THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the Albert Medal of the Second Class on— Captain ALEXANDER CHRISTIE, of the fishing-smack "Expert," of Stonehaven.

The following is an account of the service in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

On the 24th January, 1879, the fishing-boat "Expert," of Stonehaven, was run down by the steamer "Countess of Durham," when off Dunnotar Castle, Kincardineshire. The "Expert" at once sank, and three members of the crew were drowned. The master, Captain CHRISTIE, succeeded in obtaining a buoy, by which he supported himself, and a boat put off from the steamer to his assistance.

Captain CHRISTIE, although he had been in the water a quarter of an hour, and the cold was so great that the spray turned to ice, refused to be taken into the boat until one of his crew, George

Main, who was lying some two or three boats' lengths off in a state of insensibility, had been picked up.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 42.

PERIOD OF EMPLOYMENT, 8 A.M.—8 P.M.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 42, contains a special exception to the effect that, in the factories and workshops, or parts thereof, to which the exception applies, the period of employment for young persons and women, if so fixed by the occupier and specified in the notice, may, except on Saturday, begin at 8 A.M. and end at 8 P.M., and on Saturday may begin at 8 A.M. and end at 4 P.M., or where it begins at 7 A.M. may end at 3 P.M., and the period of employment for a child in a morning set may begin at the same hour, and the period of employment for a child in the afternoon set may end at the same hour;

And whereas this special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section;

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that the non-textile factories and workshops of the classes, or the parts thereof, mentioned in the schedule hereunder, by reason of the customs and exigencies of the trades carried on therein require the extension thereto of this exception;

Now I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend the said exception to factories and workshops of such classes.

This Order shall come into effect on 14th May, 1879, and shall, unless previously revoked, continue in force until 31st December, 1882, and no longer.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 58.

NIGHT WORK. MALE YOUNG PERSONS

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 58, contains a special exception to the effect that nothing in the Act shall prevent the employment, in factories to which the exception applies, of male young persons during the night, if they are employed in accordance with the following conditions:

- (1.) The period of employment shall not exceed 12 consecutive hours, and shall begin and end at the hours specified in the notice in the Act mentioned; and
- (2.) The provisions of Part I of the Act with respect to the allowance of times for meals to young persons during the period of employment shall be observed, with the necessary modifications as to the hour at which the times allowed for meals are fixed; and
- (3.) A male young person employed during any part of the night shall not be employed during any part of the 12 hours preceding or succeeding the period of employment; and
- (4.) A male young person shall not be employed on more than 6 nights, or in the case of blast furnaces or paper mills 7 nights, in any two weeks.

And the said Act declares that the provisions of the Act with respect to the period of employment on Saturday, and with respect to the allowance to young persons of 8 half holidays in every year or of whole holidays in lieu of them, shall not apply to a male young person employed in day and night turns in pursuance of this exception;

And whereas this special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories referred to in the said section:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in non-textile factories of the class mentioned in the schedule hereunder it is necessary, by reason of the nature of the business requiring the process to be carried on throughout the night, to employ male young persons of sixteen or upwards at night, and that such employment will not injure the health of the male young persons employed :

Now I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend the said exception to factories of such class so far as regards male young persons of sixteen or upwards.

This Order shall come into effect on 14th May, 1879, and shall, unless previously revoked, continue in force until 31st December, 1882, and no longer.

OVERTIME.—ADDITIONAL TWO HOURS.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, contains a special exception to the effect that the regulations of the Act with respect to the employment of young persons and women shall not prevent the employment in the factories and workshops or parts thereof to which the exception applies of young persons and of women during a period of employment beginning at 6 A.M. and ending at 8 P.M., or beginning at 7 A.M. and ending at 9 P.M., or beginning at 8 A.M. and ending at 10 P.M., if they are employed in accordance with the following conditions ; namely,

- (1.) There shall be allowed to every such young person and woman for meals during the period of employment not less than two hours, of which half an hour shall be after five o'clock in the evening ; and
- (2.) Any such young person or woman shall not be so employed on the whole for more than 5 days in any one week, nor for more than 48 days in any 12 months.

And whereas the special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section ;

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in the non-textile factories and workshops of the classes mentioned in the schedule hereunder it is necessary, by reason of press of work arising at certain recurring seasons of the year, and of the liability of the business to a sudden press of orders arising from unforeseen events, to employ young persons and women in manner authorized by this exception, and that such employment will not injure the health of the young persons and women affected thereby :

Now I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend this exception accordingly.

This Order shall come into effect on 14th May, 1879, and shall, unless previously revoked, continue in force until 31st December, 1882, and no longer.
