.) In case of the death or illness, or the absence or intended absence from the district of the Consulate of Shanghai, of the Chief Justice or of the Assistant-Judge of the Supreme Court, Her Majesty's Minister in China may appoint a fit person to be the Acting Chief Justice or to be the Acting Assistant-Judge (as the case may require); but, unless in any case the Secretary of State otherwise directs, the Assistant-Judge, if present and able to act, shall always be appointed to be Acting Chief Justice.

(2.) In case of the death or illness, or the absence or intended absence from the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa, of the Judge or of the Assistant-Judge of the Court for Japan, Her Majesty's Minister in Japan may appoint a fit person to be the Acting Judge or to be the Acting Assistant-Judge (as the case may require).

Vice-Admiralty Jurisdiction.

11. Any proceeding taken in China or Japan against one of Her Majesty's vessels, or the officer commanding the same, as such, in respect of any claim cognisable in a Court of Vice-Admiralty, shall be taken only in the Supreme Court or in the Court for Japan, under the Vice-Admiralty jurisdiction thereof respectively.

Pending Proceedings.

12. Nothing in this Order shall affect any suit or proceedings, civil or criminal, pending at the commencement of this Order, with reference either to the original proceedings therein, or to any appeal therein, or otherwise; save that all suits and proceedings, civil or criminal, instituted or taken in the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa before and pending at the commencement of this Order are hereby transferred to the jurisdiction of the Court for Japan; and the same may be carried on and shall be tried, heard, and determined, in and by the Court for Japan, as nearly as may be, as if the same had been instituted or taken in the district of the Consulate of Kanagawa after the commencement of this Order.

And the Most Honourable the Marquess of Salisbury, and the Right Honourable Sir Michael Edward Hicks-Beach, Baronet, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, 1875, it is, amongst other things, enacted that Her Majesty may, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order the calling out of all or any part of the Militia to be dispensed with.

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to dispense with the calling out of the Royal Meath Regiment of Militia, and to direct that there shall be no training and exercising thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight;

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby dispense with the calling out of the Royal Meath Regiment of Militia, and doth order and direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; and that this Order be published in the London Gazette.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was [this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th of July, 1878, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas your Majesty was graciously pleased by an Order in Council dated the 10th November 1866 to establish certain regulations for carrying out the purposes of the Naval Savings Bank Act, 1866.

"And whereas by the 46th, 47th, 48th, and 49th clauses of the said Order it is provided in regard to ships ordered to be paid off that 'Marines having deposits and desiring to transfer the same to the Naval Savings Banks of their respective divisions, shall be dealt with as depositors transferred from a ship to quarters, a Transfer List shall be made out as provided by sections 22-24 of this Order, and the deposits so transferred shall not appear in the final Withdrawal List.

"For the purposes of a transfer by a marine under this section, if a Naval Savings Bank is not established at the quarters to which the marine belongs, a Local Savings Bank, approved by the proper authority, shall be regarded as the Naval Savings Bank of the division.

"The interest on the balances in the abstract account having been inserted from time to time as directed in section 32 of this Order, the Paymaster shall next compute and insert therein interest on the last balance to the date of the paying off of the ship, and prepare the balance account and the final Withdrawal List requisite to close each depositor's account.

"In the final Withdrawal List, except in the cases specified in section 46 of this Order, the Paymaster shall insert the name of each depositor whose account is then open, the balance amount of his deposits, and the interest due to him to the date of the paying off of the ship; and the amounts so inserted except such portions as are remitted for investment in a Post Office Savings Bank, of which notation shall be made on the list, shall be paid in the presence of the Committee at the time the ship's company are paid their wages.

"The final Withdrawal List, the abstract and balance account, with all other savings' bank accounts on board, shall then be transmitted to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

"And whereas, we are of opinion that it would be expedient to cancel the said clauses and to substitute the following, viz. :—

"When a ship is ordered to be paid off the deposits of marines including the interest thereon shall be transferred to the Naval Savings Banks of their respective divisions.

"All other depositors may have their principal and interest, or any part of the same :—

"(1.) Transferred to the office of the Accountant-General of the Navy for investment in Post Office Savings Banks; or

"(2.) Remitted for payment at their own homes; or

"(3.) Paid in cash by the Paymaster in the presence of the Commanding Officer, at the time the crew are paid their wages.

"Continuous service men, men volunteering for the Coast Guard, and non-continuous service

'men entitled to be sent to receiving ships may have the whole or any part of their balances, principal and interest, transferred to such ships or coast guard districts as they are subsequently to join, and during the interval, interest on their deposits shall continue to accrue.

"In the case of a ship's paying off abroad, the account of any depositor whose time is not expired, or who volunteers for the new commission, or for any other ship on the station, shall, subject to his general liberty of withdrawal and liberty of investment under the above provision, be transferred to the ship he joins."

"We do therefore, beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to cancel the said clauses, and to direct that the proposed alternative clauses be substituted accordingly.

"The Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in the foregoing proposals."

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of Section five of the Winter Assizes Act, 1876, and of the Winter Assizes Act, 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

The jurisdiction of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court at any Session of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, held for the Central Criminal Court District in the months of October, November, December, or January, shall extend to such part of the County of Surrey as is not now included in the Central Criminal Court District, as if such part of the County of Surrey were included in the Central Criminal Court District, and the Central Criminal Court Act shall apply to the said part of the County of Surrey, and offences committed therein, as if the said part of the County of Surrey were mentioned in that Act:—

Subject nevertheless to the following modifications and exceptions:—

(1.) Nothing in this Order shall authorise the trial at the Central Criminal Court of any person who shall have been admitted to bail, and shall not be in custody at the time of such trial, unless he be jointly charged with another person in actual custody, or of any person for any offence triable at Quarter Sessions, except in accordance with the provisions of Sections 18 and 19 of the Central Criminal Court Act.

(2.) For the purposes of this Order the said part of the County of Surrey shall be deemed to be included in the Commission in force for the time being for the Central Criminal Court.

(3.) Unless the Central Criminal Court shall otherwise direct, no person shall be summoned or returned from the said part of the County of Surrey to serve on any Grand Jury or Petty Jury at the Central Criminal Court, but any Grand Jury or

Petty Jury constituted in accordance with the provisions of the 4th Section of the Central Criminal Court Act, shall have authority to inquire of, present, try, and determine all offences with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court.

(4.) Until Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, otherwise to order and direct, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Coroner having jurisdiction within the said part of the County of Surrey, to commit any person charged with having committed any offence with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court, and which has been committed or is alleged to have been committed within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Coroner, either to the Gaol to which, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts and this Order, such person would have been committed, or to the Gaol of Newgate, there to remain until he can be tried in pursuance of this Order or in due course of law.

(5.) When in pursuance of this Order any person shall be committed to any Gaol other than Newgate, the Sheriff of the County in which the Gaol to which the prisoner is committed is situated, or the keeper of the same Gaol, shall, six days at least before the next sitting of the Central Criminal Court at which the prisoner can be tried, or at such other time as the Justices or Judges of the said Court, or any two or more of them, shall from time to time direct, cause such person, with his commitment and detainers, to be safely removed from the Gaol to which he was committed, without any writ of Habeas Corpus or other writ, to the Gaol of Newgate, there to remain until delivered by due course of law.

(6.) Where any person is committed for trial in the said part of the County of Surrey, any of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place in which he was committed, may, upon the application of such prisoner direct the Treasurer of the County or place where the prisoner was committed to advance to the prisoner a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of his witnesses to and from the Central Criminal Court, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum and shall deduct it out of the amount allowed by the Court in respect of such witnesses.

(7.) Where, for the purposes of the trial of any offence, with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred upon the Central Criminal Court, recognizances are entered into for attendance at any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for the County of Surrey, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the then next ensuing Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be holden for the Central Criminal Court District as enlarged by this Order, in the month of October, November, December, or January, as the case may be, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such Session or forfeit his recognizance; provided that where such recognizance has been entered into prior to the date of this Order not less than ten days' notice to appear at such Session shall have been given to such person, either by serving the same personally on him, or by leaving the same at the place of residence as of which he is described in the recognizance, and the Clerk to the committing Justices or Coroner, as the case may be, shall issue such notice as aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of the Solicitor for the prosecution or his agent to serve the same, or in the event of there being no such Solicitor then the same shall be served by the Clerk of the committing Justices or the Coroner; and service on any person of such notice may be proved by affidavit purporting to be sworn before any Justice of the Peace, or any Commissioner to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature, or any Clerk of the Peace, or any Registrar of a County Court; and any such affidavit shall, until the contrary is shown, be taken to be sufficient proof of the statements contained therein, and shall be received in evidence in any legal proceeding without proof of the signatures or of the official character of the person or persons taking or signing the same, and the fee for taking such affidavit shall be one shilling, and any such fee shall be costs in the matter to which it relates.

(8.) If at the Summer Assizes for the County of Surrey, any prisoner or person charged with an offence with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred upon the Central Criminal Court, be remanded for trial at a future time, it shall be lawful for the Court by which he is remanded to order and direct that he be tried either at the next General Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be holden for such County or at the Session of the Central Criminal Court to be holden in the month of October then next following; and in the latter case the Prosecutor and the Witnesses in attendance shall enter into recognizances for their appearance at such Session of the Central Criminal Court, and if an Indictment or Indictments has or have been found against the prisoner or person, the Clerk of Assize shall transmit the same with the Depositions and all other things relating thereto to the Clerk of the Central Criminal Court, together with a copy of the Order of Court, and such prisoner or person shall be tried upon such Indictment or Indictments in the Central Criminal Court as if such Indictment or Indictments had been found in the said Central Criminal Court, and for the purpose of such trial such prisoner may be removed to the Gaol of Newgate without Writ of Habeas Corpus, but with a Copy of the Order of Court, and all such other proceedings shall be had and taken as if the prisoner or person had been originally committed for trial subsequent to the commencement of the Summer Assizes.

(9.) If the Central Criminal Court at its Session last held in the month of January cannot finally dispose of or for the purposes of Justice is of opinion that it is inexpedient finally to dispose of the case of any prisoner or person committed for trial in the said part of the County of Surrey, then the said Central Criminal Court shall order the removal of such prisoner to the Gaol of the County or place whence he came in order that he may be tried at the next Spring Assizes, and the Prosecutor and Witnesses in attendance at the said Central Court shall enter into recognizances for their appearance at the said Assizes, and if an Indictment or Indictments has or have been found against the prisoner, the Clerk of the said Central Criminal Court shall transmit the Indictment or Indictments and the Depositions and all other things relating thereto to the Clerk of Assize at such Assizes, together with a copy of the Order of Court, and such prisoner or person shall be tried upon such Indictment or Indictments as if the same had been found at the said Spring Assizes, and such prisoner may be removed from the said Gaol of Newgate to the Gaol whence he came without Writ of Habeas Corpus, but with a copy of the said Order of Court, and all such other proceedings shall be had and taken as if the said prisoner or person had not been removed to the said Gaol of Newgate.

(10.) If, in pursuance of the 18th section of the Central Criminal Court Act as applied by this Order, any Writ of Certiorari or Habeas Corpus be issued for the removal of any indictment or presentment, or of any person in custody from the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey to the Central Criminal Court, one week's notice shall be given in manner required by that section.

(11.) Except where the context otherwise requires, the terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

(12.) This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force until the 1st day of March, 1879.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The Northern and Salford Divisions (as defined by the Order in Council of the 4th day of May, 1864) of the County of Lancaster shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 1.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Manchester shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried, and for the purpose of giving effect to any sentence, whether it be capital or a sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment, shall have power to remit the prisoner back to the gaol to which he would have been remitted, had he been tried at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, he would have been tried, there to be dealt with according to law.

10. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes or forfeit his recognizance, provided that not less than six days' notice to appear at such Winter Assizes shall have been given to such person, either by serving the same upon him personally, or by leaving the same at the place of residence as of which he is described in his recognizance, and the Clerks to the committing Justices or the Coroners, as the case may be, in the said Winter Assize County shall issue such notices as aforesaid; and service on any person of such notice may be proved by affidavit purporting to be sworn before any Justice of the Peace, or any Commissioner to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature, or any Clerk of the Peace, or any Registrar of a County Court; and any such affidavit shall, until the contrary is shown, be taken to be sufficient proof of the statements contained therein, and shall be received in evidence in any legal proceeding without proof of the signatures or of the official character of the person or persons taking or signing the same; and the fee for taking such affidavit shall be one shilling, and any such fee shall be costs in the matter to which it relates.

11. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Manchester, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Lancaster, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Manchester.

12. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter

13. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed, may, upon the application of such prisoner, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where the prisoner was committed to advance to the prisoner a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of his witnesses, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.
