

European Society Arbitration.

Tuesday, the 18th day of March, 1879.

In the Matter of the European Assurance Society Arbitration Acts, 1872, 1873, and 1875.

WHEREAS in the Companies named in the Schedule to this Order (in addition to the European Assurance Society) dividends, particulars whereof are stated in that schedule, have been declared in this Arbitration.

And whereas as regards some of those dividends persons entitled thereto have not presented for payment cheques issued for those dividends or otherwise duly applied for payment of those dividends.

And whereas as regards some of those dividends by several former Orders in this Arbitration payment of cheques not so presented has been barred.

And whereas it is expedient to enforce the closing of the liquidations of those Companies.

Now, therefore, I, Francis Savage Reilly, the Arbitrator appointed under the above-mentioned Acts, do by this Order appoint and order as follows:

1. Friday, the 18th day of April, 1879, shall be the day before or on which cheques issued for dividends allotted and directed to be paid to the creditors of the several Companies named in the schedule to this Order shall be presented at the Bank of England for payment, and the right of all creditors or holders of those cheques to receive after that day payment of those cheques or of the dividends for which they were issued, shall be and is hereby absolutely barred.

2. The foregoing direction of this Order is without prejudice to the several former Orders in this Arbitration barring payment of cheques for dividends, and the right of all creditors or holders of cheques comprised in those former Orders to receive payment thereof, or of the dividends for which they were issued, shall be and is hereby, as from and after Friday, the 18th day of April, 1879, absolutely barred.

3. Friday, the 18th day of April, 1879, shall be the day before or on which payment of dividends allotted and directed to be paid to the creditors of the several Companies named in the schedule to this Order for which cheques have not been issued shall be applied for, and the right of all such last-mentioned creditors to receive payment of such dividends after that day shall be and is hereby absolutely barred.

Francis S. Reilly.
