

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of June last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twelfth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz. :—

MARKET HARBOROUGH.—Forthwith wholly in the Baptist Chapelyard, Market Harborough, except in existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

NORTH SOMERCOTES.—Forthwith wholly in North Somercotes Church, in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves for the burials of those only whose wives or husbands have been buried in the churchyard.

TETNEY.—Forthwith wholly in Tetney Church, in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves that can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of entire bones.

ROTHLEY.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Rothley, in the county of Leicester, and in the Rothley Baptist Chapel; and in the churchyard and chapelyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of entire bones.

ROTHERFIELD.—Forthwith wholly in Rotherfield Church, in the county of Sussex; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed in brickwork or stonework properly cemented; and except also in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of entire bones.

HEAPHAM-WITH-UPTON.—Forthwith wholly in Upton Church, in the parish of Heapham-with-Upton, in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, except in graves that can be opened without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of entire bones.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the dis-
