

own apart from their mere use as patterns or samples.

32. Patterns or samples shall, when practicable, be posted in covers open at both ends, and so that the same may be easily removed for the purpose of examination. Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and other such articles as cannot be posted in open covers, may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or other material fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened so as to enable the officers of the Post Office to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.

33. There shall be no writing upon any pattern or sample packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, a manufacturer's or trade mark or number, and the price of the articles of which patterns or samples are contained therein, nor shall there be any writing or other thing enclosed in any such packet, except the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, or manufacturer's or trade mark or number, and the price of the articles of which patterns or samples are contained therein, and any such permitted writing in any such packet may be on labels attached to the patterns or samples.

34. If there shall be posted any packet containing a pattern or sample of any intrinsic value, or any article or thing of a saleable nature or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, such packet shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

35. If any pattern or sample packet is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively 32 and 33, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

36. If any pattern or sample packet be posted in Gibraltar, addressed to Spain, the Balearic Islands, the Canary Islands, or the Spanish Possessions on the Northern Coast of Africa, without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, it shall be detained and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

Dated this 20th day of March, 1879.

Crichton,
J. D. H. Elphinstone,
Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

John Manners,
Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Leverstock Green, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of seventy pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eighteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend; or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and forty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Thornhill Lees, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirty-four pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Thornhill Lees, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of thirty-four pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint Matthias, Stoke Newington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one capital sum of four hundred and five pounds two shillings and eleven pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the poor clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage, which was effected by a deed bearing date the sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Saint Matthias, Stoke Newington.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.
