

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz.:—

CARDIFF.—In the additional churchyards of Saint Mary and of Saint John, forming the old cemetery of Cardiff, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in family graves which can be opened five feet deep without the exposure of coffins, to be used for the burial only of the widowers, widows, parents or unmarried children of those already buried therein.

ULVERSTON.—In Saint Mary and in Holy Trinity Churchyards, Ulverston, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in graves not before buried in or in those to be used for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents or children of those already buried therein.

KNIGHTON.—Forthwith wholly in Knighton Church, in the county of Radnor; and in the churchyard, after the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves to be used only for the burial of the widowers or widows of those already interred therein.

THORNBURY.—Forthwith wholly in Thornbury Church, in the county of Gloucester; and in the churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except also in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

CLAPHAM.—Forthwith wholly in Clapham Church, in the county of York; and in the churchyard, except in graves that can be opened without the disturbance of coffins.

STRATFORD-ON-AVON.—Forthwith wholly in the Parish Churchyard of Stratford-on-Avon, in the county of Warwick, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in now existing family graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

GUISELEY.—Forthwith wholly in the Church of Horsforth, Guiseley, in the county of York; and in the churchyard, except in family vaults and graves that can be opened without the disturbance of coffins; also in the additional churchyard and in the Baptist Burial Ground, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and in earthen graves not less than five feet deep that can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

LLANGATTOCK.—Forthwith wholly in the part of the Llangattock Churchyard, in the county of Brecon, which is south of the church.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of January next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said fourteenth day of January.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 3rd day of December, 1878.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord Chancellor.
Lord President.
Mr. Secretary Cross.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke The Schleswig-Holstein Order of 1878: Provided that nothing herein shall invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before this Order takes effect, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

C. L. Peel.

Windsor Castle, November 28, 1878.

THIS day had audience of Her Majesty:—

Count Beust, Ambassador from His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, to deliver his Letters of Recall;

To which audience he was introduced by the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs
