

SCHEDULE No. 5.

REGULATIONS AND CONDITIONS, &c., as to the Posting, Forwarding, Conveyance, and Delivery of Postal Packets, conveyed or delivered for conveyance by Post as mentioned and described in the foregoing Schedules Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4.

Part I.—General Regulations and Conditions.

1. Any postal packet posted in the United Kingdom, Malta, Gibraltar, Cyprus, or Tangier, or at either of the British Post Offices in Constantinople, Smyrna, and Beyrout, respectively, addressed to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, or to the United Kingdom, may be registered, provided that all rates of postage and additional sums for registration chargeable thereon be fully prepaid.

2. The sender of any registered postal packet so posted and addressed as aforesaid, may obtain from the addressee of such packet, an acknowledgment of the delivery of such packet to such addressee by paying in advance at the time of posting such packet an additional sum of two pence and one half penny.

3. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, any postal packet which shall contain either gold or silver money, any jewel or precious article, or any article liable to customs' duties in such countries or places respectively; and any such packet, if posted, shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

4. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, any newspaper, or packet of newspapers, exceeding four pounds in weight, nor any packet of commercial papers or packet of printed papers, exceeding four pounds in weight, nor any pattern or sample packet exceeding one half of a pound in weight; and any such newspaper or packet, if posted, shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

5. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, any pattern or sample packet, the dimensions of which shall exceed eight inches in length, four inches in breadth, and two inches in depth; and any such packet, if posted, shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

6. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, unless by the special permission in any case or class of cases of the Postmaster-General, any postal packet, other than a pattern or sample packet, the dimensions of which shall exceed two feet in length and one foot in breadth or depth; and any such packet, if posted, shall, be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

7. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any postal packet which shall contain anything which might by pressure or otherwise be rendered injurious either to the Officers of the Post Office or to the contents of the mail bags, nor any packet of commercial papers, packet of printed papers or pattern, or sample packet which shall not be securely packed and guarded in such manner as to furnish complete protection against injury to the Officers of the Post Office and to the contents of the mail bags; and any such packet, if posted, shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

8. There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, drawing, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, supplement, publication, packet, paper, or card having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if anything shall be posted which shall prima facie fall within the aforesaid prohibition, it shall be stopped and submitted at the General Post Office in London to the inspection of an Officer duly authorised in that behalf by the Postmaster-General.

9. Any postal packet addressed to and received in the United Kingdom which shall be redirected in the United Kingdom to any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, shall not be liable to or chargeable with any British postage in respect either of such redirection or of the retransmission thereof by post to the country or place to which the same shall be so redirected.

10. On every postal packet posted in any country or place mentioned in the first column of Part 1 of Schedule No. 1, addressed to some part of the same country or place and which shall be redirected in such country or place, and transmitted by post from thence respectively to the United Kingdom, Malta, Gibraltar, Cyprus, or Tangier, there shall be charged and paid in the United Kingdom, Malta, Gibraltar, Cyprus and Tangier, respectively on the delivery thereof, in addition to any postage charged thereon in respect of the inland service of the country or place in which such packet shall have been posted the same rate or rates of postage which such postal packet would have been chargeable with if the same had been originally addressed to the United Kingdom, Malta, Gibraltar, Cyprus, or Tangier, but in the case of a letter of which the postage to its original address, within such country or place as aforesaid, has been prepaid by means of a postage stamp or stamps valid in the said country or place, affixed to or impressed on such letter the value of such stamp or stamps, shall be deducted from the total amount of postage chargeable under this regulation on such letter as aforesaid.

11. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he shall consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage made payable by any regulation contained in this Schedule.

12. In this Warrant and the Schedules thereto, the expression "United Kingdom" means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

Part II.—As to Post Cards.

13. Post cards bearing an impressed stamp shall be issued by the Postmaster-General, for conveyance by post under this Warrant, and the cards so issued, and no others, shall be deemed to be post cards within the meaning of this Warrant.

14. The address and nothing else shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card which bears the impressed stamp, and no part of the address shall be written, printed, or otherwise impressed across such stamp.

15. Anything (including a letter or communication in the nature of a letter) may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the side of the post card which does not bear the impressed stamp.

16. Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a post card except a postage stamp or stamps in payment of any deficient postage or additional sum chargeable thereon for registration or for acknowledgment of delivery; nor
