NOTICE.—EMIGRATION TO GUATEMALA.

THE Board of Trade have received through Secretary of State for the Colonies the following translation of a Decree of the Government of Guatemala affecting immigrants into that country:—

Decree No. 216.

J. R. BARRIOS, General of Division, and President of the Republic of Guatemala, considering

1st. That the Decree of the 2nd of Mardi of the present year determines that all immigrants who may come to the Republic at the expense or assisted by the Government must renounce their nationality and all their rights as foreigners at the first port of the Republic they touch.

2nd. That these provisions may offer difficulties because some immigrants may refuse to make this renouncement after having received the said funds or assistance. I decree

ART. 1. The renouncement of nationality and rights of foreigners shall be made at the place of departure of those who with the aid of funds or assistance of the Government of Guatemala, shall immigrate to this Republic, the same being carried into effect in accordance with the laws of the nation to which the said immigrants may belong, and shall be ratified before the Consuls or Consular Agents of Guatemala, exhibiting to them the document that may have been granted authorising them to renounce their nationality.

ART. 2. The foreigners who without having renounced their nationality at the place of their departure shall arrive on the territory of Guatemala, and who may wish to obtain lands or other advantages from this Government, shall before obtaining them renounce their nationality before the Minister, Chargé d'Affaires or Consul of their nation, and ratify it before the Governor of the Department they are in, presenting to him the document that to that purpose may have been granted to them.

ART. 3. After having passed a year in the territory of Guatemala from the date of their renouncement, immigrants may solicit from the Government a certificate of citizenship, and this shall be granted to those who during that period have conducted themselves well.

Given at the National Palace at Guatemala, the 19th of August, 1878.
