AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of March, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the "Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning "the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz. :—

CAISTOR.—Forthwith wholly in Caistor Church, in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins.

STRATFORD-UPON-AVON.—Wholly in the parish churchyard of Stratford-upon-Avon, in the county of Warwick, after the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in now existing family graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

ALPHINGTON.—Forthwith wholly in the old part of Alplington churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

WOKING.—Forthwith wholly in Woking Church, in the county of Surrey, and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except also in earthen graves, not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

HORSHAM.—In the cemetery or additional churchyard of Horsham, after the thirty-first of December next, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves five feet deep which can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

CHRISTCHURCH.—Forthwith wholly beneath the Christchurch Church, in the county of Monmouth; and in the churchyard, after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except in earthen graves five feet deep which can be opened without the exposure of coffins, to be used only for the burial of members of the families of those already buried in them, or of parishioners dying within one mile of the church.

KIRKLEY.—Wholly in the churchyard of Kirkley, in the county of Suffolk, after the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except for the burial of the members of the families of those previously interred therein in graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

NORTH WHEATLEY.—Forthwith wholly in the churchyard of North Wheatley, in the county of Nottingham, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

DROYLESDEN.—Wholly in the Droylesden churchyard, on the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except for the burial of members of the families of those previously buried in graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet without the exposure of coffins.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fifth day of May next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said fifth day of May. C. L. Peel.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of March, 1879.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Lord George Hamilton.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Article 14 of The Foreign Animals Order shall be read and have effect as if Hull was included in the list of Ports therein named. C. L. Peel.
