Notice of Dividend Meeting.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the Bankrupts hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, before Philip Henry Pepys, Esq., a Registrar:

Henry Perrin and Frederick Perrin, of No. 9, Mincing-lane, in the city of London, trading under the name, style, or firm of H. and F. Perrin, Merchants and Copartners, adjudicated bankrupts on the 10th day of December, 1867. A Dividend Meeting of the Joint Estate will be held on the 9th day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignee will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupts' estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupts. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of John Kain, of Eaton Cottage, Green Leaf-lane, Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, Builder, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr Registrar Pepys, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 22nd day of January, 1879, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been attempted to be realized for the benefit of the creditors, but that, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection, nothing can be realized, for the reasons set forth in the statements thereunto annexed, in writing, under their hands, and that, in their opinion, it is useless protracting the bankruptcy, and the said James Edward Lewin further reporting that, in consequence of no assets having been realized, no dividend has been declared or paid by him, now upon the application of Mr. William Webb for the Trustee, and upon reading the affidavit of Herbert Arthur Hughes, sworn the 10th March, 1879, and the exhibits therein referred to, and the report of the Official Assignee, dated 18th March, 1879, and no creditor appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that nothing can be realized for the benefit of the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John Kain has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 18th day of March, 1879.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester. In the Matter of Thomas Jefferies and Alexander Maclean the younger, of the city of Manchester, trading there in Copartnership with Richard Hamilton Conolly, as Commission Agents and Merchants, under the style or firm of Jefferies and Co., and also of the said Thomas Jefferies, trading in Copartnership with the said Richard Hamilton Conolly, at Pernambuco, in South America, as Merchants, under the style or firm of Thomas Jefferies and Co., Bankrupts.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupts, dated the 11th day of March, 1879, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupts had been realized for the benefit of their creditors, and a dividend of twopence and twenty-one thirty seconds of a penny in the pound had been paid to the joint creditors as shown by the statement annexed to the report of the Trustee, and a dividend of twenty shillings in the pound has been paid to the separate creditors of the bankrupt, Alexander Maclean the younger, as shown by the statement No. 2 also annexed to such report, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupts has been realized for the benefit of their creditors, and a dividend of two pence and twenty-
