THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, accompanied by several Members of the Corporation, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the city of Edinburgh, desire to express our respectful congratulations on the occasion of the Marriage of your Majesty's son, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and Strathearne, to the Princess Louise Margaret of Prussia.

The alliance being one of affection and cordially approved by your Majesty must, we believe, not only result in the happiness of the Duke and his wife, but be the source of gratification and happiness to your Majesty.

In the opportunities which we have had of knowing His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, we had good reason for concurring in the opinion which, we believe, is entertained throughout the Kingdom, that His Royal Highness worthily sustains the promise of his high parentage, while his character and conduct strengthen the bonds of love and loyalty which binds your Majesty's subjects to your person and Crown.

Should the Royal Duke and Duchess visit your Majesty's ancient capital of Scotland, we are sure they will have a most hearty and respectful welcome.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, and the seal of the city affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the 11th day of March, 1879.
Thomas J. Boyd, Lord Provost.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer:—

"Your loyal Address affords me much gratification, and I thank you sincerely for your affectionate congratulations on the happy occasion of the Marriage of the Duke of Connaught. I gladly receive your assurances of the cordial good wishes of my people of Edinburgh on an event which so deeply concerns my own happiness and that of those most dear to me."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirtieth and thirty-ninth years of Our reign, intituled "The Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five," it is amongst other things enacted that, save as therein otherwise provided, the Militia shall be trained and exercised for not less than twenty-one days, and not more than twenty-eight days in every year, at such times, and at such places, in any part of the United Kingdom as Her Majesty may appoint; and also that Her Majesty may from time to time, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order that the period of training and exercise in any year, of all, or any part of the Militia, be extended; but that so that the whole period of training and exercise be not more than fifty-six days:

And whereas it is expedient that the training of the Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, and Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days, for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct that the period of training and exercise of the Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, and Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, shall, for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, be extended under the provisions of the said recited Act, from twenty-eight days to the days hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:

PRESENT,

and seventy-seven" there were substituted the words "from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, or such further time as Her Majesty may by Order in Council determine."

Whereas by several Orders in Council, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was pleased from time to time, in accordance with the above recited enactment, to prolong till the 31st day of May, 1879, the time for the registration of that portion of Trade Marks used in the textile industries which is applied to cotton piece goods.

And whereas it is deemed expedient that in so far as regards the Trade Marks applied to cotton piece goods, such time should be further extended beyond the said 31st day of May, 1879.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased in accordance with the above recited enactment, further to prolong till the 31st day of July, 1879, the time for the registration of Trade Marks applied to cotton piece goods.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857," it is enacted that the Conservators of the River Thames shall have power and authority, from time to time, to make Bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the River Thames, and the navigation thereof, in the manner thereby provided, and to impose penalties, not exceeding five pounds, for the breach or non-performance of such Bye-laws:

And whereas, by the forty-seventh section of the said Act, it is enacted that no such Bye-laws shall be in force until the same have been sent to the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, and shall have been approved by one of them:

And whereas, by the thirty-first section of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1864," it is enacted, that from and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, section forty-seven, of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857," shall be repealed, and that Bye-laws made after the commencement of such repeal, under the authority of either of the said recited Acts, shall not have any force unless and until they are allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas, by the forty-first section of "The Thames Navigation Act, 1866," it is enacted that, from the passing of the said Act, the Conservators of the River Thames shall have the same or the like powers and authorities over and with respect to the Thames and Isis, from Staines to Cricklade, as they have, by virtue of "The Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864," over and with respect to the Thames below Staines:

And whereas, by the forty-second section of the same Act, it is enacted that the provisions of the said Conservancy Acts of 1857 and 1864, respecting Bye-laws, shall extend and apply to Bye-laws for the purposes of the Upper Navigation Acts or the said "Thames Navigation Act, 1866:"

And whereas, by the ninth section of "The Thames Navigation Act, 1870," it is enacted, that so much of section twenty-seven of "The Thames Act of 1810," as exempts pleasure boats from tolls and duties is thereby repealed, and the Conservators may, by Bye-law allowed by Order in Council, make provision for the registration and regulation and licensing of pleasure boats let for hire, and may from time to time demand and receive, in respect of all pleasure boats passing through locks on the Thames, tolls or annual payments, to be appointed by Bye-law allowed as aforesaid, not exceeding the amounts mentioned in the second schedule to the said Act :

And whereas, by the thirty-fifth section of the said Act, it is enacted, that the Conservators may from time to time make Bye-laws for any purpose by this Act expressly authorized or directed to be regulated by Bye-laws, and the provisions of "The Thames Act of 1864," relative to the making of Bye-laws, and the allowance thereof by Order in Council, shall apply to Bye-laws under the said Act :

And whereas by the first section of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1878," it is enacted, that that Act and the Thames Acts, 1857 to 1870, may be cited together as the Thames Acts, 1857 to 1878, and shall be read and have effect together as one Act :

And whereas, by the fifth section of the last-recited Act, it is enacted, that with respect to the tolls or annual payments to be appointed by Bye-law, in respect of all pleasure boats passing through locks on the Thames, the schedule to that Act shall be deemed to be substituted for the second schedule to the Thames Navigation Act, 1870, and such last-mentioned schedule shall be repealed, and section nine of that Act shall be read and have effect accordingly :

And whereas the said Conservators have, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the Thames Acts, 1857 to 1870, from time to time, made and submitted for the allowance of Her Majesty in Council, certain rules and bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the navigation of the River Thames, and, amongst others, certain bye-laws which have been allowed by Order in Council dated the 5th day of February, 1872 :

And whereas, it was deemed expedient by the said Conservators to repeal in part the said last-mentioned Bye-laws, and to make new Bye-laws in lieu of the portions so repealed :

And whereas such new Bye-laws were duly submitted for the allowance of Her Majesty in Council, and were allowed by Order in Council dated the 28th day of November, 1874 :

And whereas it has been deemed expedient by the said Conservators further to repeal in part the said Bye-laws allowed by Order in Council dated the 5th day of February, 1872, and to make new Bye-laws in lieu of the portions so repealed, in the manner set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed :

And whereas the said Rules and Bye-laws have been duly published, in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Acts, and it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said Rules and Bye-laws, as set forth as aforesaid in the schedule hereunto annexed, are reasonable and proper :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1864," and of every other power enabling Her in that behalf, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to allow the said Rules and Bye-laws.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; and of the Act of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter fourteen; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two; and of the Act of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of your Majesty, chapter fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael situate at Tividale in the parish of Tipton in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Tipton and of the said parish of Rowley Regis should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael situate at Tividale as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael, Tividale, being:—

And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Rowley Regis wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the south-east partly by the new parish of Langley in the said county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester aforesaid and partly by the parish of Oldbury in the last-named county and diocese on the north-east by the new parish of Saint Peter West Bromwich in the said county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield aforesaid on the north-west partly by the parish of Tipton aforesaid (inclusive of the hereinbefore-described portion of such parish) and partly by the new parish of Saint John Kate's Hill aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John Kate's Hill from the parish of Rowley Regis aforesaid at a point in the middle of the turnpike-road leading from Dudley to Rowley Regis and called or known at this point as Oakham-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned turnpike-road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading past Oakham and Derby Hill to Lye Cross and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to its junction at Lye Cross aforesaid, with the public footpath leading to the Sampson Colliery and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of the said public footpath for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary on the north-western side of the said colliery, which boundary divides the said parish of Rowley Regis from the new parish of Langley aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield, and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of May, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty the following scheme for consolidating into one benefice to be held by one incumbent the two mediety or portions (each of which mediety or portions is as hereinafter mentioned a vicarage) of the benefice of Pattishall in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas the Right Reverend William Connor Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough acting under and in pursuance of the Act hereinbefore mentioned has submitted to us a plan bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine for effecting the consolidation of the two mediety or portions of the same benefice, which said plan (as by the same and by the three schedules thereto or some or one of them appears) has the consent of the person who is patron of both the mediety or portions of the said benefice of Pattishall and does not prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent of the same benefice.

"And whereas the said plan is in the words and figures following that is to say:

"To the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"I, William Connor Bishop of the diocese of Peterborough acting under the powers of the Act 3 and 4 Victoria chapter 113 have framed and now submit to you the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England the following plan with reference to the benefice of Pattishall in the county of Northampton and in the said diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas the benefice of Pattishall aforesaid is a benefice which of long time past hath been and which now is held in mediety; and both the said mediety of the said benefice are vicarages.

"And whereas the parish of Pattishall aforesaid is a parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two incumbents each having as aforesaid a mediety of the benefice.

"And whereas the said benefice and parish of Pattishall hath within the limits of the same parish one consecrated church, and one only; the same being the parish church of the said parish of Pattishall.

"And whereas the said parish church of Pattishall now has within it accommodation for three hundred and sixty persons.

"And whereas the population of the said parish of Pattishall is according to the census of 1871 nine hundred and sixty-five persons.

"And whereas the endowments of the vicarage of the first mediety of the said benefice of Pattishall are as stated in the first schedule to this plan; the permanent gross income of the same endowments being one hundred and sixty pounds per annum or thereabouts, and there being also a house of residence for and belonging to the vicar of the said first mediety.

"And whereas the endowments of the vicarage of the second mediety of the said benefice of Pattishall are as stated in the second schedule to this plan; the permanent gross income of the same endowments being two hundred and forty-three pounds per annum or thereabouts, and there being also a house of residence for and belonging to the vicar of the said second mediety.

"And whereas the vicarage house for and belonging to the vicar of the said second mediety of the said benefice of Pattishall is a more commodious and suitable house of residence than the vicarage house for and belonging to the vicar of the said first mediety.

"And whereas the celebration of Divine worship and administration of the sacraments at the said parish church of the said parish of Pattishall hath hitherto been supplied by the alternate care and labour of the two incumbents of the said benefice of Pattishall, that is to say of the vicar of the said first mediety and of the vicar of the said second mediety.

"And whereas the vicarage or first mediety of the said benefice of Pattishall is now vacant.

"And whereas the Reverend Henry Forster Welsh, Clerk in Holy Orders, is now vicar of the vicarage or second mediety of the said benefice of Pattishall.

“And whereas the advowson or right of patronage and nomination of and to the vicarage or first mediety of the said benefice of Pattishall, and also the right of patronage and nomination of and to the vicarage or second mediety of the said benefice of Pattishall, is vested absolutely for an estate of inheritance in fee simple in possession in the said Reverend Henry Forster Welch of the parish of Pattishall aforesaid Clerk in Holy Orders and his heirs and assigns.

“And whereas the said Henry Forster Welch, as patron of both the said medieties of the said benefice of Pattishall and also as the only existing incumbent of the same, has consented to this plan; and his consent is signified by a writing to that effect under his hand, which writing is the third schedule to this plan.

“Now therefore this my plan with reference to the said benefice of Pattishall is:—

“1. That as from the day on which any Order of Her Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme whereby you the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England shall recommend the carrying into effect of this plan shall be published in the London Gazette, the two medieties of the said benefice of Pattishall shall be consolidated and shall become and thereafter continue and be with respect both to the profits and the spiritual charge of and in the said parish of Pattishall, one whole and undivided benefice, by the name style and title of the vicarage of Pattishall: which undivided benefice shall as from the same day be held by one incumbent only.

“2. That the said Henry Forster Welch or other the spiritual person being on the day aforesaid vicar of the second mediety of the said present benefice of Pattishall shall as from the same day become, without any form or fee of institution, and shall thereafter be, incumbent and vicar of the whole and undivided benefice and vicarage of Pattishall.

“3. That as from the day aforesaid the endowment of the vicarage or first mediety of the said present benefice of Pattishall and the endowment of the vicarage or second mediety of the same benefice (as such endowments respectively are set out in the said first and second schedules to this plan but including also any of such endowments which may not be so set out) shall become and thereafter be the endowments of the whole and undivided benefice and vicarage of Pattishall aforesaid.

“4. That the vicarage house now being as aforesaid the house of residence of the vicar of the second mediety of the said present benefice of Pattishall shall as from the date aforesaid become and thereafter be the house of residence and vicarage house of the incumbent and vicar of the whole and undivided benefice and vicarage of Pattishall aforesaid.

“5. That the vicarage house now being as aforesaid the house of residence of the vicar of the first mediety of the said present benefice of Pattishall shall as from the day aforesaid become and be a part of the endowments of the whole and undivided benefice and vicarage of Pattishall aforesaid and may be dealt with accordingly.

“6. That the incumbent and vicar for the time being of the said whole and undivided benefice and vicarage of Pattishall shall as from the day aforesaid be affected with and subject to all liabilities which on that day shall be found attaching to the vicarage or first mediety of the said present benefice of Pattishall, and to all liabilities which on that day shall be found attaching to the vicarage or second mediety of the same benefice.

“7. That the whole advowson or right of patronage and nomination of and to the whole and undivided benefice and vicarage of Pattishall shall as from the day aforesaid, be vested absolutely in the said Henry Forster Welch of Pattishall aforesaid (now being as aforesaid the patron of both the said medieties of the said benefice of Pattishall) and his heirs and assigns for ever.

“All which, being my plan with reference to the said benefice of Pattishall, I submit as aforesaid to you the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

“In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and episcopal seal this twenty-sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

“W. C. Peterborough.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation; one month before such representation is so considered: provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), Whitehall Gardens, May 21, 1879.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Quarantine Proclamation by the Governor of Texas, which is as follows:—

Quarantine Proclamation.

By the Governor of the State of Texas.

To all to whom these presents shall come: Know ye, that I, O. M. Roberts, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution, and the several Acts of the Legislature of this State, approved June 10, 1870, August 13, 1870, May 4, 1874, and April 10, 1879, do hereby declare quarantine on the coast of Texas, to commence on April 25, 1879, and continue until suspended by the Governor, and direct the authorities of every corporate town, and in case there are no corporate town authorities, then the county court of any county on the coast, to carry out the provisions of the quarantine laws of this state; said quarantine to extend to all vessels sailing from or touching at any port or coast south of north latitude 25 degrees. I hereby further direct health officers at the respective ports as soon as they are reliably informed of the existence of infectious or contagious diseases at any other port, city, or town not herein specially included, to declare all vessels arriving from such places subject to quarantine, and to all the regulations established for the enforcement of the same. Vessels sailing from or touching at any port or coast south of north latitude 25 degrees, and entering any port on the coast of Texas during the continuance of quarantine, if free from disease, may be disinfected and relieved from detention, or detained for a term that will make twenty days from date of departure from said infected port or district, at the discretion of the health officer. Vessels upon which contagious or infectious diseases appear, shall be detained for twenty-five days after all disease has disappeared from such vessel or vessels, and then allowed to pass. Health officers are directed to provide and enforce such regulations as will prevent all communication with vessels in quarantine; and also to provide for the thorough disinfection of all vessels on which there has been any contagious or infectious disease, before they are allowed to leave quarantine, all expenses necessary to such disinfection to be paid by the vessel. Quarantine stations for the enforcement of this proclamation are hereby established at Sabine Pass, Galveston Pass, Pass Cavalla, Aransas Pass, and Brazos Santiago. The quarantine station shall be established by the proper health officer at each of the passes as near the outer bar as possible, looking to the safety of vessels lying at anchor and convenience to boarding same. The health officer of Brazos Santiago shall also inspect and supervise vessels entering at the mouth of the Rio Grande. The health officer to be appointed by the corporate authorities of Galveston, is charged with the enforcement of this proclamation at Galveston Pass; the one to be appointed at Indianola for Pass Cavalla; the one to be appointed at Corpus Christi for Aransas Pass, or any other pass which may be made in the vicinity thereof. The county authorities on the Rio Grande are authorized and directed, during the continuance of this quarantine, to establish such regulations as will prevent the importation of disease by land. I also recommend to the corporate authorities of cities and towns on the coast of Texas, and other places liable to the invasion of such diseases, that they aid in the adoption and enforcement of such sanitary rules and regulations as will prevent the importation and spread of yellow fever, or other contagious diseases in the State of Texas.

In testimony whereof, I hereto sign my name and cause the seal of state to be affixed, at the city of Austin, this 19th day of April, A.D. 1879.
